communists. The dispatch added that seven of these planes have been shot down after bombing communist troops.

(Our army and marine authorities deny the report. They say we have no tactical air force in China, that our only planes there are unarmed transports used in supplying our headquarters and that NO U. S. planes have been reported missing, either in China or Manchuria.)

THE next day we learn from Washington dispatches that Moscow is still interested in a billion-dollar American loan, and have sent us a new note about it.

It is obvious from our standpoint that these "topics" SHOULD be:

If we lend Russia a billion dollars, does it seem probable that she can and will repay the loan?

What does she want to do with the money?

Will such a loan be likely to build up her economy so that she will become a good customer—selling us what she produces and we want, and buying from us what we produce and she wants?

If these questions can not be answered to our satisfaction, there should be no loan.

We should never lend money to ANYBODY just because he may be sore if we don't. Any banker, any businessman, knows the folly of that.

THE big thing we'd like to know about Russia is this: Does she, or doesn't she, propose to include communism among her exports?

If not, we shall have no trouble with Russia because of her communitistic form of government. All sensible Americans will concede unreservedly that the kind of government Russia has is Russia's business, and not ours.

If Russia DOES propose to export communism on a big scale, there can be little but trouble ahead.

At this point, an extremely interesting and significant question arises:

If Russia should undertake to export communism to the United States (smuggling it in over our borders, if need be), WHO among us would be her customers?

IN view of what has happened over much of Europe, the answer is fairly plain:

As of the present, the customers of communism in America would be radical and discontented OUTFITS who would like to get IN in order to secure for themselves the perquisites and the privileges of rulership.

The same answer goes for nazism, fascism or what have you in the form of one-party TOTALITARIAN government.

ALL these "isms," as they have worked out so far in practice, are RACKETEERS primarily designed to secure for the FEW the lion's share of the cream, leaving for the MANY the skim milk.

Milk is the U. S. farmer's largest single source of cash income, outranking cattle, cotton, wheat, eggs, and tobacco.

"RIGHTLY DIVIDING . . ."

By CHARLES V. STANTON

An editorial entitled "Why Blunder Through?" appearing in Friday's edition of the Oregon Daily Journal, Portland, places the blame for current labor disorders upon the Congress. While the Journal has maintained New Deal leanings and has supported the Democratic party quite generally, we are surprised it would fall in line, even inadvertently, with New Deal back-passing and evasion.

But responsibility for the present chaotic labor situation rests squarely upon our weak, vacillating, impotent executive bureaucracy, although we must admit Congress has aided and abetted by sins of omission.

Says the Oregon Daily Journal: Weeds choke out the food plants in the neglected garden. The weeds in the Congress are words and politics. The Congress dabbles while reconversion fails. Labor bosses, like Lewis, Whitney and Johnson, register a supreme authority over a group of workers and through them over the national economy.

President Truman, honest, cheerful, trying, has seized the railroads and the coal mines. Despite government control, the railroad workers walked out. The Congress has so far defaulted in finding the causes of strikes and in adopting legislative remedies. Everybody knows that government operation is not the cure. The majority of Americans abhor the idea of nationalized industry which temporary seizure could readily make permanent.

We agree with the Journal that Congress has not demonstrated its authority, nor its responsibility to the whole people. But how about the statement "the Congress has so far defaulted in finding the causes of strikes and adopting legislative remedies?" Whence emanated our present labor legislation? Who originated and demanded passage by the Congress of measures setting up myriad bureaus, agencies, and departments charged with labor control? Who, by constitutional authority, is charged with enforcement of legislation passed by the Congress?

The New Deal administration hand tailored our current labor legislation and shoved it down the throat of a rubber stamp Congress, then hailed it as the outstanding labor law of all time. The executive department, it was claimed, was given all the power it needed to control the labor situation. That legislation, in fact, DOES provide every authority required to curb labor excesses. But how has the executive branch of government exercised the authority placed in its hands? A look at the appointees to the office of Secretary of Labor will answer that question.

