MADALENE L. ADAMS BECOMES BRIDE OF JOSEPH ROY ANLAUF

The wedding of Miss Madalene Lorraine Adams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Adams of Myrtle Creek, and Joseph Roy Anlauf, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Anlauf, also of Myrtle Creek, was an event of Sunday, August 4, with Dr. Charles A. Edwards of Roseburg performing the morning nuptial service at the home of the bride's parents.

Gladioli, hydrangeas and greenery decorated the rooms and the improvised altar. The candles on the altar were lighted preceding the ceremony and the wedding music was played by Mrs. Thomas Ireland.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a pearl grey dressmaker suit. She carried a white Bible topped by a large orchid tied with a shower of white satin ribbons. Mrs. Frank Long of Roseburg was matron of honor for her sister and was charming in a chartreuse-colored dress-maker suit, with a corsage of pink rosebuds. Norman Anlauf acted as best man for his brother.

The bride's mother wore a black silk suit with a white net blouse and the bridegroom's mother wore a navy blue suit with white accessories. Both mothers wore gardenia corsages.

A wedding breakfast and reception followed and was attended by the immediate families and a few close friends of the couple.

The couple left for a wedding trip to Yellowstone National Park, after which they will make their home at Route 1, Box 55, Roseburg.

Both the bride and bridegroom are members of pioneer families of Douglas County. Both received their education in the Myrtle Creek Schools, after which Mrs. Anlauf attended Oregon State College at Corvallis and the bridegroom attended Modesto Junior College. Since his discharge from the Army, he has resumed his position with the Standard Oil Company and at present is manager of the Standard Station at Oak and Stephens Streets in Roseburg. Prior to entering the service, he was a station manager for the company in Medford.

EUGENE E. MORGAN AND KATE F. PREY MARRY IN COQUILLE, JULY 30

Of interest to their many Roseburg friends is the wedding on July 30 of Eugene E. Morgan and Kate Frances Prey, both of Coos Bay, at the Christian Church in Coquille with Rev. Mr. Floyd Baughman performing the ceremony. Mrs. Ida Linder and Mrs. Grace Wilbur were attendants.

Following the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Morgan came to Roseburg for a delightful wedding dinner given by the former's two daughters, Mrs. Ray Lea and Mrs. Floyd Baughman, at the latter's lovely home in Westmoreland.

The beautiful wedding cake was cut by the bride and groom and those present were Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Baughman and children, Mary Lee, Bonnie and Dolores; Mr. and Mrs. Ray Lea and children, Buster, Jerry and Norma Ann; Robert Morgan and Mary J. Morgan. Visiting was enjoyed during the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Morgan enjoyed a trip to Crater Lake Wednesday and spent the remainder of the week visiting relatives and friends in Roseburg. They left for Corvallis to visit Mr. Morgan's son, Del Mar, and from there will go north as far as Victoria B. C., visiting all points of interest on the way. They will return via the coast route and will be at home to their friends at Eastside, Ore., after the middle of August.

Mr. Morgan made his home in Roseburg for 25 years before moving to the coast 10 years ago. Mrs. Morgan has been postmistress at Eastside for 20 years. She is a sister of George Rooke of Roseburg.

MRS. D. W. KEASEY, JR. HONORED AT PINK AND BLUE SHOWER PARTY
Mrs. Richard Reynolds invited a group of friends to her home at 525 S. Stephens Street Friday evening to compliment Mrs. D. W. Keasey, Jr., at a charming pink and blue shower party.
