Mr. and Mrs. Marcus L. Balfour.

In a beautiful church wedding solemnized at 3 o'clock Thursday, July 18, at the Church of Christ, Miss Juanita Jean Wimer daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Wimer of Ashland became the bride of Marcus L. Balfour, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Balfour of Ashland.

The double ring ceremony was used by Dr. George W. Bruce assisted by the Rev. Earl F. Downing, pastor of the church, in the presence of a large number of friends and relatives.

An attractive setting had been arranged at the altar, in candleabra with white candles at the back, and baskets of white and pastel shades of gladioli and bouquets of other summer flowers placed in front.

Mrs. Lucille MacKay in pink was soloist, accompanied by Mrs. Arthur Peters in pale green, who also played the traditional wedding marches for processional and recessional. Mrs. MacKay sang "Always" and "Because," preceding the service.

Entering on the arm of her father, the bride wore a white linen embroidered afternoon dress and carried a bouquet of red rosebuds. With this costume she wore a white hat, with veil and a red rose trim. Other accessories were white.

Her attendants were Shirley Balfour, sister of the groom, as bridesmaid, who wore a pale green dress with white accessories and carried pink gladioli.

The bride, a high school student, expects to continue her education and the bridegroom, an Ashland High School graduate, will attend the Southern Oregon College.

Married in Roseburg, August 18

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Buell.

The marriage of Miss Beulah Stephens, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Stephens of Oakland, Ore., to Raymond Buell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Buell of Lookingglass, was solemnized Sunday, August 18, at the First Christian Church in Roseburg.

Rev. Dale Sherwood performed the impressive double ring ceremony in a setting of white gladioli, pink carnations and candlelight.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a white dress with pink trimming.

She wore a white net hat and carried a white prayer book topped with pink orchids with a shower of white satin ribbons.

Miss Ada May Rice of Oakland was maid of honor and wore an aqua-colored dress with white accessories. Her corsage was of gardenias. Love Buell acted as best man to his brother and ushers were Allen Stephens and Tyrus Stephens, brothers of the bride.

marches. The candles were lighted by Allen Stephens.

The bride's mother wore a blue afternoon dress with white accessories and the bridegroom's mother wore a green afternoon dress with white accessories. Both wore carriage corsages.

A reception followed in the church parlors. Miss Maxine Buell had charge of the guest book. Mrs. Clyde Allen and Mrs. King Carille, aunts of the bride, assisted by the bride's grandmother served the beautiful three-tiered pink and white wedding cake topped by a miniature bride and groom. The cake was cut by the bride and bridegroom. A large number of gifts were on display and following the reception, the couple left on a honeymoon, after which they will go to Corvallis, where the bridegroom is employed in the Safeway store.

Out-of-town guests attending the wedding were: Mrs. C. W. Allen and children and Mrs. Julia Bowman of North Bend; Allen Stephens of Dunsmuir, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. Guy Buell of Montrose, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. Delmar Williams and son, Robert, of Los Angeles; Mr. and Mrs. Dale Williams of Council Bluffs, Iowa, and Mrs. Gertrude Martin of Kansas City, Mo.

The bride was graduated from Oakland High School and the bridegroom was graduated from Lookingglass High School. He entered military service in the fall of 1942 and received his honorable discharge in the fall of 1945.

COUNTRY CLUB LADIES GUEST-DAY AFFAIR TO BE HELD SEPT. 26

The annual fall guest-day affair of the ladies of the Roseburg Country Club has been announced for a one o'clock dessert-luncheon to be held Thursday, September 26, at the club house. Members are asked to make reservations for themselves and their invited guests by calling either the captain, Mrs. J. F. Dillard, at 546-J or the secretary, Mrs. W. F. Amiot, at 471-Y between five and seven P. M. Prizes for the afternoon's bridge play will be awarded both members and guests.

The handicap cup tournament play for this week resulted in Mrs. E. A. Pearson defeating Mrs. H. C. Stearns; Mrs. Walter Fisher defeating Mrs. Marshall Pengra; Mrs. R. D. Bridges defeating Mrs. James O. Hughes; and Mrs. Paul Syron defeating Mrs. Earl Plummer.

The weekly tournament play was a blind bogey with Mrs. Bridges, Mrs. Pearson and Mrs. Stearns tying in the first flight; Mrs. Bill Courter winning the second flight and Mrs. Earl Plummer winning the third flight.

