

Edith Poirot Is Chosen Queen Of Umpqua Mermaids

Queen of the Umpqua Mermaids title went to 16-year-old Edith Poirot of Roseburg yesterday as more than 150 spectators looked on at the July 4th Water Pageant and bathing beauty contest at the Templin street beach.

Completely fulfilling the requirements of the judges, Miss Poirot was chosen from the seven contestants as possessing outstanding physical culture, poise and beauty. The judging was so close it was decided to include the entire six other contestants in her court as the Queen's water nymphs. They are: Zella Hubbard, Carrie Miller, Ann Carter, Joyce Bartley, Lorraine Losee, Barbara Ogle and Joyce Mask.

Each of the girls received donation gifts from local merchants and Queen Edith received a certificate for a 9x12 oil portrait and a swim suit. In the afternoon, following the beauty parade, the queen and her court of nymphs played hosts to the American Junior Legion baseball game.

Typical of her title, the Mermaid Queen's favorite hobby is swimming. Her pastime is reading. Born in Douglas, Wyo., and residing in Roseburg since 1937, she is the present majorette of the local high school band and is very active in school clubs at Roseburg Senior High School.

In the water events which drew much interest from the crowd lining the beach, Barbara Ogle, one of the girls chosen a nymph, walked away with the outstanding girl-swimming honors, and for the boys was Larry Kvidera, a ten-year-old aquatic sensation.

Cash awards amounted to fifty dollars and were donated by the Roseburg News-Review and Radio Station KRNK. The winners of various water races and events are as follows:
