Marry at All-White Ceremony

Mr. and Mrs. Sy Rodakowski.

An all-white motif was carried out in the decorations for the large and very beautiful wedding of Miss Madlyn Stearns, attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry C. Stearns, Oakland, Ore., when she became the bride of Sy Rodakowski, son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Rodakowski, Springfield, Ore., at 11 o'clock High Mass at St. Joseph's Catholic Church in Roseburg, Saturday, May 25. Huge baskets of calla lilies and other white spring blossoms were used in the decorations, while the aisle was marked with satin streamers and bows. Mrs. Paul Jenkins and daughter, Mrs. Clark Leedy, and Mrs. Stearns, mother of the bride, had charge of the decorations.

The High Mass was performed by Father William Coughlan, Roseburg, assisted by the two brothers of the bridegroom: Father Albert Rodakowski, Eugene, and Father Louis Rodakowski, Salem, with Father Valerian O'Leary, Roseburg, as master of ceremonies.

Miss Faith Young played the organ music for the Mass. Miss Cecelia Watzig and Miss Kay and Miss Annaloris Ward sang "Panis Angelicus," accompanied by Miss Young. As the bridal party advanced to the altar, Miss Annaloris Ward played "The Bridal Train."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was beautiful in a floor-length gown of white satin, fashioned along princess lines with a full-length train, long sleeves, fastened at the wrists with tiny buttons, and a sweet-heart neckline. Her floor-length wedding veil was held in place by a coronet of seed pearls and orange blossoms. She wore a strand of pearls, a gift of the bridegroom, and carried a white Bible topped by a spray of white cluster orchids with a shower of white satin ribbons knotted with baby orchids.

Mrs. Percy B. Webb, St. Helens, Ore., sister of the bride, was maid of honor and was charming to a blue marquisette floor-length gown fashioned with a fitted bodice, full skirt and elbow length sleeves banded with a ruffle. She wore a flower-tinged hat and a colonial bouquet for the bridesmaids were also the same as the matron of honor's.

Eugene Evonuk, Springfield, was best man and J. C. Clark, Eugene, and Warren McKinny, Springfield, were attendants. Percy B. Webb, St. Helens, brother-in-law of the bride, and Harvey Brown, Sutherlin, were ushers.

The bride's mother was charming in a white wool suit with navy blue accessories. Her corsage was pink rosebuds and carnations. The bridegroom's mother was attractive in a brown suit with matching accessories. Her corsage was of yellow rosebuds.

A. F. Stearns, Oakland, 92-year-old grandfather of the bride, was among the two-hundred and fifty guests attending the ceremony.

At one-thirty o'clock, a reception was held at the lovely home of the bride's parents in Oakland. Mrs. Harry Workman, Cottage Grove, arranged the bride's table and the room decorations.

The table, covered by an attractive lace cloth, was centered with a huge bowl of pink rosebuds and white stock. White satin ribbons formed a sunburst from the centerpiece to the ends of the table and were covered with maiden-hair fern and gardenias with a gardenia corsage at the end of each streamer. Tall lighted tapers flanked the centerpiece. At one end of the table, the three-tiered wedding cake, topped by a miniature bride and bridegroom, was cut by the bride couple with a knife decorated with a satin bow knotted with flowers. Gorgeous bouquets of white and pink snapdragons were used to decorate the rooms and stairway.

The guests were received by little Joan Webb, niece of the bride, and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Percy B. Webb, St. Helens. She wore a floor-length dress of light blue and a tiny flower hat fashioned with gardenias.

Four aunts of the bride assisted with the reception, including: Mrs. R. D. Bridges, Oakland, and Mrs. Fred C. Powell, Olympia, Wash., cut and served the cake. Mrs. J. E. Stearns and Mrs. Guy Pealer, Oakland, cut the leas, and Mrs. L. F. Stearns and Mrs. J. C. Bovingdon, Oakland, both cousins, poured. Miss Pat Stearns had charge of the guest book and Mrs. J. E. Stearns, Jr., had charge of the gifts.

