In the Day's News

Byrnes terms "every effort toward peace" by treaty.

* * *

IF we knew what Russia really wants, it might be possible to get somewhere.

Unfortunately, we don't know. She insists that she is merely making herself secure for the future. But her moves, as so far made on the board, suggest the possibility of aggression as strongly as they suggest mere defense.

Russia has been a mystery from the hour when she first entered the war. She is no less a mystery now.

* * *

IT would be easy for us to imagine that Mr. Byrnes knows what Russia has up her sleeve, but isn't telling. His actions, however, suggest otherwise.

In his speech last night, he gave Moscow what amounts almost to an ultimatum—asserting that the Soviet Union can either STOP blocking a European peace conference this summer or the United Staes will carry the whole matter to the United Nations.

That looks like he is trying to force Moscow out into the open—trying to FIND OUT what Russia is up to.

* * *

IF he knew, he would probably have taken some other tack—for after all the threat to carry the problem of peace in Europe to the United Nations is a rather idle one. If Russia refuses to cooperate, it is obvious that the United Nations will be DEAD—as dead as the League of Nations was when WE refused to co-operate.

It would then become merely a BLOC of nations OPPOSED to Russia.

* * *

THERE is a development in the news that can be interpreted in either of two ways.

Senator Vandenberg, a Republican, who with Senator Connally, Democrat, accompanied Secretary Byrnes to Paris, refrains from criticism. Instead, he SUPPORTS Mr. Byrnes, conceding that the Paris meeting failed to produce agreement on many vital maters, but asserting flatly that it solidified American policy to write a "peace for keeps," based on justice and not vengeance. He adds that for the time being at least he is willing to "let the record stand where Secretary of State Byrnes left it in his radio report to the nation last night."

That can be taken as reassuring, in that it indicates that at last we may be developing a sound bi-partisan American foreign policy, in which we can ALL STAND TOGETHER. That would be all to the good.

OR—

It might indicate that the situation is so serious that we've all GOT TO STAND TOGETHER.

* * *

FOR the moment, at least, the United Nations ideal of peace by co-operative action of the great nations of the world is in a tight corner.

What the situation looks like is a new division of Europe into competing spheres of influence, with a dividing line about where the armies stopped fighting on V-E day, and with Russia on one side of it and the United States and Britain (and maybe France) on the other side.

Such an alignment would be packed with possibilities of trouble.

* * *

THERE is always the chance that Russia is reaching for everything that is loose in the world and proposes to take all she can get away with, but no more. Secretary Byrnes' "ultimatum" (expressed more pacifically as a "choice" that Russia can make) is probably an effort to find out what is what.

A NEEDED PROJECT

By CHARLES V. STANTON

The Roseburg Rod and Gun Club is appealing to its membership and to other persons interested in recreational development to underwrite financially one of the most ambitious programs to be undertaken by any sportsmen's group in Oregon, outside the city of Portland. Individuals are asked to loan $100 each, without interest and with no maturity date, to enable the club (first) to complete purchase of its 105-acre recreational site at Winchester, five miles north of Roseburg, and (second) to provide recreational installations.

John Amacher, president of the club, promoted this same system most satisfactorily at Canyonville a few years ago, when, as president of the South Umpqua Rod and Gun Club, he secured loans which, used in cooperation with WPA funds, resulted in construction of the Canyonville Community hall, a building which has proved its value to the entire South Douglas area.

Holders of the South Umpqua Rod and Gun Club loan certificates have as yet received nothing back on their investment in civic welfare, but we have seen many of them exhibit their certificates with a pride which we are quite certain gives them more pleasure than would a check for the amount they have loaned.

But the Roseburg Rod and Gun Club has confidence it will be able to repay its backers within a comparatively short time.

The project it is promoting should produce considerable income. After debt retirement, the club should be able to use earnings to further improve the exceptionally fine recreational center.

