Couple Marry at Methodist Church

Miss Patricia Louise Beutell, lovely granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Johnston of Yoncalla, became the bride of Norman Lowell Atterbury, Roseburg, at an impressive double ring ceremony performed by Rev. W. A. MacArthur of the Methodist Church at five o'clock Sunday, September 22, at the Methodist Church, in the presence of fifty relatives and friends.

Tall white candelabra, holding white cathedral candles, and two large floor baskets of white, pink and yellow gladioli, flanked the archway of ferns and rosebuds with smaller baskets of matching flowers as a background. The candles were lighted by the ushers, Virgil Saunders and Robert McMullen, both of Roseburg.

Mrs. Paul Geddes, organist, played softly on the organ as the guests assembled and as the bride and groom took their place at the altar, she played the Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin. At the close of the ceremony, Mrs. Geddes played Mendelssohn's Wedding Reconciliation.

The bride, given in marriage by her grandfather, was very lovely in a floor-length gown of white satin and chiffon, fashioned with a sweetheart neckline and gathered short sleeves. She wore long white jersey gloves and her fingertip veil was held in place with a lace crown outlined with seed pearls. Her only jewelry was a strand of pearls, a gift of the bridegroom. She carried a bouquet centered with a white orchid, circled with tiny red rosebuds and stephanotis with a shower of satin ribbons.
