Rookie, 20, Sparks Phillies to Streak Of Night Victories

(By The Associated Press)

Delmar Ennis, rookie Philadelphia Phillies' outfielder, who was saved from the minors by the GI bill of rights, has risen from virtual obscurity to become one of the most prized chattels in baseball today.

The 20-year-old flychaser—he reaches his majority tomorrow—whose organized baseball experience is limited to one year with Trenton in the Class C Interstate League in 1943, took the big jump from the Navy to the Phillies and made good right from the start.

Ennis bashed out four blows yesterday to pace the Phils to a 9-3 triumph over the Cincinnati Reds for the Quaker's sixth triumph in their last night games. Two of his hits were doubles to place him in a tie for the most two-base hits with St. Louis' Stan Musial. He also drove in a pair of runs to help drive Cincy's Joe Beggs off the hill for his initial setback of the year.

Dodgers Stretch Lead

The high-flying Brooklyn Dodgers increased their National League lead to four and one-half games—their largest of the season—when they outslugged the Pittsburgh Pirates 13-8 as the St. Louis Cardinals were beaten by the Boston Braves 9-5.

The Boston Red Sox maintained their six and a half game American League advantage over the New York Yankees when they edged out the St. Louis Browns 5-4 on the strength of Ted Williams' 10th homer of the year with one man on. The victory was Boston's eight straight without a defeat and kept their home record clean against the western clubs.

Umpire Hal Weafer ordered Brownie Pitcher Jack Kramer off the field in the fourth inning following a shoving match between the arbiter and the St. Louis hurler when Kramer objected to a close decision at first base. Kramer heaved the ball over the grandstand as he left the field.

Ruffing Blanks Chisox

The New York Yankees made it three in a row over the Chicago White Sox when Ruffing, the 42-year-old veteran, pitched the Yankees to a 4-0 triumph for his 269th of his 21-year-old big league career. Manager Bill Dickey, who was celebrating his 39th birthday, knocked in two runs.

A pinch hit home run with the bases full by Frank Secory in the 12th inning gave the Chicago Cubs a 10-6 victory over the New York Giants. Once again, Chicago's Borowy failed to go the route as he blew a 6-0 lead when the Giants tallied three times in each of the eighth and ninth innings, tied the game and forced the contest into overtime.

Hudson hurled the Washington Senators to a 4-0 shutuot win over the Cleveland Indians, limiting the Indians to four singles. A three-run outburst against Lemon, a converted outfielder, in the first inning, practically settled the game.

Detroit and the Philadelphia Athletics were not scheduled.

LET THE PUBLIC SPEAK

The proposal that the city council call a special election immediately to submit the issue of a tax levy to be collected next November to pay the first-year cost of a city manager, offers, we believe, several important advantages.

Principally, it would determine sentiment of the general public. Aside from the vocal and active proponents of the proposed change in form of government, there has been no general public expression of opinion. An election would determine desires of the city's residents.

If the proposal were beaten at the polls, the city manager idea could be dropped, thus saving expenditure of further time, effort and expense.

A great deal of work must be done in preparing a charter amendment. We must decide whether we are to continue the present council form of government with two councilmen from each ward, or adopt a system, such as many cities use, where one councilman would be elected from each ward and an equal number selected at large, or whether a commission-manager form is more desirable.

It must be determined whether the manager is to be delegated certain exclusive powers, or is to be subject in all matters to the council or commission.

At the present time the offices of recorder and treasurer are elective in Roseburg. Under a city manager system, the usual practice is to fill these offices by appointment. This, in turn, raises the question of how a police judge, now combined with the recorder's office, is to be named — whether by appointment by the manager or by the council.

These are only a very few of the many factors entering into revision of the charter to provide a city manager form of government. It is quite obvious that it would be impossible to prepare the amendment in time to advertise for 30 days and hold an election prior to July 15, the date when tax levies must be certified to the county assessor, or even early in August, should the council be successful in securing from the assessor an extension of time for submitting the levy.

If, however, the council should find it desirable and proper to submit only the question of a tax levy to pay salaries and expenses connected with the change in government, this could be done by late July or early August, thus permitting the tax to be levied for first quarter payment in November of this year. There then would be time to prepare a charter amendment to be brought to a vote in the early fall, after all policy matters had been thoroughly discussed.

There arises, of course, the possibility that the special tax might be authorized but that the charter revision would be defeated. The city then would be in the position of having money to pay a manager, but would be without authority to employ such a person.