Are private citizens supposed to arrest a brawling drunkard while a policeman stands by and furtively eggs the culprit on to further demonstration? That's the position the Congress is in.

The administration now has admitted its failure to properly utilize authority previously granted and is appealing for implementation of labor laws. Until this request was made, the Congress, under normal procedure, would not be expected to change laws which the department charged with enforcement considered adequate. It now becomes the duty of the Congress to speedily vest the administration with legislation to curb irresponsible labor action. This authority need not necessarily be in the exact form requested by the President, but should be designed to more effectively protect legitimate rights of labor, save the workman from exploitation, and immediately stop economic losses, remove barriers to speedy reconversion, and force responsible action on the part of labor leaders.

It is true, as the Journal says that "weeds choke out the food plants in the neglected garden." We are reaping today our harvest of weeds—today to pressure groups, fellowship with subversive elements, sycophantry, vacillation. These weeds, however, were sown by the executive branch of government rather than the legislative branch, although the latter is guilty of complicity for its lack of intestinal fortitude and because, as the Journal says, it seems "to think that votes will be the dividends of evaded duty."

J. M. Patterson, Noted Publisher, Taken by Death

NEW YORK, May 27.—(AP)—Joseph Medill Patterson, 67, founder and president of the New York Daily News, died yesterday of a liver ailment.

President of the News Syndicate Co., which publishes the News, Patterson guided his paper until it had achieved the largest circulation in the United States. He was the eldest member of a publishing triumvirate whose bitter opposition to the foreign policies of President Franklin D. Roosevelt preceding the second World War provoked violent controversy.

His sister, Mrs. Eleanor Patterson, publishes the Washington Times-Herald, and his cousin, Col. Robert R. McCormick, is publisher of the Chicago Tribune. Patterson also was president of the Chicago Tribune-New York News syndicate, which distributes features appearing in the two papers.

The original formula for the News was the smaller size and use of the "camera" as a reporter. In its columns today, the Daily News said that Patterson "built a newspaper, peculiarly American, with pictures, short breezily written stories, down-to-earth editorials, the best of comics and features."

Senators Crowd Bosox and Yankees For League Lead

(By The Associated Press) The amazing Washington Senators practically are breathing on the necks of the second place New York Yankees and have closed within 71 games of Boston's American League leaders.

Overshadowed by the Red Sox with their spectacular early-season 15-game winning streak, the Nats, after a dismal start, kept pecking away and since May 12 have won 10 of their last 12 games to climb from deep in the second division to third place.

Speechmaking the Nats' almost unnoted advance has been their GI first baseman, Mickey Vernon, who only through the grace of the GI Bill of Rights is with the team. Vernon remained on the Senators' roster only because, as a returning veteran, he was entitled to a 30-day trial. He is currently leading all major league hitters with a .305 batting mark and has hit in 22 consecutive games.

Vernon collected three of the Nats' eight hits yesterday, including his fourth home run, to pace Washington to a 3-2 triumph over the Philadelphia Athletics.

The Red Sox, aided by Tex Hughson's masterful pitching, gained an even split with the Yankees Sunday for a 2-1 game edge in the "crucial" weekend series. Hughson blanked the Yanks with three hits in the opener to shade Evens, 1-0. Homers by DiMaggio and Rizzuto, the latter with one on, gave the Yanks the nightcap.

The Brooklyn Dodgers extended their latest win streak to seven straight by sweeping both ends of a doubleheader from the Philadelphia Phillies, 5-4 and 6-2. The win triumph, together with the St. Louis Cards split in Cincinnati, increased the Dodgers first place lead to two and a half games.

Cincinnati came from behind to defeat the Cards 5-4 after the Reds had won the opener 4-3. The Chicago White Sox celebrated Teddy Lyons' debut as a big league manager by trimming the Detroit Tigers twice 3-1 and 2-1 and burying the Bengals deeper in fourth place.

