Photo by Clark's Studio Mrs. Howard L. Muller. News-Review Engraving

Miss Helen Johnson, beautiful daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gunnar Johnson of Melrose, became the bride of Howard L. Muller, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Muller of Helix, Ore., at the First Methodist Church in Roseburg at eight o'clock this evening of June 1. Rev. Walter MacArthur performed the impressive ceremony in the presence of one hundred and fifty relatives and friends.

Floor baskets filled with pastel-colored snapdragons and roses and tall lighted white cathedral candles decorated the altar. Mrs. Wanda Althaus, organist, played "At Dawning" and "O Promise Me" and followed by playing the Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin as the bride party took its place at the altar. At the close of the ceremony, Mrs. Althaus played Mendelssohn's Wedding Recessional.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was very beautiful in a floor-length gown of white satin and tulle. The bodice was fashioned along princess lines with a high necking and yoke of tulle, which was outlined with tiny pearls and sequins. The sleeves were wrist-length and the bodice was fitted with a peplum of satin. The skirt was of tulle. Her tulle finger-length veil was held in place with a Juliette cap. She carried a bouquet fashioned with white and pink roses and stephanotis centered with an orchid, with a shower of white satin streamers knotted with stephanotis blossoms.

Proceeding the ceremony, Marion Nelson and Henrietta Johnson, in attractive formal gowns, lighted the candles. Mildred Bybee, in a lime-colored silk jersey formal, was maid of honor with Joy Faulkner and Patricia Holmquist, in blue silk jersey formal, as bridesmaids. The formals were made during the afternoon with Mrs. W. F. Amiot winning the first prize and Mrs. James D. Hughes, second prize.