The city, however, would not be able to spend the money, as it would have been levied and collected for a specified purpose. The funds, would, therefore, be held until the next regular budget-making period and then treated as cash on hand to be applied as a deduction. Thus there would be no loss to taxpayers.

A special tax levy not to exceed two mills probably would be sufficient to meet the cost of inaugurating the city manager form of government.

County Assessor Ned Dixon reports Roseburg's current assessed valuation to be $4,955,140. He estimates that the assessment now being compiled, and against which taxes due in November will be levied, will be in excess of $6 million. A levy of one and one-half to two mills should, then, be ample to meet the cost of a city manager, roughly estimated at from $8,000 to $10,000 for the first year.

It is our opinion that the wise course is to submit the matter at once to Roseburg residents to determine their desires. If this is to be done in time to levy taxes this year, the council has no time to waste and should call the election at the earliest possible date.

If the people don't want a city manager, there is no use spending time and money on preparation of a charter amendment. If, on the other hand, sentiment is in favor of a city manager, then the new form should be provided as quickly as possible.

GALLUP, N. M., June 7.—(AP)—Nylon has invaded the Wild West and cowboy and dudes alike are forming "nylon lines" these days in this western cattle country.

Stockings don't interest them, but they're anxious to pay $12 up for 30-foot nylon lariat, purportedly "strong enough to hang an elephant."

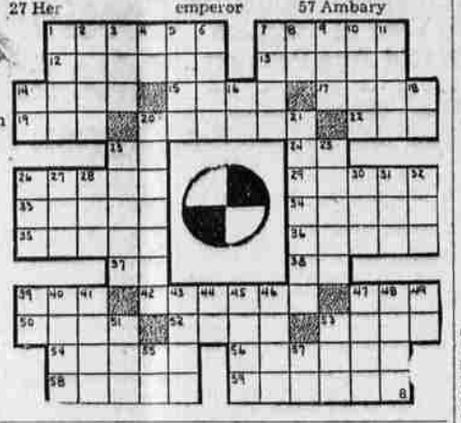
Answer to Previous Puzzle



Seals Gain Virtual Tie With Oakland For League Lead

(By The Associated Press)

The San Francisco Seals gained a virtual tie in the Pacific Coast Baseball League through their third successive defeat of Oakland Acorns and today stood only a fraction in the percentage behind the faltering Oakland club.

On a 8-6 victory last night the Seals forged ahead, 44 to 43, in games won but had lost 26, one more than the Acorns. This gave the Oaklanders a percentage edge of .632 to .629.

San Francisco, leader of the circuit until the Oaks overtook them last month, nicked three Oakland chuckers for 11 hits for the triumph. Seward, winning pitcher, went into the sixth frame with a 7-1 lead, but the Acorns rallied for two runs in that frame and put over three in the seventh. Seward yielded the mound to Werle, who was replaced by Rosso. The loss was charged to Vandenberg.

Stars Down Angelenos

Hollywood's Stars continued their rampage at the expense of the Los Angeles Angels, winning their third consecutive victory, 7 to 3, in an 11-inning contest. Los Angeles, with the bases loaded, missed a chance to win the 10th frame, when Mallory flied out to retire the side. The Stars broke a 2-2 tie and shoved across five runs in the last inning, and the Angels came back with an abortive attempt in their half which produced only one run.

Barrett pitched five-hit ball to shut out the Sacramento Solons for a 6-0 Portland victory, the second in a row for the Beavers. Portland fashioned three runs in the fourth inning out of singles by Escobar and Storey, Reich's double, and infield out and a wild pitch, and scored three more in the fifth. The fifth-inning spree sent Sacramento starter Fletcher to the showers and Beasley finished the game.

The San Diego Padres regained fourth place on a 6-2 decision over the Seattle Rainiers, as the Solons dropped down to sixth place. Seats turned in the victory, holding the Rainier batters under control until the ninth frame, in which he gave up three successive singles. San Diego put across four unearned runs in the second inning.

Expert Help

SALAMANCA, N. Y., June 7.—(AP)—Some passing motorists stopped to help a farmer put out a fire in his barn. They did their work so well the barn was saved as well as an adjoining house. Their efficiency was explained when the farmer found out his helpers were: Assistant Fire Chief Bernard Swanson and former Fire Chief C. J. Beatty of Jamestown, Fire Chief Donald Sales of Lakewood, and George Blackstone of Lakewood, chief of the fire department at Bard College, who were returning from a fire chiefs' convention.

She's as Lively as a Youngster—Now her Backache is better

Many sufferers relieve nagging backache quickly, once they discover that the real cause of their trouble may be tired kidneys.

