PATRICIA DURCH BECOMES BRIDE OF WARREN W. LUCAS AT WEDDING ON SUNDAY

Miss Patricia Durch, daughter of Mrs. Ada Durch, of Elgarose, became the bride of Warren W. Lucas, son of Mrs. Paul Blasky of Roseburg, at an impressive candlelight ceremony Sunday, July 7, at four o'clock at the latter's home at 806 Winchester Street...

The bride, given in marriage by her brother, Morse Durch, was very lovely in a white satin wedding gown and a band of orange blossoms in her hair. Her corsage was of gardenias. Miss Doris Jean Durch was her sister's maid of honor and was attractive in a light pink formal gown with a gardenia corsage...

A reception followed the ceremony, at which time the bride and bridegroom cut the three-tiered wedding cake decorated and topped by a bridal couple. The lace-covered table was decorated with hydrangeas, flanked by tall tapers. Mrs. Hafer served the cake and Mrs. L. Woodruff assisted...

Following a 10-day wedding trip to Oregon and California coastal points and the Grand Canyon of the Colorado, Mr. and Mrs. Lucas will return to Roseburg to make their home.

Out-of-town guests attending the wedding were: Mr. and Mrs. Gaylor Lucas of Eugene; Mrs. Marguerite Maborn and son, George, of Dillard, and Mr. and Mrs. Dale Webster and son, Terry, of North Bend.

For traveling the bride wore a gabardine suit of brown with matching accessories and a gardenia corsage.

Both the bride and bridegroom have spent most of their life in Roseburg, where they have many friends. Both attended Roseburg Senior High School. The bridegroom has been employed the last years by Consolidated Freightways. He served three years with the U. S. Forces in the Asiatic and European Theatre of Operations and upon his honorable discharge from service, returned to his work with the Consolidated Freightways.

Payments being made were as follows: retired wage earners, 1,525; wives of retired wage earners, 349; children, 670; widows with young children in their care, 193; aged widows, 94; parents, 9. Lump sum death payments (made when there is no person entitled to monthly payments) went to 62 persons during the second quarter of 1946.

Rev. Niemoeller Plans Lecture Tour of U. S.

FRANKFURT, July 12.—(AP)—The Rev. Martin Niemoeller, famed German clergyman who was imprisoned in a Nazi concentration camp for eight years, expects to make a lecture tour of the larger cities in the United States next winter in an attempt to explain the tired, apathetic state of mind of the German people.

The outspoken Protestant leader, who expressed the view that America was "too rapid" in her encouragement of the growth of free political parties in Germany, said he had accepted an invitation to make a tour of the U. S. under the auspices of the World Council of Churches.
