Miss Margaret V. Forslund, beautiful daughter of Mrs. C. N. Forslund of Roseburg, became the bride of Raymond C. Kiefer, Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock, June 30, 1946, at the First Baptist Church, Roseburg. Rev. H. P. Seance performed the impressive double ring ceremony in the presence of relatives and friends of the couple. The altar was decorated with greenery and baskets filled with summer flowers.

Miss Katherine Irving played the wedding music and accompanied Miss Mary Alice Wolford who sang "Because." The tall white tapers were lighted by Miss Patricia Holmquist and Miss Betty Strickland. Elwood Nelson and Floyd Felt were the ushers.

The bride, given in marriage by her uncle, Richard Nelson, of Portland, was lovely in a floor-length gown of net over white satin. Her fingertip veil was held in place by a coronet of braided net covered with seed pearls. She carried a white Bible topped with a gardenia and rosebuds and tied with a shower of white streamers. The bride's cousin, Dorothy Hood, matron of honor, wore a peach net formal and carried a nosegay of pink roses and tiny white daisies. James Ballah was the best man.

Dr. and Mrs. Fred Field, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Chiller, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Callison, Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Howard and Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell Moore. Beautiful arrangements of zinnias were used about the rooms.

The table was covered with a hand-crocheted table cloth and centered by tall white candles and a three-tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom, and circled at the base by white lilies and fern.

For traveling the bride chose a gold-colored suit with brown accessories and a gardenia corsage. Following a honeymoon at the coast the couple will make their home on Military street.

Swear-In Ceremony for Navy Reservists Slated

Men signing up for the Navy's V-6 inactive reserve, are to be sworn-in at ceremonies to be held in Roseburg at some future date, when an officer will come from Portland to receive all men who have enlisted up to that time, announces Leonard Reinholdt, chief turret captain, in charge of the Eugene Navy recruiting station. Reinholdt explained that heretofore each man has had to go to Portland to be sworn in, and the new arrangement is for greater convenience.

He stated also that any man who has had previous service in the regular Navy or the Naval Reserve may enlist in the inactive reserve in the rank they held at discharge, regardless of time they have been out of the service.

Any man who has had previous service in the Army, Marines, or Coast Guard may enlist in the reserve with the rating of seaman first class.

Reinholdt said that enlistment