From the first money received the club will pay off the balance of its contract on land purchase. This site fronts 3500 feet on the North Umpqua river downstream from the highway bridge.

It is bordered on the north by the county road, which branches off from the Pacific highway and leads into Garden Valley.

The site is bisected by the Southern Pacific tracks. East of the tracks the club proposes to install trapshooting grounds, an archery range, horseshoe pitching courts, and, eventually, an indoor rifle range for small arms firing. On a nearby knoll is a site reserved for a proposed clubhouse, to be constructed of logs. Another proposed building, planned for a later date, is a dance pavilion, which will have a concrete basement to be used for indoor small arms firing and other sports.

South of the tracks will be located a public picnic area, where the club plans to install tables, benches, stoves, toilets, garbage disposal facilities, running water, etc.

A large trapshooting installation will attract shooters from all parts of the state and will permit shooting events to be held throughout the greater part of the year. These matches yield a fair margin of profit. Club facilities, permitting social activities, should yield income over and above cost of operation.

The Rod and Gun Club's program is designed to preserve for public benefit one of the most suitable sites on the North Umpqua river—close to town, easily accessible, scenic and practical. Developed for use, the site would offer a diversity of recreation, a place where family or group picnics can be held, and where the public will have access to the outdoors with a minimum of travel.

We have frequently expressed our opinion that a good sports town is a good business town. Roseburg as the county seat and wholesale center must develop its recreational facilities if it is to serve the territory dependent upon it. Roseburg should not ask wholesale and trading dollars from its neighboring communities without giving some service in return. The greatest service Roseburg can render lies in the field of recreation and entertainment. Important strides have been taken in that direction by the purchase of a fairgrounds, organization of an annual rodeo, revival of the Turkey Show, together with enlargement of our theaters, bowling alley, night spots, baseball and softball leagues, park and playgrounds commission, recreational program, etc. But the field has only been scratched. The Roseburg Rod and Gun Club's program, we feel, is one which will be of the utmost community benefit and is deserving of support from all interested in civic, business, and industrial development.

Lumber Strike Negotiations in B. C. Strike Snag

VANCOUVER, B. C., May 23.—(CP)—A hitherto undisclosed compilation which might hamper an early complete settlement of the British Columbia lumber strike of 36,000 logging and sawmill workers was seen today as the third full session of union-operator discussions presided over by Chief Justice Gordon Sloan was scheduled to take place.

The complication involves the southern and northern interior areas of the province which are not being discussed as yet at the renewed negotiations for a possible settlement of the nine-day dispute involving union demands for an 18-cent hourly wage increase, 40-hour week and union security.

Meanwhile, the two outstanding effects of the strike were the threatened shortage of newsprint and the possibility of B. C. crop losses running into millions of dollars.

It was estimated that every day the shook plants of the interior remain idle more than 100,000 containers are lost to the fruit industry which expects one of its record production years. The shortage of shook may force the industry to ship apples in bulk, highly unsatisfactory and unprofitable.

It is estimate dthat on an average winter day, about 6,000,000 persons in the United States are temporarily or permanently disabled because of illness.

Southpaws Keeping Cardinals in Race Against Brooklyn

(By the Associated Press)

Barring unforeseen developments, the St. Louis Cardinals, knee-deep in southpaw strength on the mound, may turn up with a pair of 20-game winners this year, each pitching from the left side. Only once since the turn of the century has a National League Club boasted two left-handed 20-game winners in one season.

In Max Lanier (6-0) and Howie Pollet (4-2), the Cards have two of the most accomplished portsiders in the league. Having already won more than half the team's total between them, the pair stand a good chance to emulate Lefties Carl Hubbell and Clif Melton, each of whom gained 20 or more triumphs for the New York Giants in 1937.

Pollett's fourth victory last night, a 7-1 win over his pet "cousins", the New York Giants, came at a most opportune time, since it enabled the Cards to regain their first place National League deadlock with the Brooklyn Dodgers. The Brooks had moved a half game ahead by shading the Chicago Cubs 2-1 in 13 innings earlier in the day.