Feller was just another pitcher to the St. Louis Browns, who slammed the vaunted fireballer for 15 hits to whip Cleveland 8-2 in the opener of their doubleheader. Gromek handcuffed the Browns, 2-0, with four hits in the nightcap.

The New York Giants used a barrage of extra-base hits to bury the Boston Braves under 12-4 and 7-0 scores. Mize and Blattner each got two homers in the curtain raiser to make it easy for Voiselle to gain his third victory. Voiselle to gain his third victory.

Pittsburgh handed the Chicago Cubs their fourth straight defeat by belting a trio of hurriers for an 8-2 decision.

Yankees' Boss, McCarthy, Resigns; Dickey Steps Up

BOSTON, May 27.—(AP)—The dream of almost every major league star from Babe Ruth down to succeed the fabulous Joe McCarthy as manager of the New York Yankees—today came true for Bill Dickey, for 17 years one of the club's most skilled and faithful players.

Rated season after season as one of the greatest catchers in history, the Louisiana-born Dickey, who will be 39 next month, was placed in charge of his beloved Bronx Bombers shortly after President MacPhail received McCarthy's telegraphed resignation from his Buffalo home.

McCarthy, who, while piloting the Yankees since 1931, led them to eight American League pennants and seven world championships, was wired Saturday that his physical condition would not permit him to continue with the Yankees.

Jeff High, Pleasant Hill, Win Prep Baseball Titles: PORTLAND, May 27.—(AP)—The first Oregon prep baseball championship tag was worn by Jefferson High School and Pleasant Hill of Lane County today after winning Class A and B finals.

Jefferson defeated Central Catholic, Portland, 19-8, for "A" honors in a game halted in the eighth by darkness while Pleasant Hill topped Sherwood, 6-2, for the "B" title in Saturday's play-offs at the University of Portland.

Class A third place went to Sandy, which wallaced Eugene, 11-7. Sandy scored seven runs in the first inning on two hits, five walks and three Eugene errors.

Class B consolation honors went to Myrtle Creek for defeating Elgin, 4-2.

State Policeman Fisk Of Reedsport Resigns

REEDSPORT—Clyde I. Fisk, employed with the Oregon State Police for the past 10 years and stationed at Reedsport for two years, has announced his resignation, effective May 30. He will leave with his family for LaGrande, where he will join his brother, Howard W. Fisk, also a former state policeman, in the operation of a sporting goods store established recently.

LEGAL NOTICE

NOTICE OF SCHOOL ELECTION UPON QUESTION OF INCREASING TAX LEVY OVER AMOUNT LIMITED BY ARTICLE XI, STATE CONSTITUTION. Notice is hereby given that an election will be held in Non-High School District of Douglas County, State of Oregon, at each elementary school building in said school district, for the purpose of submitting to the legal voters of said district the question of increasing the tax levy for the year 1946-47 over the amount limited by section II, Article XI, of the Constitution of Oregon, on Monday, June 17, 1946, between the hours of 2:00 P. M. and 7:00 P. M. The reasons for increasing such levy are:

To raise funds to meet current transportation, tuition and other operating expenses to be covered by budget. Outside revenues during the past few years have resulted in lowered tax base to the extent that operating funds cannot be provided otherwise.

The amount of tax, in excess of the 6% limitation, proposed to be levied for said year is $62,223.76. Dated this 24th day of May, 1946. J. M. Francis, Chairman, Board of Directors. Attest: Lula C. Gorrell, District Clerk.

