In the Day's News

at least not shaded for political purposes, as it is made up to help business men shape their plans.

AN up of 12% in food prices in two weeks is something to consider. It sounds worse, however, than it really is, for it includes the LOSS OF SUBSIDIES.

IN the battle of the Roosevelts up in Washington state, Jimmy came out on top. In the primary election held this week, he backed a congressional candidate named De Lacey and his sister Anna had backed a radio announcer aspirant by the name of Costigan for the same office.

ON the important, but recently confusing, world politics front, Russia is sparring to get all she can. On one day, the new Russian ambassador talks CONCILIATINGLY to us, asserting that Russia will NEVER start a war against America.

Our big hope is that Russia doesn't want to GO TO WAR—maybe is in no condition to go to war. If that turns out to be true, some kind of troubled peace will come out of the snarled-up mess.

It is becoming sadly obvious to all of us that the idealistically beautiful and inspiring Atlantic Charter was merely flypaper put out to catch flies.

SO much for the heavy diet in the late news. There are some lighter dishes on the menu. Up at Depoe Bay, on Oregon's north coast, Oscar, a performing seal, passed out the other day and an autopsy disclosed that over a period of years he had swallowed (and retained in his stomach) 186 pennies, five dimes and four nickels—all tossed to him as kudos by admiring spectators.

As the years passed, this weight of metal became too much for poor Oscar. The lesson (this writer of late seems to be an irrefragable lesson chaser) is this: Money is good only to BUY THINGS WITH. Poor old Oscar demonstrates for us at the cost of his life that it can't be EATEN.

THERE'S another little side dish in the news. A family in Holland, recipient of donated American clothes, found in one of the pockets a motor car key and returned it by overseas mail to the donor with a nice little note expressing appreciation for the badly needed clothing and added: "You might want this car key, so we're returning it."

People, you see, REALLY ARE human and decent, the world over. And understanding. And helpful. In Europe, the same as here in America. People are PEOPLE, no matter where they live. (The vast majority of them, that is. There are ornery people everywhere, but they are hopelessly in the minority.)

WAITING FOR A FUMBLE

By CHARLES V. STANTON

The manner in which the Senate is treating price control proposals indicates the futility of attempting to restore the OPA or its counterpart, with the exception of rent controls.

Of course, it would be very nice for the tens of thousands of employees who will be tossed out into the cruel workaday world, after so many years of fat desk jobs, if the bureau could be held intact, even though it had nothing to do.

Personally, we hope the Congress will not yield to the administration's political pressure but will end OPA definitely and immediately, setting up only rent controls.

The consuming public was pushed off into deep water with OPA's sudden demise. It apparently has learned it can swim against the current of inflation and is proceeding to do so.

We need a comparatively high level of prices. We need prices productive of fair profit margins for the manufacturer, producer and laborer.

The vital issue is that of keeping prices, profits and wages in BALANCE. Price controls destroyed the balance ordinarily enforced by the law of supply and demand.

A buyers' strike will reduce demand thus providing a sure defense against inflation. But, if carried too far, through ignorance and intolerance, it will, by elimination of fair profits, reduce supply as well as demand.

We are speaking of an UNREASONING buyers' strike. An intelligent approach—one in which buyers refuse to pay unreasonable prices and refrain from purchasing or hoarding unneeded goods, now short in supply—can most definitely prevent inflation and hold living costs to reasonable levels.

If we maintain a calm and patient attitude, cooperating during reconversion to full production, we have no need for further price regulation. Congress, instead of playing politics and kicking the OPA around while waiting for one side or the other to fumble the ball, should, in our opinion, impose upon itself the "cooling off period," it suggested for organized labor.

Seals Grab Lead Of Coast League From Oaklanders

(By The Associated Press) The road to the pinnacle led through 16 agonizing innings, but the long-challenging San Francisco Seals roared above the rest of the Pacific Coast baseball league today.

Finally breaking through the finally of Olsen in the marathon with the San Diego Padres for a 3-2 victory last night, San Francisco hopped a half game ahead of Oakland's pennant hopefuls, who tumbled before the tail-end Seattle Rainiers 2-1.

San Diego got a two-run lead, scoring the first and third, but the Seals made it up on Fain's single and Sheridan's and White's doubles in the sixth.