Luncheon was served at noon by Mrs. Walter Brydges to Mrs. J. F. Dillard, Mrs. W. F. Amiot, Mrs. Frederick Chapman, Jr., Mrs. Margaret Krewson, Mrs. K. D. Adams, Mrs. J. K. Kres, Mrs. D. Bridges, Mrs. H. C. Stearns, Mrs. Susan Stearns, Mrs. Bill Courter, Mrs. Paul Syron, Mrs. James O. Hughes, Mrs. Maurice L. Hallmark and Mrs. E. A. Pearson.

High score for the contract bridge play was won by Mrs. Adams with Mrs. Collier winning the second high score. The ladies will continue the handicap and regular weekly golf tournaments next Thursday morning at eight-thirty o'clock. Luncheon will be served by Mrs. Brydges at twelve-thirty o'clock and the contract bridge play will open at one-thirty o'clock.

Celebrate 60th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Nolan.

YONCALLA—Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Nolan of Yoncalla celebrated their sixtieth wedding anniversary Sunday, Sept. 1. Mr. and Mrs. Nolan were married Sept. 1, 1886, in Boone county, Iowa.

George Biggs, a brother of Mrs. Nolan, was best man at the ceremony. He is now living and attended the reception Sunday. To this union five children were born. One son was killed in World War I. The other four are still alive. Mrs. Rachel Schultz of Grand Prairie, Alberta, Canada; Everett Nolan, British Columbia, Canada; Lester Nolan, Edmonton, Alberta, Canada, and Mrs. Florence Radabaugh, Yoncalla, Ore.

After spending 18 years in Iowa, Mr. and Mrs. Nolan took up a homestead in Alberta, Canada. During the first few years, they suffered many hardships. At first, they lived in a small hut with a family of Indians. However, Mr. Nolan being of progressive nature, soon cut down enough trees to build a suitable home for his family. Mr. and Mrs. Nolan spent 30 years on that homestead in Canada before coming to the United States. They located in Yoncalla in 1933 where they have since lived.

Sunday afternoon, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Radabaugh entertained at a reception for their parents in the Methodist Church. The Epworth Hall was beautifully decorated with large baskets of various colored gladioli. Tall white tapers graced the long dining table, with large bouquets of gladioli on either end and in the center. The table where the many beautiful gifts were placed, was covered with a lace cloth.

Mrs. Herman Thiel served the three-tiered cake beautifully decorated and topped with a miniature bride and groom. Mrs. Delton Thiel and Mrs. Powell served the ice cream. Mr. and Mrs. Nolan cut the first piece of cake. Guests present at the reception were Mrs. Rachel Schultz, the daughter from Grand Prairie, Alberta, Canada; Mrs. Florence Radabaugh and husband and two sons, Reese and Keith; Mr. and Mrs. Nolan, Mr. and Mrs. George Biggs, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hummel, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Richards and Mrs. Sam Walkinshaw, Mrs. Tom Hollamon, Mrs. Shields, Mrs. Jennie Lasswell, Mrs. Egan, Mrs. Marian Lasswell and daughter, Ann, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kirkle, Mrs. Tyndal, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Roberts, Rev. and Mrs. Fred Hunt, Mrs. Herman Thiel, Mrs. Delton Thiel, Mrs. Powell, Mr. and Mrs. Zean Shiert, Mrs. George Edes.

Mrs. C. S. Heinline, who is spending the week in Roseburg as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. P. T. Bubar, was complimented at a charming one-thirty o'clock dessert-luncheon Thursday when Mrs. Bubar and Mrs. A. J. Young were co-hostesses at the Bubar home on Chadwick street.

Pale pink button dahlias and pastel orchid asters graced the serving tables and were arranged about the rooms. Covers were placed for Mrs. Heinline, guest of honor, Mrs. A. N. Orcutt, Mrs. F. W. Chase, Mrs. J. E. Runyan, Mrs. M. E. Rice, Mrs. D. H. Morgan, Mrs. D. B. Bubar, Mrs. Douglas Waite, Mrs. J. E. McClintock, Mrs. Washington Hughes, Mrs. M. E. Ritter, Mrs. A. J. Geddes, Mrs. I. B. Riddle, Mrs. L. A. Wells, Mrs. J. H. Booth, Mrs. Walter Gordon, Mrs. J. S. Osborn and the hostesses, Mrs. Bubar and Mrs. Young. Visiting was enjoyed during the afternoon.

Mrs. Heinline made her home in Roseburg for 26 years, at which time she conducted a large music conservatory. For the last several years she has operated a conservatory in Cheyenne, Wyo.