Lynam Wins Over Katonen; Achiu Downs Kenaston

A referee's decision gave Joe Lynam victory over Paavo Katonen in their brawl headlining the weekly wrestling card at the Roseburg Armory Saturday night. After Joe had taken the first fall of the bout in 21:44 with a toe hold, he was given the verdict in 15:13 of the second round because of Katonen's incessant foul tactics and disregard of repeated warnings of "Sneeze" Achiu, who was substituting as referee for Elton Owen. But that didn't halt hostilities. Katonen, who had been dealt a lot of Achiu's jujitsu throughout the bout to compel him to break foul holds, turned on the Oriental, grabbed him by the hair and threw him through the ropes onto the floor. "Sneeze" got back onto the mat and promptly fed the Finn another helping of jujitsu until Katonen floundered helplessly to the canvas, while a crowd of nearly 700 spectators roared approval.

Achiu Beats Kenaston

In the opening bout of the card, Achiu defeated Bob Kenaston of Gold Hill two out of three falls. After crawling to the ropes four times, Kenaston won the first fall in 24:47 by his customary knee-and-fist assault, and during the rest period, when he remained in his corner, he was subjected to a constant barrage of boos and jeers. "Sneeze" annexed the second fall in 7:55 with a Boston crab hold, and got the final one after Kenaston had thrown him off the mat and followed up by slugging the Chinaman until Referee Owen got them apart. Upon resuming the combat, Achiu put Kenaston down three times with shoulder butts, then finished him with a body press. Time: 9:57. In leaping down to the floor to separate the two grapplers, Referee Owen sprained an ankle and after limping to the dressing room turned the referee job for the main event over to Achiu.

Oaks Have Firm Grip on Top Spot In Coast League

(By The Associated Press) Rain at Portland Sunday delayed a scheduled doubleheader between the Beavers and Oakland's Acorns until tonight but regardless of the outcome, the Acorns will retain their Pacific Coast League lead.

All other clubs completed last week's scheduled with single games Saturday and double bills Sunday. From a tie with the San Francisco Seals a week ago, the Acorns gained a game and a half in the standings.

Yesterday San Diego and San Francisco split, the Padres coming back in the second game to win 3-1 after losing the opener 6-2. San Diego won Saturday 4-1, and clinched the series 4-3.

Sacramento won a pair from Seattle, 5-0 and 4-2, after Saturday's terrific wallowing at the hands of the Solons, 13-4. The Solons took five of the seven games during the week.

The Los Angeles Angels drubbed Hollywood 8-5 and 10-0 Sunday and 3-1 Saturday to redeem themselves after losing four straight to the Stars. Beavers Blank Oaks: Saturday Portland's lowly Beavers shut out the league leading Acorns 6-0, after the Acorns had won three in a row.

This week Oakland plays at Seattle, Hollywood at San Francisco, San Diego at Los Angeles and Sacramento at Portland.

One of Sunday's double bill highlights was the 11-inning Sacramento-Seattle opener at Seattle. Bob Williams, recent addition from the Boston Braves, made a spectacular pitching bow with Seattle despite his defeat, 4-2. Williams yielded only six hits, fanned 10 Solons and smashed out a home run. Mann hurled the first nine frames for Sacramento. Southpaw Freitas finished the game and was credited with the victory.

Joe Wilman Wins Two Bowling Championships

CHICAGO, May 27.—(AP)—Life has begun at 40 with a terrific bang for balding, be-spectacled Joe Wilman of Berwyn, Ill., who today stood as the third bowler to simultaneously hold both the national individual and doubles match game championships.

Wilman last night became a doubles titlist as he teamed with 41-year-old Johnny Small of Chicago to fatten five of the best two-man combinations in the country at the Auditorium Servicemen's center alleys.

BILLINGS, Mont., May 27.—(AP)—A blistered thumb was the only thing Walt Coleman, 35, of Lewistown, Mont., had to show today for 100 lines of bowling completed in 11 hours, 59 minutes, with a total score of 19,586. Coleman won a 100-game bowling marathon yesterday, believed to be the first ever staged. Mickey Kerchin of Winnipeg, Manitoba, rolled 100 lines in 11 hours, 14 minutes with a score of 20,085 in a 1934 exhibition, according to records here.
