DAILY DEVOTIONAL DR. CHARLES A. EDWARDS

I have a radiant and joyous faith in the world mission. We are privileged to share with Christ. That is sowing seeds of kindness, establishing foundations of peace, building shining towers of truth, releasing the healing powers of a mighty redemption in his hate-ridden world. A student working his way through college came to the end of his resources and decided he would have to leave. But the president encouraged him to stay a little longer, hoping some way might be found for him to remain. Later, the boy came to the president's office with face aglow. "I can make it," he shouted. "Dad sold the mule." At the graduation time the father said, "I thought of the mule and said to myself, 'Here's a chance for this old mule to get a college education.' How much of the ordinariness of your life are you translating into the splendor of our Christian world tasks? Give yourself to it and the common-ness of your days will be transformed into a radiant road. The glory of the commonplace may be yours. Nothing is too bad to be incurable, nothing too good to be hoped for, nothing too high to be attempted. Let us believe that, 'all things are yours, for ye are Christ's and Christ is God's.' Give the best you have to the world, and the best will come back to you." —Amen.

Yip-eel

ST. AUGUSTINE, Fla.—This city, which claims the honor of being the country's oldest, has hired a part-time cowboy. His job will be to round-up stampeding cattle which, the police say have been storming out of nearby woods and causing damage.

The cowboy, Pete Braddock, has been equipped with horse, whip and lariat and told to herd into city pound every stray cow he can lay a rope on.

Fish generally are near-sighted and have poor vision.
