Mr. and Mrs. Ward O. Cockeram.

At an afternoon ceremony Sunday, June 9, in the Community Church in Oakland, Mrs. Susie Burnett, for many years a teacher in the Oakland school, became the bride of Ward O. Cockeram, member of a pioneer family of the community. The bride, dressed in an aqua-colored ensemble with matching flower hat and orchid corsage, was escorted to the altar by her nephew, Kenneth Hopkins. Donald Cockeram, nephew of the bridegroom, was best man and Don Hopkins and Herbert Hogan, Jr. were ushers. Joseph Wahiton sang "I Love

Celebrate Golden Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ritzman, for many years prominent Roseburg residents, celebrated their golden wedding anniversary Sunday afternoon, when they were honored at an open-house reception from two to six o'clock at the home of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth L. Gilkeson, on South Main street.

Gorgeous bouquets of gold-colored summer flowers were attractively arranged about the rooms. Mr. and Mrs. Ritzman were assisted in receiving by their two daughters, Mrs. Clyde S. Henninger and Mrs. Kenneth L. Gilkeson.

The serving table, covered by a very beautiful lace cloth, was centered with lovely three tiered wedding cake topped by a large wedding bell, in front of which was placed a low arrangement of huge white magnolia blossoms. Candelabra holding ten lighted tapers flanked the cake. The cake was served by Mrs. E. G. Randolph, Mrs. T. R. Ritzman, daughter-in-law of the honored couple, poured coffee; Betty Henbest served the punch and Barbara Randolph and Patricia Ritzman assisted in the serving.

Fred W. Ritzman and Mary Margaret Murry, daughter of the late Thomas J. and Mary Ann Murphy, were married July 8, 1896, at St. Peter and St. Paul's Catholic Church at nine o'clock mass at Troy Grove, Illinois. Mrs. Ritzman was a school teacher at Dimmick, Illinois, and Mr. Ritzman engaged in farming. They are parents of two daughters, Mrs. Clyde S. Henninger, Winchester; Mrs. Kenneth L. Gilkeson, Roseburg, and a son, Thomas R. Ritzman, Riddle. They have five grandchildren: Mrs. Ralph Thrift, Winchester; Mrs. Halmer Johnson, Mrs. Richard Heibster, Idleyld, and Richard and Patricia Ritzman, Riddle; and three great grandchildren, Clyde H. and Pamela Thrift, Winchester, and Suzanne Johnson, Roseburg.

MISS HELEN CASEY WINS LOW NET AND CLOSEST TO THE PIN IN GOLF PLAY

For the regular weekly golf tournament of the ladies of the Roseburg Country Club Thursday morning, Miss Helen Casey won the closest to the pin and low net score with Miss Naomi Scott winning the prize for the longest drive and having second low net score and Mrs. J. F. Dillard winning the blind bogey prize.

The first play of the championship cup tournament was enjoyed with Mrs. Kenneth Quine winning from Mrs. Walter Fisher; Mrs. H. C. Stearns winning from Mrs. Frederick Chapman, Jr.; Mrs. Roy Cummins winning from Mrs. J. F. Dillard and Mrs. R. D. Bridges winning from Mrs. James O. Hughes. The second play of the tournament will be held next Thursday morning in addition to the regular weekly golf tournament play.

Luncheon was served at the clubhouse by Mr. Simmons at twelve-thirty o'clock to Mrs. J. F. Dillard, captain, Mrs. A. G. Henninger, Mrs. W. F. Amiot, Mrs. Frederick Chapman, Jr., Mrs. James O. Hughes, Mrs. K. D. Adams, Mrs. Paul Syron, Mrs. Greenfield, Mrs. Bill Courter, Miss Irma and Miss Elaine Schoenleber from Milwaukee, Wis., Miss Helen Casey, Miss Naomi Scott, Mrs. Roy Cummins, Mrs. Kenneth Quine, Mrs. Philip Meischen, Mrs. Fred Saling, Mrs. H. C. Stearns, Mrs. R. D. Bridges, Mrs. L. E. McClintock, Mrs. Clyde Knight, Mrs. G. W. Marshall, Mrs. Maurice J. Gowan, Mrs. Paul Helweg and her sister, Mrs. Blossom Maxwell, who is visiting from Minneapolis, Minn.; Mrs. Robert Collier, Mrs. A. B. Collier, Mrs. E. J. Rodgers and Mrs. Walter Brydges.