The topping of the Oakland Aconors from the league lead, to which they had clung with close pursuit by the Seals since last May, came on an old college try made good by York of the Rainiers in the ninth inning.

Going into the ninth with a 1-0 advantage, the Aconors used three hurlers, Buxton, the starter, Hafey and Speer in a vain effort to stem the Seattle rally.

Jackson, McEuin Teamed Against Achiu and Hager

Tagteam wrestling, one of the most popular innovations with Douglas County grappling followers, will be featured at the Roseburg Armory tonight when Matchmaker Don Owen presents his weekly mat show.

Opening the show will be two 30-minute, one-fall engagements, matching Tex Hager against Billy McEuin; Bulldog Jackson against Walter Achiu. The tagteam tilt to follow will send Achiu and Hager against Jackson and McEuin.

The card marks the first local appearance of Jackson, alias "Yukon Jake," in many months and the veteran villain can be counted on to furnish fans with considerable entertainment both in and outside the ring.

Jack Poppenheimer will referee all matches. The show is scheduled to get under way promptly at 8:30 P. M.

Another Baseball School Scheduled

A new baseball school will be inaugurated Monday under the Roseburg Park playground program on Hamilton Street for all boys under the ages of 14, the local recreation department said today.

Scheduled to meet Monday, Wednesday and Friday mornings at 10 o'clock, the new school will train of Rudy Ritzman in the baseball and basic techniques from correct batting style to fielding. Stress will be put on individual instruction also, H. W. Gray said.

"In addition to teaching the boys the finer points of American baseball, one sport," Gray said Friday, "the boys will develop training of coordination in mind and muscle and a great deal of experience will be gained by all toward the making of future Roseburg ball teams."

The cellar dwelling Pittsburgh Pirates quelled a ninth-inning Philadelphia rally to defeat the Phillies 4-3 and move to within three games of the seventh-place Quakers.

WRESTLING

It's a field day for guests on weekend programs... here are a few of them. Lucille Ball guest on Ilka Chase's Sunday show at 12:15, Jed Prouty guests on Twenty Questions Sunday at 8:00 and on tonight's schedule there's Harriet O'Rourke, Angelo Raffaeli, and Harry Strum on Chicago Theatre of the Air. Leave It To The Girls always has a male guest, of course, and tonight it's Albert N. Williams.

Suggestion to the Wrestling Match broadcast team... when you want a Saturday night off, why not invite a guest expert in to do the broadcast. Wrestling Matches broadcasts start at 9:30.

One of the best of the Sunday shows is heard at 8:00 o'clock. Twenty Questions is a brain child of the Van Deventer family and there are three of them on the program... Papa Fred, Mrs. Van Deventer (who uses the name of Florence Rinard), and 14-year-old Bobby, who has adopted the professional name of McGuire.

In celebration of Bastille Day, "Let's Go To The Opera," Sunday at 3:00, presents an entire program of scenes from French operas. If you're not a mystery or quiz show fan, this is your dish.

Remember that music and meanderings in the style of Zeke Manners will be heard at a new time on Monday, 11:15 A. M. with the shows usually heard at that time moving into the 10:15 slot.

Cardinals Move Closer to Dodgers In National Race

(By The Associated Press) The St. Louis Cardinals gained a game and a half on Brooklyn, the National League leaders yesterday by sweeping both ends of a doubleheader from the New York Giants, 2-1 and 5-4, while the Chicago Cubs handed the Dodgers their second straight defeat, 13-2.

Led by Lowrey, who rammed home seven runners and scored three on a home run and two singles, the Cubs battered three Brooklyn hurlers for 15 hits and easily notched their fifth straight home triumph over the Dodgers. Ferriss gained his 13th pitching success and his eight straight over Detroit as the American League-leading Boston Red Sox defeated the Tigers 4-2 to increase their margin over the idle New York Yankees to eight games.

Sain pitched a one-hitter as the Boston Braves eked out a 1-0 decision over the Cincinnati Reds. A double by Hatton in the first inning prevented Sain from registering a perfect game as Hatton was the only Redleg to reach base.

The cellar dwelling Pittsburgh Pirates quelled a ninth-inning Philadelphia rally to defeat the Phillies 4-3 and move to within three games of the seventh-place Quakers.
