Scarcities Few In Canada; Opinion Of U. S. Not Good

Many Canadians hold the opinion that the United States has the "big head"—that it is trying to run the world and succeeding only in creating chaos at home, reports W. J. Mess, former president of the Roseburg Chamber of Commerce, who returned Sunday from a brief visit with relatives at Victoria, B. C.

Mr. Mess and two daughters, Ila and Lucia, left for Victoria Wednesday to join Mrs. Mess, who was returning from Salt-coats, Saskatchewan, where she had visited for three weeks with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Thompson.

Mr. Mess visited in Victoria with his three sisters who are residents there. "There are few scarcities in Canada," Mess said. "We bought a number of sheets, found the markets stocked with ham, bacon and plenty of meat of all kinds. Lots of newly manufactured automobiles are to be seen. One dealer told me that all through the war dealers from Seattle and other Washington points had been coming into Canada to get parts which were unobtainable in the United States."

"I made it a point to talk to as many influential people as I could contact," Mess said, "and I found that they do not have much respect for current domestic policies in the United States."

Health Assn. Heads Named; Sanitation Value Emphasized

Increased good health in the county through sanitation was the theme of William Cloyes, Lane County senior sanitarian, guest speaker at the annual meeting of the Douglas County Public Health Association held at a noon luncheon Monday at the Rainbow Grill. He stated that Douglas County is one of the largest in the state and is entirely surrounded by counties already engaged in sanitarian work.

He explained the duties of a sanitarian and his assistance to the health association and the entire county. Mr. Cloyes started with the state health department in 1937 and in 1940 was employed by Lane County as senior sanitarian. He reported that 26 cases of typhoid were in Lane County that year and since his department has been organized, there has been only one case of typhoid in the county in the last six years, in spite of the county suffering two serious floods. He reported that Lane County now has four men in the department. He outlined the financial outlay for the department and answered questions presented on the subject.

Mr. Heryford, state inspector of tourist camps, added a few words on the subject, urging the Douglas County Health Association to engage a sanitarian.

Mrs. E. J. Loney, president, thanked the various organization representatives present for their support and help to the association. Dr. E. J. Wainwright, Douglas Health officer, introduced the guest speakers and urged the backing of citizens for a full-time sanitarian. Officers Chosen Mrs. Kenneth D. Adams, chairman of the nominating committee, submitted to the committee's report and the following officers were unanimously elected for 1946-47: President, Mrs. E. J. Loney, Sutherlin; first vice president, Mrs. H. A. Watzig, Roseburg; second vice president, Mrs. John Edwards, Oakland; third vice president, Mrs. Fitz Snyder, Days Creek; fourth vice president, Mrs. Vera Rydell, Reedsport; secretary, Mrs. Wallace W. Ferguson, Sutherlin; treasurer, Mrs. Ra' S. Petrequin, Roseburg; executive secretary, Mrs. W. F. Amiot, Roseburg, and director, Rev. W. A. MacArthur, Roseburg. Mimeographed copies of the Association's annual report were placed at each cover. The report observed the 25th anniversary of the Douglas County Public Health Association, whose motto for the year is "Service Thru Seals."

Municipal Band To Offer Variety Of Popular Music

The Roseburg Municipal Band will make its first summer appearance Thursday at 7:30 on the county courthouse lawn. The band will feature one hour of favorites, including overtures, waltzes, novelty fantasies, and martial marches.

One of the features of the evening will be a descriptive fantasy in jazz tempo by Everett Hill, titled "At the Gremlin Ball."

The "gremlin" is a mischievous little dwarf who heckles the aviator thousands of feet above the ground by getting the plane off balance, freezing the controls, causing engine trouble, and making himself a nuisance in general.

The gremlin was first brought to the public's attention by the Royal Air Force of Great Britain in the early days of the recent war. In the fantasy, as the Gremlin convention gets under way on the outer edges of the wing of a mighty transport plane, the Gremlin Jazz Band opens up the Grand Ball with the playing of its feature number, "At the Gremlin Ball."

Other numbers of enjoyment to local music followers will be the selection, "Victor Herbert's Favorites," from "Babes in Toyland," "Caravan Overture," by Earl Bennett, which includes music by Duke Ellington and Juan Tizol, and "Knightsbridge March" from London Suite by Eric Coates.

The attendance at this first appearance will determine the continuance of summer concerts this year. Director Les Irvin said Monday. "If the Thursday evening's turnout justifies it, plans for immediate repairing of the band shell at the Library Park will be made and we will continue concerts at that site through the summer as in previous years."

Vandals Warned On Destruction Of Property Here

Destruction of public property with malicious intent has been reported within the Roseburg area in the past few months by public officials, and the vandals, upon apprehension, will be dealt with severely.

Presumed to be young prowlers, who are not satisfied with breaking in locked doors once, but return nightly, countless expense has been caused tax payers and equipment, H. W. Gray, investigating official, stated.

Dick Baker of the sheriff's office reported that more than $400 was spent in repairing stolen and damaged equipment at the fair-ground in preparation for this year's rodeo. The Roseburg High School grandstand locker rooms, under the summer supervision of H. W. Gray, Homer Gray and Mel Ingram, was reported as having had five different padlocks broken within the past two weeks. Equipment destroyed

Although no equipment has been reported as missing from the high school stadium, numerous pieces of expensive and hard-to-replace equipment, especially athletic and recreational goods, have been totally destroyed. At the city swimming beach newly erected bath houses have been entered by night raiders and plumbing fixtures have been stolen or damaged, Gray said. Issuing a warning to the vandals, Gray said, "Enough is already known about the work of these prowlers in the way of damage and looting that when apprehended, they'll be dealt with severely. "This equipment is purely for the young people's enjoyment," he continued, "and this display of appreciation is hardly fair to the majority of youngsters who use it daily."