Contract bridge was in play during the afternoon with Mrs. Meischen winning the high score and Mrs. Adams, second high score.

MRS. G. R. CHILD IS COMPLIMENTED AT LUNCHEON THURSDAY

To compliment Mrs. G. R. Child of San Francisco, who is spending her annual summer vacation at the Hotel Uaupia, a very charming one o'clock luncheon was given at the Foster, Butler, home Thursday, when Mrs. Geddes and Mrs. Armour Murdock graciously entertained the members of the Roseburg Woman's Club executive board and program committee as guests.

Gorgeous bouquets of sweet peas graced the two lace-covered serving tables, while large bouquets of pink hydrangeas were artistically arranged about the attractive rooms.

Covers were placed for Mrs. Child, guest of honor, Mrs. G. V. Wimberly, Mrs. Paul Elliott, Mrs. W. R. Brown, Mrs. I. B. Riddle, Mrs. Albert Micelli, Mrs. L. A. Wells, Mrs. O. S. Chambers, Miss Estelle V. Conover, Miss Marie Martin, Mrs. E. Prineas, Mrs. Mrs. Frederick J. Porter and the hostesses, Mrs. Geddes and Mrs. Murdock.

Mrs. Child outlined plans for the new clubhouse, which she will have built for the Roseburg Woman's Club as soon as building conditions improve. Mrs. Child, founder and first president of the club, announced her intentions to build a clubhouse for the club in Roseburg at its 50th anniversary jubilee affair in 1945.

Mrs. Geddes conducted the board meeting and plans were made for the club to entertain Mrs. Child at a delightful picnic luncheon Tuesday, July 30, at Umpqua Park. All members of the club are invited and those having cars are asked to contact either Mrs. L. A. Wells or Mrs. I. B. Riddle. Cars will be at the corner of the First Presbyterian Church at noon to furnish transportation, while arrangements will be made for some cars to leave earlier to take members

Marriage Takes Place June 29th

News-Review Engraving
Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Dishman.

In the presence of 250 guests, Miss Letitia Best, beautiful daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Garnet D. Best of Enterprise, became the bride of Robert W. Dishman, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Dishman, Roseburg, at four o'clock Saturday afternoon, June 29, at the Enterprise Community Church. Rev. Howard C. Stover performed the impressive double ring ceremony.

Peanut and lupines formed the attractive altar decorations, while the aisles were marked with satin ribbons and looped to pews with nosegays of mixed garden flowers.

Mrs. W. F. Craig, at the organ, played "Ariso," Hymn of the Nuns" and "Song of Spring," as Miss Barbara Ehlert and Miss Betty West lighted the tall white tapers in the candleabra at the altar. Preceding the ceremony, Guy Craig, cousin of the bride, sang, "O Perfect Love" and "Until."

The bridal chorus from Lohengrin was played by Mrs. Craig, organist, and Mrs. C. C. Jacobs, pianist. The bride given in marriage by her father, was very beautiful in a floor-length gown of sheer nylon marquisette with an embroidered bodice. The lace-edged finger-tip veil was held in place with a Mary Stuart hat outlined in tiny pearls. She wore a strand of pearls, a gift of the bridegroom, and carried a white Bible topped by a gladioli corsage tied with a shower of white satin ribbon knotted with sweetpeas.

Miss Jean Best, wearing a rose-colored gown trimmed with rhinestones, was maid of honor for her sister, and Mrs. E. O. Radtke, sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Joyce Best, sister of the bride, were bridesmaids. They wore blue formal gowns designed to match the maid of honor's and carried nosegays of sweetpeas and roses. Norman Conaway was best man and Wingert Walker and Keith Miller were ushers. Both mothers wore formal gowns of blue and attractive corsages.

A reception followed in the church parlors with the bride standing before the decorated fireplace to receive the congratulations of relatives and friends.

The lace-covered table, lighted by tall tapers, was centered with a three-tiered wedding cake, topped by a miniature wedding bell. The cake was carried by the bride couple, after which it was served by Mrs. Earl Miller, with Mrs. W. I. Dishman, grandmother of the bridegroom, and Mrs. Asa Craig, cousin of the bridegroom, pouring. Miss Mildred Day was in charge of the "off table"; Miss Joyce Best had charge of the guest book and Miss Ehlert and Miss West and the ushers assisted about the rooms.

Following the reception, the couple left for a 10-day wedding trip to British Columbia. For
