Umpqua Chiefs Face Two Tough, Weekend Games

Roseburg's Umpqua Chiefs will get no weekend holiday. Instead, they will appear in two tough ball games, being scheduled to meet the Grants Pass Merchants at Finlay field Sunday afternoon in the first game of the Shaughnessy play-off series. Monday's game will pit the Chiefs against the Guistina Reds, Eugene, one of the leading teams of the Cascade league.

Pennant winners in the Southern Oregon Baseball League, the Chiefs get the first game of the playoffs on their home field. If they succeed in beating the Grants Pass Merchants, third place winners, they also will play the second game of the series at home, meeting the winner of the contest between the second and fourth place teams.

Medford crowded Ashland out of fourth spot by an 8 to 3 victory at Medford last night. This leaves Roseburg, Crescent City, Grants Pass and Medford in the playoffs. Medford will play at Crescent City Sunday.

Completion of the regular schedule left Grants Pass, Medford and Ashland in a three-way tie for third place. Grants Pass won the toss for third, leaving Medford and Ashland to play off the tie to decide the fourth place winner and playoff entry.

Final standings for the season schedule were as follows:

	W	L	Pct.
Roseburg	12	2	.844
Crescent City	10	4	.769
Grants Pass	9	5	.615
Medford	9	5	.615
Ashland	9	5	.615
Tri City	4	10	.305
Gold Hill	2	12	.143
Central Point	1	13	.077

ducers of livestock. He indicated the gravity of the food supply problem dictated the move. The decree followed a ban on the exportation of prime foodstuffs while admitting various types of food free of duty.

Police fired several volleys and tear gas to subdue the rioting.

Police reported 200 registered Communists hadb een arrested. The authorities prohibited the use of Communist headquarters.

An extraordinary session of Congress was being considered.

Mantz Smashes Speed Mark in Air Race Victory

watched anxiously for most of her flight a dent in the left flap caused by dropping one of her auxiliary fuel tanks.

"I guess I'm going to quit racing," she laughingly told friends after climbing out of her P-51 with a big number 13 on the sides.

Mantz Forced to Stunt

Mantz, an old time navigator who flew with the late Amelia Earhart, reported his main trouble right at the start when he had trouble retracting his landing gear.

He finally solved the problem by going to 20,000 feet and shaking the mechanism with a tight loop, but he estimated the difficulty cost him 20 minutes. Nonetheless, he said his time was within ten seconds of his estimate.

First place brought Mantz $10,000 in cash and a trophy.

MUROC, Calif., Aug. 31.—(AP)—An unofficial speed mark over a measured course at Muroc Army air field—608 miles an hour—has been set by an Army P-84 Thunderjet fighter.

But because the Republic jet didn't surpass Great Britain's record of 606 MPH by more than 5 MPH, it will not be recognized.

The Army declined further information, including the pilot's name.

RAF group Capt. Hugh Wilson set the existing record Nov. 7, 1945, at Herne, England, in a Gloster Meteor jet fighter.

Blood Flows On Eve of Greek Vote

ATHENS, Aug. 31. —(AP)—British troops assigned to Greece were confined to their barracks tonight on the eve of the plebiscite generally expected to return King George II from his English exile.

Reports of sporadic fighting involving "Communist bands" brought to 28 the number of persons killed in two days. Attackers set afire the police station at Platycambo, Thessaly. One soldier, one policeman and a civilian were killed.

Troops rushed to the spot and clashed with the alleged Communists. A major and two soldiers were hit by bullets while five other soldiers were wounded when their truck was blown up by a land mine.

Near Kalamauta another band was reported to have killed four civilians.

Political meetings were banned throughout Greece today.

Royalists already were making preparations to welcome King George from his five-year exile. Their leaders predicted victory by a large majority. Their Communist opponents, on the other hand, have accused Britain and the United States of meddling in Greek affairs, and the Moscow press has charged that the plebiscite was fraudulently rigged.

King George fled Greece in 1941 after the German invasion.

Pravda of Moscow, in an article appearing on the eve of the Greek plebiscite, said today the Athens government had lost its independence and was being turned into a colony of Britain.

More Foods Will Be Freed of Controls

nounced livestock ceilings at midnight, packers' ceilings next Thursday, and butcher shop ceilings Sept. 9.

OPA Administrator Porter, who had hoped vainly that Secretary of Agriculture Anderson would permit him to roll prices back to June 30 levels, rigidly followed Anderson's higher recommendation in fixing the new ceilings last night.

He made it clear he had no choice — "the new price control law makes it mandatory that OPA carry out this recommendation," he said in a statement.

Rent Rules to Stand

At the end of a week jammed with OPA price increases and ceiling removals, Price Boss Porter came up with a word of cheer for the public today:

Rent ceilings will neither be increased nor removed.

"I think," the OPA administrator said gravely in his weekly broadcast, "the American people will be glad to have this announcement and this assurance."

He said OPA's research staff has decided landlords generally are better off than they were before the war.

The researchers reported there are fewer vacancies and that little was spent for repairing, redecorating or new equipment since the war began.

The OPA yesterday ordered an immediate increase of 4.8 per cent in manufacturers' ceiling prices on such children's metal wheeled goods as tricycles, wagons, scooters, toy airplanes, trucks and automobiles.

