Miss Heidi Steiger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Steiger of Boise, Idaho, became the bride of Victor Arlie Frost, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arlie Frost of Oakland, Ore., at a ceremony held last Sunday at the Chapel of the Rocks and Roses, Medford.

Attending the bride was her sister, Miss Charlotte Anne Steiger of Bowling Field, D. C., who came to Medford by plane for her sister's wedding. The bride wore a gray striped suit with a gray hat and white accessories and an orchid corsage, while her sister was wearing a chateau suit with white hat and accessories and corsage of gardenias and roses.

The bride was given in marriage by Donald Frost, Oakland, brother of the groom, and Donald Shopp was best man.

Preceding the ceremony, performed by the Rev. D. E. Millard, the minister sang, "I Love You Truly" and "Always," while Mrs. Millard was at the piano for the wedding marches.

A reception was held at the groom's home on Twelfth Street. Mr. and Mrs. Frost then left for a wedding trip to coast points and upon their return will be at home to friends at the Twelfth Street auto court.

Mr. Frost was recently released from army duty after two years

Petrillo Threatens to Halt Radio Broadcasts

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla., June 5.—James C. Petrillo, fiery chief of the American Federation of Musicians, has threatened to halt all radio network broadcasts if the United States Supreme Court upholds the constitutionality of the Lea bill limiting the musicians' right to strike.

The union leader in a vigorous attack on the bill before the annual AFM convention here asserted that he had seen to it that agreements with broadcasters in New York, Chicago and Los Angeles, where network programs originate, would expire on the same date—January 1, 1947.

Petrillo also threatened to halt the making of all recordings and transcriptions if congress passes legislation prohibiting the AFM from collecting royalties on them.
