

Unkept Promise On Feed Branded "Cheap Politics"

SEATTLE, June 11.—(AP)—John W. Wilson, manager of the Pacific Northwest Feed Association, yesterday accused Agriculture Secretary Anderson and his department of "playing cheap politics" in the current livestock and poultry feed shortages in the Pacific Northwest.

Already, Wilson told interviewers, one World War II veteran, S. W. Beltzel, Yakima, Wash., has "lost his shirt because he cannot get grain to feed his poultry flock, while Anderson promises relief when he knows it is not available." Beltzel was due in Washington, D. C., today for appointments with President Truman and Secretary Anderson, arranged by the American Legion. Beltzel had informed Wilson he obtained a GI loan with which to enter the poultry business but has had to dispose of his flock for lack of feed, Wilson said. Beltzel has lost all his savings and must repay his loan. He has a wife and two children.

No Shipments Readied
Wilson termed as a "falsehood" Anderson's promise of May 27 that 500 cars of grain and between 250,000 and 500,000 bushels of hominy were ready for shipment. "They didn't have the 500 carloads nor the hominy and they didn't know where they could get them," Wilson asserted. "All the grain elevators in the Midwest are full of wheat, awaiting export by the Commodity Credit Corp., and there is no room in them for any grain that could be collected in that area." He said that as of May 12, there was an urgent need for 3,000,000 bushels of feed but that only 50,000 bushels have been supplied this area since April 11. An additional "drop in the bucket" of five cars of oats and 11 of gluten feed are en route, Wilson added.

Advice on Living Needs Offered to Japan-Bound Wives

By RUTH COWAN
WASHINGTON—So that Mrs. American Soldier going to join her husband in the land of the cherry blossoms can't wall, "Why didn't you tell me it would be like this?" the 8th Army has prepared a booklet of "General Information for Dependents of Military Personnel Planning to Come to Japan."

It sums up by saying: "Dependents will be well fed, well housed and comfortable. They will have electricity, modern plumbing, telephones, radios and modern transportation. They will have excellent medical care and many means of recreation. They will be guarded by the United States Army, and there is little to fear from the Japanese, who are a subservient, beaten people."

"On the other hand, life will be relatively simple. There will be no corner drug or grocery stores, no department stores or filling stations."

Few Beauty Parlors
But there will be scenery, "second to none" in beauty. And there will be a place to call "home." Women are advised that there are few beauty parlors in Japan now and that there will be more. Dry cleaning and laundry facilities will be available. Those coming to Japan before September should bring three months' supply of toilet articles, and if there is an infant in the family, three months' supply of baby food and "baby needs." After September, one month's supply will be sufficient.

Storage Eggs Available
Fresh frozen meat, vegetables, canned goods, soap and mops can be purchased at the commissaries. Powdered or canned milk must be used. There will be storage eggs.

The Army Exchange Service plans to have its post exchanges in Japan on a par with those in the United States by fall. But it is recommended that families coming before September bring a six-month supply of personal needs, sufficient clothing for this summer and next winter and easily packed items such as lamps and kitchen gadgets.

There will be motion picture shows and libraries, swimming pools, golf courses and tennis courts. But the athletically inclined are advised to bring their own mits, golf clubs and balls, skis, tennis rackets.

Uncle Sam will set up elementary grade and high schools. However, subjects taught in the latter will be the bare essentials.

Bring Very Little
The general opinion is that items to be brought from home should be kept at a minimum, for it is planned to equip quarters so fully that only clothing and personal effects—such as pictures, flat silverware and table linen—are needed to move in.

Until their permanent quarters are ready, soldier families will be housed in hotels, apartments and requisitioned European-type homes. In general there will be two types of permanent Army homes—single houses for senior field officers and four-unit apartment houses for junior field officers, company grade officers and enlisted men. Each apartment will be a two-story duplex with two or three bedrooms.

A Small Business Like Mine Helps Make America Great

ONE OF THOUSANDS OF INDEPENDENT MOBILGAS BUSINESS MEN

Al Hofferber established his highly successful Mobilgas station in Tigard, Ore., in 1926. That he has been a business success is attested by the fact that he owns his home in Tigard, a 20-acre filbert farm on Bull Mountain, a ranch at Greenburg, an additional business property in Tigard and a small ranch nearby for his prized horses and dogs. He is married, has one son, and for years has been a member of the Clackamas County Sheriff's posse.

I may not have the biggest payroll in town, but my Mobilgas station pays off big in driving satisfaction to a lot of people who come to me for Mobilgas, Mobiloil and the best car care service I can give them.

You see, I'm in business for myself and independently set up to give the kind of service that will make my business grow. I realize that I can protect what I have at stake only as I please you and bring you back . . . and that's important in these times when good, dependable labor is in such demand.

The same is true wherever you see the sign of the Flying Red Horse, for Mobilgas stations are independently operated by small business men like myself. When you use Mobilgas and Mobiloil, you not only get top flight motor fuel and lubricants, but courteous and conscientious car care service.
