B. P. W. C. DELEGATES RETURN FROM CONVENTION

Ruth Roberts, president of the local Business and Professional Women's Club, Alvia Wetherall, president-elect, Edna Helgeson, vice-president-elect, and Mrs. Simonson returned Sunday night from Portland where they attended the state convention of the B. P. W. C. as delegates from the local club. Golda Nickell, also of the delegation went on to Seattle to attend to business. Edna Helgeson and Golda Nickell attended the Friday evening banquet and fun frolic at the Multnomah hotel at which time the Hillsboro Club was hostess. All five delegates attended meetings Saturday and Sunday, and the formal banquet held at the Multnomah Saturday evening. The speaker at the evening ceremony was Mrs. Gloria Bowman, Reno, Nevada, Nevada state president of the B. P. W. C. and a national representative. Mrs. Bowman is an able speaker and is well qualified to speak authoritatively on national and international affairs, since she was a consultant at the San Francisco conference. Saturday afternoon election of state officers, state committee chairmen and state delegates to the National Convention to be held in Cleveland, Ohio, in July, was held. Edna Helgeson of the local club was elected one of the delegate alternates to go to Cleveland.

Sunday morning the Hood River Club was hostess at the Emblem breakfast. Mrs. Gloria Bowman, national representative presided at the installation of the new state officers for the coming year. At this time Kathleen Miller, Albany, president, Leone Jensen of Eugene, first vice president, Carmalite Weddle, Salem, second vice president, Miss Koch of McMinnville, recording secretary, and Miss Ruth Baumbach, Harrisburg, corresponding secretary, were installed.
