Mr. and Mrs. LaVerne D. Strand.

Miss Betty Jean Swift, attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard E. Swift of Roseburg, became the bride of LaVerne Dennis Strand, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Strand of Eugene, at two-thirty o'clock the afternoon of September 8 at the First Presbyterian Church in Roseburg with Dr. Morris H. Roach officiating, in the presence of seventy-five relatives and close friends. The impressive double ring ceremony was used.

An archway of ivy, flanked by tall baskets of pink and white gladioli and candelabra holding tall white cathedral candles, formed the attractive setting for the nuptials.

Preceding the ceremony, Miss Ruth Colet sang, "Because" and "Ah, Sweet Mystery of Life," accompanied by Mrs. Homer W. Grow, organist. Mrs. Grow played the Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin and at the close of the service, played Mendelssohn's Wedding Recessional. During the ceremony, Mrs. Grow played "I Love You Truly" softly on the organ.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was beautiful in a white wedding gown fashioned with a full net skirt over taffeta, full train; bodice of taffeta with sweetheart neckline and long fitted sleeves coming to a point at the wrist. Her finger-tip veil was held in place by a Juliet cap of net and seed pearls. Her only jewelry was a heart-shaped gold locket and chain, a gift of the bridegroom. She carried a shower bouquet of pink roses and stephanotis centered with a large pink orchid and tied with a shower of white satin ribbons.

Mrs. Lawrence Adams of Roseburg was matron of honor and was charming in a pastel-pink net gown fashioned with a full skirt, fitted bodice and long sleeves. She carried a nosegay of yellow and white gladioli tied with a shower of white satin ribbons.

ple. The bride's bouquet was caught by Miss Wilene Luellen. For traveling the bride chose a three-piece suit of brown with pink and brown accessories. Her corsage was an orchid. Following a honeymoon to San Francisco and coast points in Oregon and California, the couple will make their home in Eugene, where both will continue their studies at University of Oregon. Out-of-town guests attending the wedding were: Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Berg and children, Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Strand, Miss Alma Strand, Miss Bernice Strand, all of Eugene; Earl Strand of Bremerton, Wash.; Mrs. Tony Snell and son, David, and Mrs. Grant Coster and daughter, Barbara, of Seattle.

CASEY-PEARSON WIN LOW GROSS FOR TWO-BALL MIXED FOURSOME SUNDAY
Miss Helen Casey and Art Pearson won the low gross score for the two-ball foursome mixed golf tournament held by the Country Club members Sunday afternoon at the club course with Mrs. J. M. Judd and Dr. W. F. Amiot winning the low net score. A. B. Collier won the longest drive for men with his daughter, Miss Kathleen, winning for the ladies. Closest to the pin were Dr. Amiot for the men and Mrs. Kenneth Quine for the ladies.

A buffet supper followed at the clubhouse and was enjoyed by Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Dillard, Dr. and Mrs. W. F. Amiot, Ned Davis, Mrs. Elwood Wiles of Portland, Miss Helen Casey, Miss Naomi Scott, Art Pearson, Mr. and Mrs. L. K. Fies and son, Bobby, Dr. and Mrs. O. R. Mr. and Mrs. Edward L. Dwight.

In a setting of large baskets of fuchsia and white gladioli and candelabra holding white tapered Miss Betty Sanders, a school friend of the bride, lovely in a white marquisette formal trimmed with gold sequins and matching gold slippers and necklace and wearing a spray of tiny gold mums, sang "Because" and "I Love You Truly" accompanied by Miss Mary Apra, pianist.

As the "Bridal Chorus" from Lohengrin was played, the wedding party advanced to the altar. Miss Mildred Jacoby, maid of honor, was lovely in a gown of pink marquisette. Her corsage was of white carnations.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was very beautiful in a softly draped gown of powder blue jersey with an overskirt of blue marquisette. Her finger-tip wedding veil was caught at each side by blue velvet ribbon and stephanotis. She wore a locket with the Marine emblem, a gift of the bridegroom. The locket was on a blue ribbon around her throat. She carried a nosegay of fuchsia and white gladioli and stephanotis tied with a shower of white satin and white marquisette ribbons.

Leroy Nelson of Lookingglass was best man. The bride's mother wore a dress of navy blue sheer crepe trimmed in white with black accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

A reception followed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William E. Smith, cousins of the bride. After the bridal couple cut the three-tiered wedding cake, baked by the bride's mother, it was served by Mrs. C. P. Garrett, aunt of the bride, assisted by Mrs. F. L. Wilson. Mrs. William E. Smith presided at the punch bowl and Mrs. A. F. Garrett, aunt of the bride, poured coffee. The guest list was in charge of Miss Betty Sanders.

The many beautiful wedding gifts were exhibited. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Ell Sanders and son; Mr. and Mrs. Andy Jacoby and daughter, Lorraine; Mr. and Mrs. M. Woodruff, Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Campbell and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Wilson, Howard Lee and Monva Jane, Mrs. Laura Potts, Dick Carmichael, Gerry Williamson, Betty Jones, Helen Morley, Betty Sanders, Leroy Nelson, Mildred Jacoby, Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Garrett, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Garrett, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Garrett, Mary Elma and Charlene Smith, daughters of the host and hostess, and Mary Ann Green.

The bride attended Roseburg High School and the bridegroom recently received his honorable discharge from the U. S. armed forces, following three years in the Marine Corps. He was a veteran of Cape Gloucester, New Britain. He is now employed by the Chrysler Corporation at Oakland, Calif.
