Bernice Licht daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Light of Eugene, was married to E. A. Britton, son of Elmer Britton and the late Mrs. Britton, of Delphi, Ind., at Eugene, June 14, 1921. Mr. Britton was employed as physical director of the Y. M. C. A. in Eugene and later went to Marshfield to instruct in the schools. The family later moved to Portland, where Mr. Britton was employed by the Ford Motor Company after which the family came to Roseburg, where Mr. Britton was Douglas County Boy Scout executive and 4-H Club leader for many years. Mrs. Britton is a past guardian of Roseburg Bethel and was grand guardian of Job's Daughters of Oregon, 1945-46. Both Mr. and Mrs. Britton were active members of the Roseburg Methodist Church.

ENJOYABLE VOICE RECITAL PRESENTED MONDAY EVENING

A very enjoyable voice recital was given by the pupils of Mrs. Charles A. Brand Monday evening at the First Baptist Church, which was effectively decorated with large baskets of flowers.

The singers showed careful training by their pure tone quality and good interpretation. Betty Hahn and Annaloris Ward, piano pupils of Miss Gladys H. Strong, did some very nice accompanying. Pauline and Nancy Caskey and Holly Nicholas were ushers.

Those taking part on the program included: Betty and Sue Hahn, Gloria Gaston, Nina Rhoads, Betty Lou Sanders, Jean Matthews, Wayne Wagner, Ruth Collett and Christina Travalis.

Marry at Home Wedding, June 7

Mr. and Mrs. Fred J. Hayes.

Genevieve Flegel, attractive daughter of Mrs. A. H. Jaeger, Roseburg, became the bride of Fred J. Hayes, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Hayes, also of Roseburg, Friday evening, June 7, at the home of the bride's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Horn, 411 South Jackson street. The impressive ceremony was performed by Rev. H. P. Sconce, pastor of the First Baptist Church, in the presence of seventy-five relatives and friends.

Huge floor baskets filled with gladioli, snapdragons and orange blossoms and flanked by candle-labra holding tall white candles decorated the improvised altar in front of the fireplace. The mantle was arranged with sweetpeas, gladioli and carnations in pastel colors.

Proceeding the ceremony Mrs. Wanda Althaus played for Jerry Land, who sang two solos, "Always" and "I Can't Begin to Tell You," after which Mrs. Althaus played the traditional wedding processional and at the close of the ceremony, played Mendelssohn's Wedding Reccessional. The candles were lighted by Barbara Freeman, a niece of Mr. Horn. She wore a pale pink frock and a corsage of pastel-colored blossoms.

The bride was attractive in a traveling suit of gray pin-stripe with matching accessories and a small pink flower-trimmed hat. Her corsage was of tiny rosebuds and sweetpeas. Georgia Horton and Fred Boyer, close friends of the bridegroom, were attendants. The bride was given in marriage by her step-father, A. H. Jaeger.

The bride's mother wore a shell pink dress with a corsage of white carnations and pink rosebuds.

A reception followed, at which time the beautiful four-tiered wedding cake, topped by a miniature bride and groom standing under an arch, was served by Mrs. Harold Horn, Mrs. V. M. Gibbs, of Oakland, Calif., served the punch
