Mr. and Mrs. James Stephen Lorigan and Father William Flanagan.

Miss Meta-Marie Amiot, only daughter of Dr. and Mrs. W. F. Amiot of Roseburg, became the bride of James Stephen Lorigan, son of Thomas Lorigan of San Francisco August 10 at St. Basil's Church in Vallejo, Calif. Father William Flanagan, childhood friend of the bridegroom, performed the low nuptial mass at nine-thirty o'clock in the morning in the presence of twenty-five relatives and close friends.

The church, which is mission style, was decorated with two large bouquets of white gladioli in huge brass containers and flanked by fan-shaped bouquets of pink amaranth and fern.

The wedding music was played by the church organist, who played "Ave Maria" softly throughout the service.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was beautiful in a sand-colored suit with aqua accessories. She wore a feather tulle and veil and her shoes and purse were British tan reptile. She carried a white prayer book topped by a double white orchid.

Miss Cecelia Watz of Roseburg was maid of honor and wore a cobalt blue suit with black accessories and a lavender orchid. Stanley Donahue of San Francisco was best man.

The bride's mother wore a gray flowered crepe ensemble with smoke-white accessories and a white and lavender-colored orchid. Mrs. Donahue, with whom the bridegroom made his home, wore a flowered crepe dress with black accessories and a deep purple corsage.

A reception for fifteen followed at the Claremont Hotel in Berkeley, where a wedding luncheon was served on the sunporch. The table was centered with a beautiful two-tiered wedding cake flanked by fan-shaped white vases of white gladioli, white buton dahlias and fern. The cake was cut by the bride and bridegroom.

Following a honeymoon to Laurel Dell lodge in the California Redwoods, Mr. and Mrs. Lorigan will be at home to their friends at 1479 University avenue, Berkeley, Calif.

The bride was graduated from U. C. L. A., where she became a member of the history honorary and is a member of Phi Mu sorority. Since moving to Roseburg with her parents, she has been employed as a member of the staff of the Douglas County Welfare Commission. She served as president of the Junior Woman's Club the past year. The bridegroom was graduated from St. Mary's College of California and served as sports editor of the college newspaper and was prominent in dramatic activities of the college. During the war, he served with the U. S. Marine Forces in the South Pacific and while stationed at Honolulu, had charge of a radio broadcasting program. He is now employed by the Farmers Group Insurance Company with headquarters in Oakland.

The Thursday evening prior to the wedding, the bride-elect entertained her wedding party at a dinner-dance at the Claremont Hotel.

gram and Robert Dodds of West Englewood and Herman Hoeschle of Maywood.

The bride wore a gown of white lace fashioned with a bertha of lace below a high tulle neckline, long sleeves and a bouffant skirt with a three-yard train. Her fingertip veil was caught in a halo coronet of lace trimmed with orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of white carnations, stephanotis and baby's breath. Her going away costume was a light green gabled suit with which she wore a pink flowered hat.

The maid of honor wore a gown of yellow lace having a bertha and neplum of lace and a marquisette bouffant skirt. She wore matching lace mitts and a coronet of pinocchio roses and carried a shower bouquet of roses. The bridesmaids were similarly gowned in Nile green with their hair coronets and shower bouquets matching the maid of honor's.

The bride's mother was gowned in light blue crepe and carried an orchid on her evening bag.

A reception for fifty guests at the Swiss Chalet in Rochelle Park followed the ceremony. The tables were decorated with red roses and smilax. Music for dancing was rendered by the Swiss Chalet orchestra.

Mrs. Klaenhammer was graduated from the Teaneck High School in 1942 and from Mount Holyoke College in Holyoke, Mass., with a B. A. degree on June 3, 1946. She will take post graduate work at Oregon State College at Corvallis this fall. The bridegroom served in the U. S. Marine Air Forces during the war and is at present a student at Oregon State College.

Following a wedding trip to New Hampshire and the New England states, the couple left for Oregon and are now visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl W. Klaenhammer, on South Pine street. The wedding will make their home in Corvallis.
