Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Matthews.

Miss Virginia Marie Mills, lovely daughter of Mrs. Russell Pratt, of Salem, formerly of Roseburg, became the bride of Maurice Matthews, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Matthews, of Roseburg, at an impressive home ceremony in Roseburg Sunday, September 8, at one-thirty o'clock, Rev. H. P. Sconce, pastor of the First Baptist Church, performed the nuptials in the presence of twenty-four relatives and close friends.

The improvised altar was arranged with large baskets of gladioli and white candelabra holding tall white cathedral candles.

Preceding the ceremony, Miss Sue Hahn sang, "Always," accompanied by her sister, Miss Betty Hahn. The latter played the Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin for the bridal party to enter the living room.

The bride was charming in a suit of oyster white with white accessories. She carried a prayer book topped by a large orchid tied with a shower of satin ribbons. She was given in marriage by her step-father, Russell Pratt. Mrs. Helen Weber was matron of honor and Marshall Matthews acted as best man to his brother. The bride's mother wore an ensemble of light blue and the bridegroom's mother wore a suit of medium blue. Both mothers wore gaudiana corsages.

A wedding dinner followed at Carl's Haven, where the beautifully decorated, three-tiered wedding cake was cut by the bride and bridegroom. Covers were placed for the bridal couple; Mr. and Mrs. Russell Pratt, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Matthews, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Reynolds, Mr. and Mrs. William Weber, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Wilder, Miss Betty and Miss Sue Hahn, Mrs. C. W. Clark, Marshall Matthews and the following out-of-town guests, Miss Louise Jurgens of Los Angeles; C. W. Braun of Bandon; Mr. and Mrs. George Hardie of Portland and Mrs. John Patterson of Oakland, Calif.

The bride was graduated from Roseburg Senior High School and attended University of Portland a year. The bridegroom was graduated from Days Creek High School and is now attending Oregon State College, where the couple will make their home.

MISS GEORGINE JOHNSON BECOMES BRIDE OF CARL E. STONE, AUG. 10

At a beautiful candlelight service Saturday, August 10, at eight o'clock, Miss Georgine Johnson, attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Johnson, 1006 North Jackson street, and granddaughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Skinner of Winston, became the bride of Carl E. Stone, 7 Stephens Place, Hanover, Pa., in St. Mary's, Reformed Church in Silver Run, Maryland. The impressive double ring ceremony was performed by Rev. J. Harold Little of Hanover.

The bride was charming in a grey gabardine suit with grey accessories and a pink hat. Her corsage was orchids. Miss Joan Stone, sister of the bridegroom, was maid of honor and was lovely in a pastel-colored suit. Richard H. Little of Hanover was best man and James Brenner and William Bowman were ushers.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George S. Stone, in Hanover. Miss Dorothy Garman presided at the punch bowl.

Following the reception, the couple left on a wedding trip through New Jersey, New York City and other points of interest in New York state. They then drove across country to make their home in Corvallis, where the bridegroom has enrolled at Oregon State College.

The bride was graduated from Roseburg Senior High School and attended Oregon State College, where she majored in home economics. She is a member of one of Douglas county's early pioneer families. The bridegroom was recently discharged from service with the U. S. Marine Corps.

Marry at Auburn, Washington

Mr. and Mrs. Elwood L. Mabley.

Elwood L. Mabley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Mabley of Sutherlin, and Virginia A. Miller, daughter of Mrs. Eunice Miller of Auburn, Wash., were married at a candlelight ceremony in the chapel of Auburn Academy at Auburn, Wash.

A white tulle with ivory, tall baskets of pink and white gladioli and candelabra holding white tapers formed the altar decorations. Miss Annette Peterson played the organ music preceding the ceremony and softly during the service. Lenora Krenzler played "I Love You Truly" as a marimba solo and little Donna Holm of Roseburg, niece of the bridegroom, lighted the candles. Gerald Ferguson of College Place, Wash., best man to the bridegroom, sang, "Because."

The bride was lovely in a gown of white slipper satin fashioned with a sweetheart neckline and short train. Her veil was fingertip in length. She carried a bouquet of white gladioli, pale blue delphinium, pink asters, sweet-peas, baby's breath and Cecil Bruner rosebuds tied with a shower of white satin streamers.

knotted with ivory. The bouquet was arranged by the bride's mother.

Laura Miller, sister of the bride, was maid of honor and Mrs. Gerald Ferguson and Mrs. Elmer Miller of College Place, Wash., were bridesmaids. The attendants wore gowns of pastel pink and blue shades and carried bouquets of gladioli. Donald Branson of Missoula, Mont., and Luther Crocker, of Auburn, Wash., brother-in-law of the bride, were ushers.

A reception followed in the dining hall of the academy. Pink and white asters and ivy formed the decorations.

For traveling the bride chose a white wool dress with atomic blue top coat and black accessories. Following a wedding trip to Seattle, they went to College Place to make their home while with white asters and ivy formed the decorations.

Guests from Roseburg included the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Mabley; Mrs. Arthur Burroway, aunt; Donna Holm, niece; Mrs. Edith Myers and Mrs. Carrie Kruse, grandmothers.

Mrs. E. A. Pearson.

Mrs. E. A. Pearson won the handicap cup tournament for 1946 in the final play Thursday at the club course by defeating Mrs. R. D. Bridges, who is runner-up for the cup. By winning the cup this year, Mrs. Pearson is allowed to keep it permanently as she won it in 1944 and 1945. Mrs. Pearson defeated Mrs. Roy Cummins in a match last Friday to make her eligible to play in the finals this week with Mrs. Bridges, who is the winner of the Championship Cup for the club this year. The handicap cup is the fifth trophy award to be won by Mrs. Pearson. She was winner this spring of the 1946 Stearns-Bridges trophy.

In the first flight of the handicap tournament, Mrs. Kenneth Quine is the winner with Mrs. Marshall Pengra, runner-up. In the nine-hole tournament Mrs. Bill Courter is the winner with Mrs. Clyde Knight, runner-up.

Visiting From East—Mrs. M. M. Buntin of Cambridge, Mass., is visiting Mrs. C. H. Dunnell at Idlewild.
