

Joe Louis Doesn't Show Top Shape In His Workouts

POMPTON LAKES, N. J., June 12.—(AP)—You'd imagine a fighter would think twice before criticizing Joe Louis' fight skill, especially when he's a sparring partner earning his coffee and cakes letting Joe pot-shot at him, thereby giving the Bomber a daily chance to ram his words right back where they come from.

Yet, Al Hoosman, a lean string-bean kind of wallop-out of Waterloo, Iowa, not only speaks his piece, but actually takes his life in his hands going into the ring with Joe—and then deliberately proves what he says.

Anyway, Al's observations about what is wrong with Joe at the moment—largely that he's making mistakes in the ring, among them that he tips an opponent off when he's ready to let go his big punch—were more or less borne out by a New York State Athletic Commission physician yesterday.

Dr. Vincent Nardiello examined Joe before what was the worst workout of his training drill for Billy Conn June 19 and said Louis was ready to fight today. Then he gave Joe the double-o again, after the work, and did an about face. This is what he said the second time around:

"Joe's blood pressure went too high during the workout, indicating he might tire at 15 rounds. He wasn't sharp, particularly with his counter-punching. Frankly, he wasn't as good as I expected him to be. Of course, all this could be overcome with a few days more training, and he has until next Wednesday."

Sunshine Club to Meet — The Northside Sunshine Club will meet Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Ora Worthington on East Lane Street. Members are each asked to bring a gift to exchange. Bingo will be played during the social hour.
