Mr. and Mrs. James K. Watson

In the presence of seventy guests, Miss Florence Harns, lovely daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. R. Harns, of Oakland, became the bride of James Kenneth Watson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Watson, of Oakland, at two o'clock Sunday afternoon, August 4th, at the Sutherland Christian Church. Reverend Newell Morgan performed the impressive double ring ceremony.

An all-white color scheme of gladioli and asters was used in the attractive altar decorations and the aisles were marked with satin ribbon looped to pews. Miss Virginia McHugh, in white net, lighted the tall white tapers at the altar. The wedding march from Lohengrin was played by Mrs. R. D. Bridges as the bride and groom entered. The bridesmaids, Miss Bette Thomas and Miss Patricia Powell, dressed in white and carrying nosegays of pastel flowers; the matron of honor, Mrs. Warren Baird, sister of the bride, wore white crepe and carried a pastel nosegay. The ring bearers, little Sylvia Sween and Jimmy Powell, carried satin cushions made by the groom's great grandmother and were used by his parents at their wedding. The bride given in marriage by her father, was very beautiful in an ivory satin floor length wedding gown, which had been worn by the groom's mother thirty years ago. It was made princess style, caught at the shoulder with tiny satin rosebuds, also made by the great grandmother. The lace-edged finger-tip veil was held in place by pearlized orange blossoms. She carried a single orchid on which rested a single orchid and wore as her only jewelry a double strand of pearls, a gift of the groom. Warren Baird acted as best man, and ushers were Ward Todd and Neil Talcott. The mother of the bride wore a smoke gray afternoon dress with black accessories, the groom's mother wore a jersey print with white accessories.

A reception followed at the beautiful Valley View home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Cook. The lace covered table was beautiful with a large centerpiece of white gladioli and pale pink carnations flanked with tall tapers from which a sunburst of white satin ribbon extended. It was arranged by Mrs. Harry Stearns of Oakland, Ore. Pink and white gladioli were also used about the rooms. A three-tiered layer cake topped with a miniature bride and groom was cut by the bride couple and served by Mrs. Henry Cook. Mrs. Fred Vedder of Riddle, aunt of the groom, poured, and Mrs. Harry Stearns of Oakland served the ices. Miss Patricia Powell had charge of the guest book and Mrs. Harry Chenoweth was in charge of the gift table. Following the reception the couple left for an extended wedding trip north. For traveling, the bride chose a dress-maker suit of cream wool jersey with blue accessories.
