be ready to move on five minutes notice. The railroad managements were told by the office of defense transportation to recruit new men and call on the army to protect the roads and throw pickets off company property if need be.

BACK of these stern orders lies the principle that the rights of ALL must be kept superior to the rights of the FEW. Organized society is built upon that principle. If it is permitted to be destroyed, organized society will disappear and anarchy will prevail.

The robber barons of the Middle Ages denied that the rights of all are superior to the rights of the few and insisted upon GETTING THEIRS by the power of the strong arm.

If the principle of the strong arm can be established, you and I and our organized friends (if we are STRONG enough) can defy the police here in Oregon and ENFORCE OUR WILL on everybody else. If that can be done, organized government is OUT and we are back to the days of the robber barons.

LET us not forget (because it is fundamental) that in the background of all this industrial trouble that is plaguing us is the grim specter of INFLATION—inflation in a form that is rapidly developing fangs and claws.

If inflation can be stopped before it gets loose, EVERYONE will benefit—wage workers most of all, for it is the history of runaway inflation that next after those with fixed incomes wage workers suffer most of all because prices tend to go up so much faster than wages.

We must never forget that production is the only cure for inflation.

INFLATION is a form of hysteria. Nearly everyone knows of or has heard of cases of hysterical persons brought out of it by a sharp slap in the face.

If President Truman has seemed to slap the striking engineers and trainmen in the face, it is for their own good—as time will inevitably tell.

School Vacations Begin This Week

By the end of this week, summer vacations will have started for most of Douglas County's 5,850 school children. Mrs. Lulu C. Gorrell, county school superintendent, announced today.

Roseburg schools will close their doors Friday, May 31, according to reports turned in to Mrs. Gorrell's office. Roseburg High School commencement exercises will be held Friday evening in the high school auditorium, with diplomas going to 106 seniors and 26 veterans.

WHITNEY'S PURGE THREAT

By CHARLES V. STANTON

The threat by A. F. Whitney, president of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, that he will "defeat Mr. Truman if he tries again to run for president in 1948," even if it takes every cent of the $47 million in the brotherhood's treasury, has a familiar ring. It is the same type of bluster used by the motorist who, upon receiving a ticket for double parking, threatens to "get" the cop who had the audacity to correct him for his offense; or the drunken driver who is going to "blast the editor out of his swivel chair," if news of his arrest isn't suppressed, so that it won't reach the ears of his "poor, dying mother."

But, though the statement may be bluster, it carries with it a serious threat to future political welfare. The money which Whitney proposes to toss into the pot to purge candidates who dare vote their convictions could be effective in gaining the purpose for which it would be expended. On the other hand, it is more probable that the American people, resenting an affront to traditional fair play and democratic methods, would be stimulated to defeat Whitney's program and candidates.

There are, however, some questions we believe should be asked and answered. First, what right has a union to have such a huge sum of money available for a "war chest"? The sum of $47 million represents more than $260 per member. If the railway trainmen are unable to live decently upon their wages, as Whitney claimed in demands which preceded the demoralizing strike, why should the union be holding such a huge sum, collected from membership fees and dues? If the money is entrusted to the union heads for purposes of welfare and benefits, what right has Whitney or the board of directors to divert the sum into financing a political purge?

We cannot agree with President Truman's hastily prepared emergency legislation to curb labor disorders and unjustified strikes. His legislation would make the President a one-man dictator. The executive branch of government would be made policeman, judge, jury and executioner. We already have too much legislative and judicial authority vested in the executive branch of government. The OPA is an outstanding example, holding the power to legislate, arrest, and penalize. This same authority should not be brought to bear against labor, even though we may be tired and resentful of radicalism and irresponsibility. In no field do we need a careful system of checks and balances more than in dealing with the troublesome labor-management problem, where both sides are greedy, selfish, and demanding of special privilege.

Nor do we believe that our military forces should be used as penal institutions. A man should be proud to wear his country's uniform, and rightful esteem due that uniform should not be caused to suffer by placing the uniform upon a man because of disobedience to vested authority. But vindictiveness will not serve to promote unprejudiced consideration of remedial legislation. We need calm, cooperative and careful study of methods which will protect both the legitimate rights of labor and the constitutional and inherent rights of society.

The outcome of Whitney's purge plan would be to fill all branches of government with labor stooges—a government of special privilege, dictated by the strongest labor chieftain.

Umpqua Chiefs to Battle Top Talent Of Three Teams

All "the best ball players" of Sutherland, Oakland, and Yoncalla will combine tomorrow to give the Umpqua Chiefs a real battle in their Memorial Day baseball game to be played at Finlay Field at 2 P. M.

