

Douglas Forest Assn. Co-Plaintiff In $150,000 Action

The Douglas Forest Protective Assn. is one of the ten Oregon organizations of its kind united as plaintiffs in a suit for $150,000 damages, filed in Multnomah county against Lloyds of London, insurance underwriters. The suit alleges non-payment of insurance on a policy taken out on fire suppression costs.

The plaintiffs charge that for a $10,000 premium they took out a $150,000 policy for the period between May 9 and December 31, 1945, against 90 per cent of the loss in excess of $50,000 that might be sustained by the emergency fire cost fund subscribed to by the ten.

Excess Costs $417,842. According to the complaint, the Northwest Oregon Forest Protective Association, the Polk County Fire Patrol Association and the Southwest Oregon State Patrol unit incurred fire suppression costs over and above $50,000 an acre, a total of $417,842.84 in excess costs, between July 9 and November 27, 1945.

On May 27, 1946, the complaint says, the plaintiff and the defendant, through its adjuster, agreed that the whole loss and damage incurred by reason of excess fire suppression costs, was $247,063.46.

The complaint asks judgment of $150,000 with 6 per cent interest from May 27, 1946.

Currier Village Club House Looted

REEDSPORT — Sgt. Richard M. Miles of the state police was called to Lakeside Saturday, when it was discovered that the Currier Village Pavilion club house, owned and operated by Mrs. Alice Madison, had been entered and robbed. Missing were eight cases of beer, two cases of champagne, two dozen wine glasses, about 30 T-bone steaks and $250 taken from a 5-10-25 cent slot machine. The burglars also carried away a Q-T dime slot machine containing about $40.

The burglars left as clues, a hacksaw blade with which it was believed they sawed away the padlock securing the front door, and a pocketknife. The robbery was discovered Saturday morning by a machinist from Coos Bay who came to work on a refrigerator machine, and the front door was found open.

Mrs. Madison lives in one of the village cottages a short distance away, in view of the front door of the pavilion. Although a light sleeper, she did not hear any noise about her property and heard no automobile leave or arrive at the place after she had

Two Die in Plunge Over Vernal Falls

MERCED, Calif., July 10. — (AP) — An 11-year-old boy and a former sailor, who attempted an heroic rescue in the face of almost certain death, were carried over 325-foot Vernal falls in Yosemite National Park late Monday.

The youngster, Keen Freeman, son of Dr. Walter Freeman of Washington, D. C., slipped into the fast running water above the falls trying to retrieve a can-teen.

Orville Dale Loos, 21, Dayton, Ohio, recently discharged from the Navy, vaulted over the guard rail in an effort to rescue the boy less than 60 feet from the dizzy lip of the falls.

Loos succeeded in getting a hold on young Freeman about 15 feet from the waterfall, and struggled in the swirling current to make shore.

The waters were too swift. Both were carried over, dropping 325 feet to the massive boulders at the base of the waterfall.

Nine rangers, assisted by Dr. Freeman and other vacationers, were searching the foot of the falls today for the bodies.

Square milk bottles increase the capacity of dairy-plant cold rooms about 45 per cent.
