

New Coal Pay Boost Tightens Lewis' Hold

courts should hold the government acted improperly.

However, the coal industry views as inevitable that Lewis will insist on the operators accepting, once they resume ownership, all the terms and conditions which existed during government seizure.

Only One Firm Affected

The agreement announced last night applies only to the 136 supervisors at four mines of the

Jones and Laughlin Steel Corporation in western Pennsylvania, the Vesta No. 4, 5 and 6 and the Shannopin mine at California, Pa.

The National Labor Relations Board ruled several months ago that the United Clerical, Technical and Supervisory Employees Union of UMW's district 50 was the proper bargaining agent for these employees. J. & L. resisted the decision and moved to contest it in the courts.

J. & L. supervisors covered in the pact were granted a $1.85 daily pay boost plus a $25 increase in vacation pay. Krug and Morell signed two other agreements covering clerical and technical employees of J. & L. and the Industrial Collieries Corp., Johnstown, Pa., a subsidiary of Bethlehem Steel. These workers were given the same 18-cent hourly increase granted Lewis' coal miners under an earlier government-union agreement.

of veterans on the state apprenticeship council; reorganization of surplus war property sale proceeds; delay in disposal of the Klamath Falls Marine barracks by the WAA; increase of beds at the Astoria Naval hospital to 500; a northwest national cemetery; higher priority for veterans on building materials.

The convention also approved a resolution asking that the selective service system be retained.

Mrs. Micelli Wins Post

The Legion Auxiliary convention delegates yesterday elected Mrs. Leon M. Brown, Salem, president of the State Auxiliary for the next year.

The former vice-president was unopposed for the leadership of the Legion women. She succeeds Mrs. Earl J. Templar Brookings. Mrs. Craig Coyner, Bend, was elected vice-president and Mrs. McKinley Kane, Dundee, treasurer in the only two contested offices. Others reelected: Mrs. Mae S. Whitcomb, Portland, secretary;

Mrs. Sadie Graham, Corvallis, finance officer.

District presidents also were elected for the two new districts formed from District 4. They are Mrs. Emily Kellert, Kerby, District 4; Mrs. Christina Micelli, Roseburg, District 10.

The auxiliary approved appropriation of $1,200 for expenses of a "school of instruction for unit presidents and secretaries to be held in Portland in September.

Mrs. Hubert A. Goode, Portland, was endorsed for national president in 1948.

fied" with Garsson's statement that he is unable to leave Havana because of ill health, and will consult with its chief counsel, George Meader, as to the legal possibilities in connection with both Garsson and May.

Women Aides Testify

Testimony concerning May's inquiry about $3,000 was offered yesterday by Mrs. Eleanor Hall, one of two ex-secretaries of the combine's Washington office who sprinkled the committee's record with references to members of Congress and high-ranking Army officers.

The other, Mrs. Jean Bates, confined her testimony chiefly to naming persons who had figured in telephone conversations with her bosses. Garsson and Joseph Freeman, the Washington representative of the munitions firms.

Mrs. Hall had a lengthier story to tell, and she began it by characterizing her former employer as "a bunch of crooks."

She said today she had been given police protection after receiving "mysterious telephone calls" last night.

She told reporters she had not requested police protection but understood that Committee Chairman Mead "didn't want me to be molested."

A detective came to her suburban home, she added, and told her the house "would be watched and I would be perfectly safe."

Conferees Not Yet In Accord on OPA Bill

ference committee met for the third day.

While no one would say what ultimately will come from the committee, members said the idea shaped up like this:

1. That the Senate yield to President Truman's insistence on removal of bans for further price ceilings on meat, butter, eggs and other food items. The House conferees are supporting the President's position on this point.

2. That the conferees then follow the proposal of Senator Taft and strike from the bill a provision that would give OPA discretionary power in applying a new pricing formula that would mean price increases for many manufactured and agricultural items.

Senator Millikin (R-Colo.) said, however, the conferees are in "a state of undefined disagreement," although he reported evidence of a determination to produce an OPA bill that Mr. Truman will sign.

The President has been re-elected on Capitol Hill as willing to sign the Senate bill—overlooking some other objections—if it restores price control on market basket items.