From Yoncalla will come a pitcher named Turpin, whose brother, Hal, formerly pitched for the Seattle Rainiers, now pitches for Sacramento. Some of the other men who will play tomorrow are the Marin brothers, Celors, Roberts, Le Merg, Cox, Williams, Dodd, Boan, and Applegate, and H. W. Gray, South-oregon League president.

Oakland will bring its best talent selected from ballplayers who have "always made it rough on their competition." Sutherland will also bring several good men. "All the fans who love baseball can be assured of a fast, hard-fought game," said Gray.

The umpires will be Al Fiegl behind the plate and Bill Evans on the bases. This will be the last opportunity to see the local team in action before it goes on a road tour to play at Gold Hill on Sunday, in Medford a week from Saturday, and at Central Point a week from Sunday. The next local game, after tomorrow, will be with Ashland, Sunday, June 10.

Pilusso, Lynam to Wrestle Here for Light-Heavy Title

Roseburg's first world wrestling championship, a match over Pacific Northwest mat capitals have been demanded since Ernie Pilusso won the light-heavyweight crown, will be staged here Saturday night, according to Matchmaker Don Owen.

Although the Roseburg Armory has a limited seating capacity, I feel that Roseburg is deserving of the championship match because of the grand support given to the sport by Douglas County fans. Owen said in announcing that Pilusso would defend his coveted crown against the challenge of Joe Lynam. The world light-heavyweight championship has been recognized by the National Wrestling Association since Hugh Nichols won a national championship tournament in Chicago 12 years ago. The great undefeated champion retired without a loss and another tournament was staged. Recent holders of the crown have been Red Berry, Gorilla Ramos and Danny McShain.

Pilusso, Portland, Ore., grappler who a year ago developed an unstoppable headlock hold, defeated McShain for the title in Hollywood early in January. Saturday's match will mark his first title defense in the Pacific Northwest following his return for a short tour. He plans to defend the title against any matman capable of making the 180-pound weight limit.

Lynam, former Australian champion and recent coast titleholder, is capable of upsetting Pilusso despite the Italian's many years of mat experience. Ernie, who chucked a fine business of women's dress designing to enter pro grappling after winning several national amateur championships, will be the favorite. Owen has arranged an attractive supporting program that will include a match between Bruno Angelo, new holder of both the coast junior and light-heavyweight championships, against Al Szasz, talented little Hungarian mat artist.

Senators Defeat Yanks in Race to Overtake Bosox

Washington's five-star pitching staff looms as the latest stumbling block in Boston's pennant path. Only seven games off the pace and a scant half game out of the runnerup spot, the Nationals have "fluttered" into the flag chase on a sizzling two-week record of 11 wins in their last 13 starts.

Dutch Leonard's latest success was a neat 2-1 effort against New York last night, spoiling both Bill Dickey's home debut as Joe McCarthy's successor and the Yankee Stadium's first night game.

Leonard himself administered the fatal blow to Freshman Clark's chances when he singled home a run in the fourth inning to break a 1-1 tie. Detroit also closed in on the leaders, picking up a half game on the Red Sox who were rained out of their tilt with Philadelphia.

Freddy Hutchinson, labeled the "Big Boy" in pre-war days, accounted for his second victory, 6-1, allowing only five Cleveland hits. Hutchinson collected two of the Tigers' nine safeties off Embree and Kleiman.

The Chicago White Sox ripped off their fourth straight triumph for their new skipper, Ted Lyons, slugging three St. Louis Browns hurlers for 15 hits and a 9-2 romp. Brooklyn's National League lead was sliced to two games on a combination of St. Louis' 12-2 slaughter of Chicago and New York's 5-2 night game edge over the Dodgers.

Pittsburgh overcame Cincinnati, 6-3. Gerald Staley of Sacramento today pitched a 14-inning pitching mark which failed to oust him but won over the staying power of the Pacific Coast Baseball League's persistent veteran, Liska of the Portland Beavers.

The 14-inning duel between the two pitchers last night produced a 1-0 victory for Sacramento on an unlearned run. Staley held the Beavers to four hits over the prolonged stretch, denying no walks and fanning five.

Liska allowed nine hits, but a wild throw from third baseman Crawford to first let in the tally that beat him. It was Liska's

MANY NEVER SUSPECT CAUSE OF BACKACHES

Illegal Dealings in Surplus Property Eyed

PORTLAND, May 29.—(P)—The war assets administration is organizing a committee re-representing national veterans' groups to combat illegal dealings in surplus property, regional WAA officials said today. They reported some veterans were acquiring surplus goods for others by certifying it for their own use. Dealers promoted some of the schemes, officials said. Such abuses of the law will be severely penalized, the WAA stated. Veterans asked to falsify their certification were instructed to report the offers to the WAA.