For traveling the bride chose a suit of navy blue with a white blouse and navy accessories. She wore a large white orchid with a purple throat as a corsage. Following a two weeks' honeymoon to Lake Tahoe, the couple will make their home in Springfield.

The bride was graduated from Roseburg Senior High School, attended Washington University at Seattle and was graduated from Oregon State College. She is a member of Alpha Chi Omega sorority. She taught at Oregon State College two years; at Victoria, B. C., and Reeds College in Portland, before returning to Oakland to be with her parents and where she accepted a position in the commercial department of the Oakland High School.

The bridegroom was graduated from University of Oregon and is now employed as an accountant for a large lumber concern at Eugene.

The bride's mother was charming in a white wool suit with navy blue accessories. Her corsage was pink rosebuds and carnations. The bridegroom's mother was attractive in a brown suit with matching accessories. Her corsage was of yellow rosebuds.

COUPLE MARRY IN NEW YORK MAY 25TH, WILL MAKE HOME IN ROSEBURG

A wedding of much interest in Roseburg is that of Miss Mary Brownie Jelliffe, beautiful daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter S. Jelliffe, of Riverdale-on-Hudson, New York City, who was a member of the Women's Army Corps for two and one-half years, and Charles Edmund Miller III, son of Mrs. Lesley S. Miller and the late Charles E. Miller, Jr., of Gearhart and Roseburg, Oregon, and grandson of the late Mrs. Charles E. Miller, New York City, Saturday, May 25 at the Riverdale Presbyterian Church in New York. Mr. Miller served three years overseas with the 82nd Fighter Group.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. The Rev. George M. Duff performed the impressive ceremony at four-thirty o'clock in the afternoon. Among the guests were Mrs. Lesley S. Miller and Mrs. Roy Cummins, mother and sister of the bridegroom, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Larrabee of Bellingham, Washington.

Miss Cameron Jelliffe, recently returned after two years overseas with the American Red Cross Clubmobile Unit, was maid of honor for her sister, whose other attendant was Miss Jessie Miller of Gearhart, Ore., sister of the groom. Roy Cummins of Roseburg, Ore., brother-in-law of the groom was best man. Ushers were Scribner Jelliffe, brother of the bride, Danforth Miller, Jr., cousin of the groom, Craigin Lewis, Paul Aubry and Rufus Mathewson.

The bride wore a white net gown with basque waist and long train trimmed with heirloom lace and an illusion veil with heirloom lace cap. Her attendants wore soft blue crepe gowns with matching wreaths in their hair, and carried purple lilies and pink roses.

After a motor trip to the Adirondacks, the young couple will reside in Roseburg, Ore., where Mr. Miller is interested in a sawmill operation.

CHARLES W. HUGHES AND MRS. MARGARET GILBERT MARRY IN EUGENE, MAY 26

In the presence of fifty guests, Charles W. Hughes, prominent resident of Garden Valley, Roseburg, and Mrs. Margaret Helen Gilbert, Eugene, were married in the First Baptist Church in Eugene at one o'clock Sunday, May 26. Dr. Charles A. Edwards, Roseburg, read the impressive double ring ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Van Hook, brother-in-law and sister of the bride, were attendants.

Huge baskets of roses decorated the altar. The ceremony was enriched with music from the church organ and two vocal solos.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the church parlors, at which time the beautiful three-tiered wedding cake was cut by the bride and bridegroom and the ladies of the church served coffee and wedding cake. The table was very lovely with a lace cloth and a beautiful arrangement of baby white gladiol and pink roses. A large table holding many fine wedding gifts was arranged at one end of the room.

Mr. Hughes' three sons, Charles, Gayle and Gordon, all of Roseburg, were present for the ceremony. Another son, Dallas, was unable to get to Eugene in time for the wedding on account of the railroad strike. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Johnson, of Garden Valley, were also present and the bride's three sons by her former marriage were present.

Mr. and Mrs. Hughes will make their home in Garden Valley.

PLEASING PIANO RECITAL GIVEN BY MISS GLADYS H. STRONG

On Monday evening, another very pleasant recital was given by piano pupil of Miss Gladys H. Strong. Most of those presented were pre-school and grade school children.
