Mr. and Mrs. James H. Addcox, Jr.

Miss Evelyn Gunderson, beautiful daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Gunderson, Lookingglass route, Roseburg, became the bride of James H. Addcox, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Addcox, Sr., of Reno, Nevada, at the First Presbyterian Church in Roseburg May 5. Dr. Morris H. Roach performed the impressive ring ceremony at two o'clock in the afternoon in the presence of forty-two relatives and close friends.
Huge baskets of calla lilies and other white spring blossoms formed the altar decorations. Mrs. Homer Grow played softly on the organ as the guests assembled and played the Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin for the bridal party to take its place at the altar. At the close of the ceremony, Mrs. Grow played Mendelssohn's Wedding recessional.
The bride, given in marriage by her father, was very beautiful in a floor-length wedding gown of white satin, fashioned with a sweetheart neckline of white lace with lace shoulder inserts. The sleeves were wrist-length and the skirt had a full train. The lace-edged fingertip wedding veil was held in place by a coronet of seed pearls. She carried a white Bible topped by a large white orchid with a shower of satin streamers knotted with Stephanotis.
Mrs. Donald Anderson, Santa Ana, Calif., a cousin of the bride, was matron of honor and was charming in a floor-length gown of yellow lace and marquisette with a tiny hair veil. She carried

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Fuchs.

Miss Patricia Anderson, beautiful daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Anderson, Roseburg, and Edwin Fuchs, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Fuchs, Everett, Washington, were married at eight o'clock the morning of Monday, May 27, at St. Joseph's Catholic Church in Roseburg. Father William Coughlan performed the service in the presence of relatives and close friends of the couple.
Large baskets of spring blossoms formed the decorations.
The bride was attractive in a suit of medium green with black and white accessories. Her corsage was of pink carnations and Stephanotis. Miss Norene Roach, friend of the bride, was maid of honor, and was charming in a light blue dress with white accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

The bride's mother wore a navy blue dress with white accessories and a corsage of pink carnations. Ben Fuchs, brother of the bridegroom, acted as best man.
A reception was held at twelve o'clock noon at the home of the bride's mother on Pine street, close friends of the bride. The wedding cake, decorated with the words, "Good Luck to Pat and Ed" was cut by the bride and bridegroom.
Following a honeymoon in Washington, the couple will make their home in Roseburg. The bride was graduated from Roseburg Senior High School and for the last nine months has been employed at Bishop's Moderne Studio. The bridegroom was formerly employed at Martin Brothers in Sutherlin.