The kidneys are Nature's chief way of filtering the excess acids and waste out of the blood. They help most people pass about 3 pints a day.

When disorder of kidney function permits poisonous matter to remain in your blood, it may cause nagging backache, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, a stimulant diuretic, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. Doan's give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

Officers Installed By Roseburg Lions

Thomas C. Hartfiel was installed as president of the Roseburg Lions Club last night, succeeding Jerry Gilbo, who pinned on Hartfiel's coat lapel, the president's button to wear for the coming year.

Joe Spousta was installed as tail twister. Other newly-elected officers were not present for installation last night: Buckley Bell, first vice president; Dr. L. M. Lehrbach, second vice president, and Les Irvin, lion tamer.

Frank Norton was appointed secretary-treasurer by the executive committee in place of Carl Felker, who was elected but unable to serve. New directors are James Campbell, James Bewley, Forest Losee and Al Flegel.

Speaker at last night's meeting was Marshall Pengra, manager of KRNR, who told of his trip to New York in April, as a member of a negotiating committee which met with James Caesar Petrillo, music union czar, to adjust differences between the broadcasters and Petrillo's union.

Officers' Installation Set by Legion Post

Eugene A. Springer will be installed on June 25 as commander of Umpqua Post, No. 16, American Legion, succeeding Vic Micelli, who has served for the past year.

Other officers to be installed are Irvin Brunn, first vice commander; Lee Zenor, second vice commander; Erwin Short, adjutant, and Vic Micelli, finance officer. To the executive committee were elected E. A. Post, George Trapalis and Les Childs.

Delegates to the state convention to be held in Portland July 15 to 17, will be Springer, Short, Zenor, Childs, Trapalis, Post, Roy O. Young and Allan Moore. Alternates will be George Jackson, Jack Crafton, Arthur Midland, Ed Spray, Elmor Hill, Irvin Brunn, Fred Wenger and Joseph Quant.

Kiser-Nazarian Battle at Armory Will Be Dynamic

Saturday night's semi-final wrestling match at the Roseburg Armory is expected to be packed with dynamite, when Jack Kiser, scientific St. Johns grappler, meets Mike Nazarian, rugged and rough Armenian.

Most of the inevitable overflow crowd, however, will be on hand to experience the first Judo mat exhibition in local history—the first of its kind in the Pacific northwest in more than five years. The Judo headliner will match Walter Achiu against Paavo Katonen.

Judo is wrestled with opponents wearing jackets. The rivals toss each other about the ring like a bulldog playing with a rag cat. No shoulders are pinned to the mat and the only manner in which a victory is registered is for one competitor to yell "uncle" or to be left unconscious on the mat. The strangle hold, taboo in catch-as-can grappling, is permitted.

Achiu, the Chinese jiu-jitsu artist, is a veteran of Judo, but he wasn't aware at first that his Finnish opponent was also experienced at the sport when he accepted Katonen's challenge—following a fistic flurry during a match here two weeks ago when Achiu refereed the bout between Katonen and Joe Lynam. The latter won when Achiu disqualified Katonen, so Saturday's engagement will be a grudge affair. Achiu demanded that the winner take the entire purse, which was agreeable to Katonen.

The main event will be a Donnybrook and another capacity crowd is almost certain to be on hand.

The Kiser-Nazarian preliminary will not take a No. 2 ticket, however. Kiser will depend on speed and agility to balance the books against the stronger and more rugged villain. Fact of the matter is, the semi-windup may steal the show for action and color.

The customary three-round boxing exhibition, featuring local talent, will open the program at 8:30 P. M.

Elton Owen will referee all three matches.

Gems Taken From German Castle; GIs Suspected

FRANKFURT, Germany June 7.—(AP)—German royal jewels worth $1,500,000 vanished from a German castle while it was in use as an American officers club and an official announcement today hinted that Americans were suspected of their theft.

The House of Hesse complained that the family jewels had disappeared from their storage place of nearly two years in the basement floor of Kronberg castle about 15 miles from Frankfurt.

The provost marshal's office said investigation disclosed that a container had been removed from the basement floor last Nov. 6—seven months after the castle was requisitioned as a recreation center for American officers.

"All military personnel who may have had knowledge of the jewels alleged to have been buried in the basement and then reported removed returned to the United States prior to disclosure of the loss," the announcement continued.

"All facts ascertained here have been reported to the War Department and it is presumed that further investigation is being continued in the United States."

In Washington the War Department said an investigation is being made.

No details will be released until the inquiry has been completed.
