

Syracuse Palace Visitors Guest of Knights of Pythias

Irvin E. Lisle, master regent of Yakima, Wash., Palace of the Princes of Syracuse, accompanied by 11 members of the palace, visited Roseburg Saturday evening, June 8, in the interest of making preliminary arrangements for the organization of a palace in Roseburg. Those who accompanied him were: Dave Lewis, prince regent; Howard Ross, Kay Jones, Duane Crimin, Bob Petheram, James Dohle, Don McGuinness, Gentry Wade, Jim Rhode, Lee Johnson and Ron Murphy.

The party arrived in the city about 6:30 P. M. and were entertained at a chili feed in the R. P. Hall by members of Alpha Lodge, No. 47, Knights of Pythias. A. M. Kuykendall was chairman of the committee in charge, and was assisted by Mrs. Kuykendall, Mrs. George Jackson, John D. Hess, Ben F. Jones and several other members of the local lodge.

After dinner the group adjourned to the chapel of the Douglas Funeral Home, where six local boys were initiated into the order. These were: Charles Plummer, Gene Henry, Gene Wilkerson, Larry Kvidera, David Bolsinger and Dale Carlson. These boys will form the nucleus of a palace which is to be instituted in Roseburg in the near future.
