101 Ranch Wild West Show Dated in Roseburg Saturday

Tomorrow is circus day in Roseburg. If Junior cannot be found in his usual haunts, he will probably be admiring the eagle feather head-dress of Chief Sky Eagle or the wondrous trappings of the world's champion cowboys who will be here with the 101 Ranch Wild West Show and International Congress of Circus Stars which will erect its canopy-type big top at Garden Valley and Walnut street for two performances, at 2:15 and 8:15 P. M.

Now on its Golden Jubilee tour, the big frontier show this season has successfully combined "wild west" with circus acts in equal proportions to form a perfect streamlined attraction.

Hundreds of horses, trained wild animals, elephants, pretty girls and funny clowns as well as a complete Indian village and a menagerie round out the show.

construction projects denied by the Civilian Production Administration review committee in Portland yesterday.

J. Stoop Heads New Jaycee Officers

Newly-elected officers of the Roseburg Junior Chamber of Commerce will preside over the meeting when the organization meets Monday night at 7:30, in the Chamber of Commerce offices.

Jim Stoop, forester in the local O. & C. Administration office, was elected president this week to succeed Hal Avotie. Other officers include Joe Dent, internal vice president; Jack Jesse, external vice president; Dave McCarroll, secretary, and Keith Custer, treasurer.

Stoop, Avotie, Dent, and Mr. and Mrs. Custer will leave for Klamath Falls today to attend the state convention of the Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Activities of the Junior Chamber of Commerce during coming months, Stoop announced, will be the sale of tickets at Southern Oregon League baseball games in Roseburg; the sale of programs at the Sheriff's posse rodeo, and the sponsoring of a "western dance" to be held in the Armory the evening before the opening of the rodeo.
