Marry at Candlelight Ceremony

Mr. and Mrs. James C. Fellows.

Miss Martorie Lou Leinbaum, beautiful daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Leinbaum of Roseburg, became the bride of James Charles Fellows, son of Mrs. Sam L. Chestnut of Camerilla, California, at an impressive candlelight ceremony at eight o'clock Thursday evening, July 11, at the Osborne home at 219 Watson street, Roseburg. Rev. J. R. Patterson of Sutherlin, performed the nuptials in the presence of sixty guests.

Preceding the ceremony, Mrs. Homer W. Grow played softly on the piano and accompanied Irl Stewart, who played a trombone solo, "I Love You Truly," and Miss Beverly Osborne and Billie Updegrave lighted the candles, after which they took their places at the foot of the stairs to light the way of the bridal procession to the improvised altar, which was beautifully decorated with gladiol and Shasta daisies. The Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin was played by Mrs. Grow. At the close of the prayer, Harold Thomas sang, "To My Bride."

The bride was given in marriage by her father and was very beautiful in a floor-length wedding gown of white satin, fashioned on princess lines. Her fingertip wedding veil was edged in lace and held in place with a Juliet cap. She carried a shower bouquet of roses, gladiol and stephanotis with streamers of white satin ribbon.

Miss Marilyn Leinbaum, gowned in powder blue nylon voile and carrying pastel-colored flowers, was maid of honor for her sister and Betty Greenly, in a pastel pink gown, and Maymie Osborn, in pastel green formal, were bridesmaids. Little Phyllis Gregg was flower girl and Allen Johnson of Granger, Wash., was best man. Dean Babcock and Bill Greenly were ushers.

A reception followed, at which time the beautiful four-tiered wedding cake (which was baked by the bridegroom, who served as a baker in the U. S. forces during the war) was cut and served with delicious punch. The cake was elaborately decorated and topped by a miniature bride and bridegroom.

After the reception Mr. and Mrs. Fellows left for Los Angeles and other points south on their honeymoon, after which they will return to Roseburg to reside until September 15, when they will move to Gaston, Oregon, to resume their education. For traveling the bride chose a suit of light blue with black accessories.

Out of town guests attending the wedding were: Mrs. A. R. Smith, Longview, Wash., sister of the bridegroom; Mr. and Mrs. N. R. Gottfredson, uncle and aunt of the bride, and Miss Jean Middleton of Loma Linda, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. Lafayette Wood of Sutherlin; Miss Gracia Freund, Eugene; Miss Wilma Walker, Bend; Harold Thomas, Salem; Cecil Roy, Lebanon; Allen Johnson, Granger, Wash.; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Matthews, Mr. and Mrs. William Updegrave, Billie Updegrave, Mr. and Mrs. William Dietrich and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gregg, all of Glendale.

Following a honeymoon to Canada, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas will return to Myrtle Creek to make their home.

PHYLIS MAY HAYES BECOMES BRIDE OF CHARLES H. THOMAS

Mr. and Mrs. Myles Jones of Myrtle Creek announce the marriage of their daughter, Miss Phyllis May Hayes, to Charles H. Thomas, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Thomas, also of Myrtle Creek.

The candlelight ceremony was performed July 11th at eight-thirty o'clock in the evening at the home of the bride's parents with only relatives and close friends in attendance.

The bride, given in marriage by her step-father, was charming in a pin-stripe suit. She carried a white Bible topped with a single orchid with a shower of white satin ribbon knotted with freesias.

Miss Dorothy Hayes, sister of the bride, was maid of honor and Marion Britton, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, was best man.

Large baskets of pink and white gladiol and candelabra of tall white tapers, which were lighted by Miss Helen Hillbold formed the decorations. Miss Betty Jean Ady played the wedding music and Miss Bonnie Jones sang, "Always."

A reception followed with Mrs. Frances Koonitz in charge of the bride's table. The beautifully decorated three-tiered wedding cake was cut by the bride and bridegroom and was served by Mrs. Koonitz. Miss Arlene Mickelson served the punch and Miss Mary Osborn served the ice cream.

Following a honeymoon to Canada, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas will return to Myrtle Creek to make their home.
