Marry at Eureka, California

Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Hickerson.

Doris May McCann and Robert Lowell Hickerson pledged marriage vows in a seven o'clock ceremony Saturday evening, June 22, at the Calvary Lutheran Church at Eureka, Calif. Andrew McCann gave his daughter in marriage and Rev. Johannes Hofield read the nuptial rites. Frances Royal sang, "Because," and the wedding music was played by Mrs. Hildegarde Hadley.

Watsonias, calla lilies and greenery were arranged in the church with white bouquets decking the aisle pews, and tapers, greenery and lilies decorating the altar and windows.

The bride was very beautiful in a white taffeta wedding gown fashioned with a net overskirt. Her wedding veil was held in place with a Juliet cap. She wore a single strand of pearls and carried a shower bouquet of white sweetpeas centered with a lavender orchid. Her only attendant was her sister, Beryl McCann, who was charming in a blue chiffon gown and carried a bouquet of sweetpeas. Marvin Saxton of

MISS META-MARIE AMIOT HONORED AT CHARMING RECEPTION TUESDAY NIGHT

Dr. and Mrs. W. F. Amiot entertained at a very charming pre-nuptial reception honoring their only daughter, Miss Meta-Marie, Tuesday evening at the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. Noble Goettle in Laurelwood. The Goettles are close friends of the Amiot family.

Salmon-colored gladioli graced the lace-covered dining table, while huge bouquets of hydrangeas in gorgeous shades of pink, lavender, deep rose and blue, fuchsias and Cecil Brunner roses and rosemary were arranged about the spacious rooms of the home. The garden was lighted and attractive outdoor furniture was arranged for the enjoyment of the guests.

The serving table was arranged on the side-terrace of the home and was centered with a crystal bowl holding white gladioli, flanked by large crystal pheasants and candelabra with tall white tapers.

The guests were received by the hosts, guest of honor and Mr. and Mrs. Goettle and the latter's mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Wardlaw. Miss Amiot was lovely in a floor-length gown of turquoise blue chiffon and an orchid corsage. Mrs. Amiot wore a black crepe dinner gown with a bolero jacket trimmed in gold sequins. Her corsage was of gardenias. Mrs. Goettle wore a turquoise blue formal with a gardenia corsage and Mrs. Wardlaw wore a rose-colored gown with a gardenia corsage. Those assisting also wore attractive formal. Mrs. Paul Jenkins and Mrs. Robert Bissell assisted about the rooms and Miss Cecelia Witzig, Miss Joanne Hume, Mrs. Eugene Powell, Miss Annaloris Ward and Miss Marrietta Taylor assisted in serving.

Miss Amiot will become the bride of James Stephens Lorigan of San Francisco, August 10. Dr. and Mrs. Amiot and daughter, Miss Meta-Marie, and Miss Cecelia Witzig, who will be maid of honor, will leave Roseburg August 6, for the bay area, where the wedding will take place. While there, they will stay at the Claremont in Berkeley.

Guests invited to enjoy the affair with Dr. and Mrs. Amiot and Miss Meta-Marie, besides Mr. and Mrs. Goettle and Mrs. Wardlaw, included Mr. and Mrs. K. D.
