DAILY DEVOTIONS DR. CHARLES A. EDWARDS

In the battle for righteousness and faith, there is never any end to the fight. The enemy is always lurking near and ready to leap upon us if for even a moment we are caught off guard. We dare not forget that it is imperative to keep always on the alert. Frequently, before we are aware of his nearness, the enemy springs upon us and strikes a paralyzing blow. It helps greatly if we know our weapons. Each one of us is equipped with excellent weapons, if we keep ourselves skilled in their use—"the shield of faith, the helmet of salvation, the sword of the spirit." It remains true in every instance that "they that are with us are more than they that are with them." There is a source of strength that helps tremendously to win a victory, if we know the availability of our reserves. Always the reserves of God are at hand. In the midst of our darkest night of need, "standeth God within the shadow, keeping watch above His own." "Fear not I am with thee; O be not dismayed, For I am thy God, and will still give thee aid. I'll strengthen thee, help thee and cause thee to stand upheld by my righteous omnipotent hand."—Amen.

Happy Papa

HILLSBORO, Wis., July 30.—(AP)—Bob Jacobson celebrated the arrival of an eight-pound daughter by going on a hitting binge in a baseball game. Jacobson slammed three home runs, driving in 10 runs, as Hillsboro routed Woneoc, 27-7 in a Juneau County league contest.
