Mrs. Violet Gunerian and Calvin C. Stroup.

Mrs. Violet Gunerian and Calvin C. Stroup were united in marriage July 3 at the Methodist Church in Roseburg with Dr. Charles A. Edwards performing the impressive ceremony at four o'clock in the afternoon. Miss Pearl Hawkins and Miss Dorothy Johnson were attendants.

The bride was attractive in an aqua-colored dress and her corsage was of red roses. Following a honeymoon trip to Tacoma, the couple will return to Roseburg to make their home.

Members of the Kiwanis Club and their families enjoyed a delightful dinner at the Roseburg Country Club Tuesday evening. Mr. Simmons served the dinner buffet style. Dr. W. F. Amiot, A. G. Henninger, J. R. Wharton and Attorney Spencer Yates had charge of the affair.

There were 95 in attendance. J. R. Wharton had charge of the horseshoe contest with W. M. Campbell and A. A. Wilder tying for the prize. The men's putting contest was won by C. N. Howard with Fred Lockwood winning the second prize. The ladies' ping pong contest was won by Miss Meta-Marie Amiot with Mrs. John Killip winning the second prize.

A community sing was held and the remainder of the evening was spent in playing cards.

NEW OFFICERS OF LADY LIONS INSTALLED AT DINNER-DANCE MONDAY

New officers of the Lady Lions were installed at a beautiful ceremony following a delightful eight o'clock formal dinner Monday evening at the Roseburg Country Club. Dancing followed the ceremony.

Mrs. Joe Spousta and Mrs. Phil Harth acted as co-hostesses of the affair and Mrs. J. P. Moteschenbacher installed the following new officers: President, Mrs. L. M. Leebach; vice-president, Mrs. James Bewley; secretary, Mrs. Buckley Bell; treasurer, Mrs. Carl Felker, and lion trainer,

ANITA DONOVAN AND ALVIN W. BEARDSLEY MARRY IN SALEM

Before an altar flanked with white lilies, dahlias and tall candelabra, Miss Anita Donovan, daughter of Mrs. Fern Donovan of Roseburg, became the bride, June 28, of Alvin W. Beardsley, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Beardsley, Salem, at the home of the bridegroom's parents with Rev. George H. Swift of St. Paul's Episcopal Church, officiating.

The bride, wearing an aqua blue suit with white accessories and corsage of gardenias and roses, and carrying a white Bible, was given in marriage by her brother, John Patrick Donovan. Miss Norma Donovan, sister of the bride, was her only attendant. She wore a pastel rose suit with white accessories, and her corsage was of pale pink roses.

George Wood was best man, and ushers were Frank Wood and Earl Blankenship.

Lighting the tapers were the Misses Charlotte and Helen Wood, nieces of the bridegroom. They wore dresses of pink and blue with headbands of sweet peas and carnations. Mrs. Earl Blankenship played the wedding music.

For her daughter's nuptials Mrs. Donovan wore a white suit with white accessories and corsage of gardenia and carnations. Mrs. Beardsley wore a dress of powder blue, with white accessories, and her corsage was of gardenias and carnations.

At the reception Miss Eleanor Calavan cut the bride's cake, and Mrs. George Wood presided at the coffee urn. Serving the leas was Miss Jean Verdieck, and at the punch bowl was Mrs. Frank Wood. Mrs. Roy Beardsley supervised the serving, with the Misses Charlotte and Helen Wood passing the bridegroom's cake and dream cakes. Miss Norma Donovan passed the guest book, and Mrs. Clara Blankenship was in charge of the gift table.

In the late evening, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Kirk, with whom Mr. Beardsley is employed, were hosts at Normandy Manor with a wedding supper for the bridal party and guests.

Among events held recently in honor of the bride was a miscellaneous shower given by Mrs. Frank Wood, at the home of Mrs. W. W. Beardsley, mother of the bridegroom.

Those attending were Miss Donovan, Eleanor Calavan, Dorothy Smith, Jean Verdieck, Mrs. Helen Nelson, Mrs. Ray McCormick, Mrs. George Wood, Charlotte and Helen Wood, Mrs. Roy Beardsley, Mrs. Clara Blankenship, Mrs. Earl Blankenship, Mrs. Norton Wood, Mrs. W. W. Beardsley, Jane and Joan Wood and Mrs. Frank Wood.

EDEN LADIES AID HAS ENJOYABLE MEETING TUESDAY

The regular monthly meeting of the Eden Ladies Aid of the Clearrose Lutheran Church was held Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. S. S. Heard with Mrs. Charles Olson as joint hostess. Rev. Enoch Sandeen of Coos Bay, was present and based his scripture lesson on the sixth chapter of St. Luke.

Plans were made for a white elephant sale to be held at the church basement. Mrs. Walter Samuelson and Mrs. John Enlund of Roseburg were welcomed into the aid as new members.

During the social hour, a delicious luncheon was served at a table covered with a beautiful lace cloth and centered with a bouquet of gladioli. Covers were placed for the following members and friends: Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Johnson, Mrs. C. E. Fredericks, Mrs. J. E. Nordling, Mrs. John Enlund, Mrs. Walter Samuelson and children, Mrs. Arnold Benson, Mrs. Carl J. Johnson and Alice Dahl, of Roseburg; Rev. Enoch Sandeen and son, Ebbie,

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Russell.

Marjorie Curtis, daughter of Mrs. R. L. Daniel, Roseburg, and Robert L. Russell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles G. Russell, also of Roseburg, were united in marriage June 14 at eight o'clock in the evening at the home of the bridegroom's parents, Dr. Charles A. Edwards performed the impressive double ring ceremony in the presence of the immediate families of the couple.

Mrs. George Hinsdale, sister of the bridegroom, was matron of honor, and Bill Russell was best man for his brother. The improvised altar was banked with Easter lilies, ferns and blue and white canterbury bells, flanked by tall tapers.

The bride was lovely in an aqua-colored suit with white accessories and a corsage of gardenias and Cecil Brunner roses.

Following a short honeymoon to coast points, the couple will make their home in Roseburg, where both are employed.

RIVERSDALE HAPPY HOUR CLUB HAS ENJOYABLE MEETING ON WEDNESDAY

The Riversdale Happy Hour Club met Wednesday afternoon for an enjoyable dessert-luncheon at the home of Mrs. H. B. Kruse with Mrs. Lewis Cottrell as co-hostess. During the business session, Mrs. A. C. Austin was welcomed into the club.

Guests present were Mrs. Morris Burkhardt, Mrs. Wesley Hodges, of Clatsop, Calif., who is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Bailey, and Mrs. H. E. Leedy of Portland, mother of Mrs. Donald Guiley. Members answering roll-call included: Mrs. Walter Bailey, Mrs. Lewis Cottrell, Mrs. Dale Guiley, Mrs. Donald Guiley, Mrs. R. L.