Williams' Homer Wins

Boston's American League-leading Red Sox retained their six game margin over the New York Yankees by winning a 12-inning game from the Cleveland Indians 7-4. A home run by Ted Williams with one in the 12th broke a 4-4 deadlock.

The Yankees overcame a 3-0 deficit as a result of Greenberg's first inning home run, to defeat the Detroit Tigers 5-3 and hand Fred Hutchinson his first loss.

In third place for a few hours as a result of Detroit's loss, the Washington Senator's fell back to fourth when they dropped a night tussle to the St. Louis Browns 3-1.

Sain pitched the Boston Braves into a virtual third place tie with the Cubs by trouncing the Cincinnati Reds 5-1 for his fifth triumph.

A double by First Baseman Jones in the ninth scored Kolloway with the run that gave the Chicago White Sox a 5-4 verdict over the Philadelphia Athletics.

With Schoolboy Rowe starring both at bat and on the mound the Philadelphia Phils upset Pittsburgh, 6-2. Rowe drove in two runs with a pair of doubles scored twice himself.

Permit Asked to Sell Copco Shares

PHILADELPHIA, May 23.—(AP)—Standard Gas & Electric Company, Chicago, proposes to offer all the 312,000 outstanding shares of no par value common stock of California-Oregon Power Company for sale subject to competitive bidding.

The proposal was made in an application filed with the securities and exchange commission. The application asks the SEC to expedite action on it so that the company can invite bids as soon as possible after June 14.

Divestment of Standard's interest in Copco would be undertaken as a step in compliance with an order enforcing provisions of the public utility holding company act.

Oakland Stretches Coast League Lead

(By the Associated Press.)

Oakland's prospering Acorns protected their Pacific Coast League perch with a game and a half advantage today over San Francisco's Seals.

In a demonstration of the power that placed them at the top two days ago, the Acorns hammered out 21 hits off three Portland pitchers last night for a 10-1 victory. It was the ninth straight win for Oakland, and the 22nd in the last 29 starts.

San Francisco, half a game behind its accustomed spot at the head of the pack, in the opener of a series with fourth-place San Diego last night went down before the Padres in a 5-2 decision.

Although the Seals out-hit Pepper Martin's spirited club, 12 to 5, they let San Diego practically steal the game. Melton, eight-game winner for the Seals, was charged for his third loss.

The Hollywood Stars for the second time in as many days shut out the Los Angeles Angels by the score of 8 to 0, reducing them to four and a half games behind the league leaders.

Sacramento regained sixth place in a 2-1 defeat of the Seattle Rainiers, shoving the losers back into the seventh rank.

RHS Baseball Team Trims Yoncalla, 5 to 3

Roseburg's two pitchers, Simms and Telford, gave up only four hits, while Rychard limited the Indians to seven bingles.

The game, a pitchers' duel throughout, was fast and well played.

Thad Phipps and the Garden Party

Thad Phipps' wife finally got him to the Ladies' Flower Club Lawn Festival and Garden Party.

At first Thad was mighty uncomfortable in his Sunday best, making polite conversation with the ladies, nibbling on watercress sandwiches. Until Milly Harstell comes up with a tray of ice-cold beer in frosty glasses.

"I suppose," says Milly slyly, "you'll think beer's a sissy drink." "Sissy drink!" says Thad emphatically. "Just because it's mild and moderate doesn't make it sissy! Beer's a man's drink!"

And then Thad sees that half the ladies there are sipping beer, as well as those who've chosen lemonade and cider, and he mutters: "I reckon it's a ladies' drink, too."

From where I sit, more and more people are realizing, like Thad, that beer doesn't belong to any special group or occasion—it's a wholesome American beverage that belongs wherever folks enjoy good taste and moderation.