Child Killed at Play in Western Movie Style

FINDLAY, O., Aug. 31.—(AP)—A game of make-believe in which four children played parts from a Western movie they had seen ended tragically when Lawrence F. Switzer, 15, was killed by a bullet his sister Audrey Louise, 9, fired from a pump rifle, Dr. Dwight King, acting county coroner, reported.

The accident occurred Thursday in the barnyard at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carroll E. Switzer, the parents, near Forest, O.

Al Flegel Nominated For Mayor by Boosters

These petitions were then delivered to Geddes' house following a Boosters' Club meeting at the city hall last night.

City Treasurer T. J. Brown was the only candidate in addition to Flegel to file his petition yesterday.

City Attorney Ira B. Riddle also filed a ballot title for the amendment to the city charter which would allow the appointment of a city manager, if passed by a vote of the people.

Petitions for all the Boosters' Club candidates, except that of Lund, were received unofficially by Geddes, pending a check this morning of the wards in which the candidates reside. Although petitions had been circulated for Lund yesterday, he was not in town, and it was not known whether or not he would accept nomination.

None of the present incumbents of the city council were nominated yesterday, except Carstens and Sullivan.

If Flegel is elected, he would succeed Mayor Charles W. Wharton, who announced this week that he would not seek reelection.

'Good Job' Promised

Flegel promised the Roseburg Boosters' Club last night that he would "crawl before he ran," and would do his "very best to do a good job for Roseburg," if he wins the election in November.

"I talked to some individuals around town about the political situation and had intended to run for the council," he said. "But then a crisis occurred today, and I find myself running for mayor, which I'm afraid is too big a job for me.

"I bought a transfer business about a year ago, and in that I learned that it paid to crawl before I ran. I have an awful lot to learn about politics and city business, but I'll do my very best to do a good job for Roseburg."

Flegel also praised the men he would work with on the city council, and expressed his opinion that Roseburg will make "rapid strides" under a city manager system.

Speakers at last night's meeting included Harry B. Pinniger, manager of the Elks Club, who reminded the Boosters that they should not condemn "all old residents of Roseburg as a class," and that the club can be a "positive, progressive" movement. Charles V. Stanton, editor of the Roseburg News-Review, County Commissioner J. Ross Hutchinson and Dick Gilman also spoke.

Nazi Trial Verdicts Slated for Sept. 23

opened the string of last minute speeches by shouting his innocence over and over again in an impassioned 10-minute plea.

Gaunt, white-faced Rudolf Hess followed Goering. Unleashing a storm of abuse, Hitler's one-time deputy attacked the entire procedure.

"I predicted that witnesses would appear who under oath would make untrue statements and the court would receive affidavits of untrue statements: that the defendants would hear astonishing facts," he shouted.

The old courtroom, remodeled for the trials which started Nov. 20, 1945, was packed to the doors for the wind-up of the drawn-out case against the one-time Nazi leaders, charged with high crimes against humanity.

The once arrogant Goering kept his sharp, peering eyes averted from the four-power Allied court, as he read his last words of justification for his conduct.

Goering Stands Pat

In a high, strong voice the former reichsmarshal made an appeal "for the German people" regardless of what fate lay in store for himself.

He sought to ameliorate any guilt for himself, however, by declaring that the prosecution had failed to show by documentary proof where and how he could have known everything that happened under Hitler, even though he admittedly was the Number Two Nazi.

"I wish to state emphatically," said Goering, "never did I decree a murder of a single individual."

In a final outburst, Goering asserted he was nevertheless standing back of everything I have done."

"The only motive which guided me was my ardent love for my people. I call on the Almighty and the German people as my witness."

Von Ribbentrop Also Heard

Joachim von Ribbentrop, who followed Hess, defended his conduct as foreign minister with the declaration that Germany sought much the same things as the United States, Britain and Russia —"the only difference is that they think in terms of continents, we in terms of corridors.

"In 1939, I met Stalin in Moscow and he didn't seek a peaceful settlement," he said. "The conduct of the man in 1939 was not considered a crime against peace."

Hess became so rambling during the latter part of his remarks that Lord Justice Lawrence lost patience.

"I must remind the defendant Hess that he has talked for 20 minutes and he will be treated the same as the other defendants the court president declared, ignoring Hess' objections.

The gist of the other defendants' pleas included:

Field Marshal Wilhelm Keitel: "It is not my intention to minimize that which took place." He put the blame of Hitler as the real instigator of the orders . . . When an order was given by the fuehrer, he said, "I acted according to my duty as I saw it."

Ernest Kaltenbrunner: Claimed he learned of concentration camp crimes "only to the smallest extent." He contended he was kept in the dark about the anti-Jewish program, but commented, "the anti-Semitism of Hitler as we know it was barbarism."

Alfred Rosenberg: "Adolf Hitler drew more and more unto himself people who were not my comrades but my enemies. Ours was a struggle for a noble idea."

Hans Frank: Bitterly accused Hitler as "the main defendant" and berated his cowardice for committing suicide "when his people needed him." Declared that German lost the war "because God has spoken His judgment over Hitler."

Eleven of the 20 Nazi leaders heard in final pleas today expect to be hanged, defense attorneys said.

Three—Schacht, von Neurath and von Papen—expect clemancy.

Six—Doenitz, Raeder, Jodl, von Schirach, Fritzsche and Streicher —still "have hopes."
