Marries at Elkton, Oregon

Mrs. Richard L. Willey.

In a beautiful church wedding solemnized at 2 o'clock Sunday, September 8, at the Christian Church in Elkton, Miss Marilyn Nadine Henderer, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Henderer of Elkton became the bride of Richard L. Willey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Willey of Corvallis.

The double ring ceremony was used by Rev. Elton Benedict of Eugene in the presence of a large number of friends and relatives. An attractive setting had been arranged at the altar by Mrs. Joe Hudson and Mrs. Arlie Marsh, who used candelabra with white candles and ivy and silver lace at the back, and baskets of white asters and gladioli placed in front.

Mrs. Elton Benedict dressed in a black formal gown, was soloist, accompanied by Mrs. C. W. Henderer in a rose formal, who also played "The Bridal Chorus" from Lohengrin for the bridal party to take its place at the altar and Mendelssohn's Wedding Recessional at the close of the ceremony. Mrs. Benedict sang "Oh Promise Me" and "I Love You Truly" preceding the service.

Entering on the arm of her father, the bride was beautiful in a floor length ivory satin gown fashioned with lace yoke, fitted bodice, long sleeves and a three-quarter length train. Her veil, edged with lace, fell from a headpiece of matching lace. The bride carried a white Bible topped by a single orchid with long satin streamers. Her only jewelry was a strand of pearls.

Her bridesmaids were Miss Vivian Pontius, who wore a pink taffeta and net gown and Miss Marjorie Mackness of Portland, college roommate of the bride, who wore blue satin and net. They carried nosegays of asters and Rubrum lilies with matching satin ribbon streamers and wore tiny flowerets in their hair.

Miss Janeta Mae Weatherly, cousin of the bride, was maid of honor and wore a gown of blue satin and net and carried a bouquet of gardenias and roses. Donna Compton, in blue satin, was flower girl.

Lyle N. Bower of Corvallis acted as best man. Ushers were Lloyd Smith, cousin of the bride and Frank Knowlton of Corvallis, close friend of the groom.

The bride's mother wore a dress of aqua wool with a corsage of fuchsia roses. The bridegroom's mother wore a jersey dress of pink print with a corsage of pink roses.

The reception was held in the church parlors. The table, covered by an exquisite lace cloth, was

Candidates Appearing For Reedsport Offices

REEDSPORT — The three members of the Reedsport city council whose terms expire this year are candidates for reelection. They are John Unger, Sherman S. Smiley, and Art Olson. Petitions for their candidacy, as well as for Howard Humphrey, have been filed.

Under Reedsport's charter, half of the six-member city council is chosen every two years. Smiley and Olson are filling unexpired terms by appointment.

Petitions are also being circulated for the reelection of John Skauluren to the office of mayor. It is rumored that other candidates also will file for these offices, thus enlivening the city election, November 5.

The stock ticker was invented by Samuel F. Laws, a Presbyterian clergyman.
