Double Wedding Occurs in Medford

The double wedding ceremony of Miss Jean Denman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Denman of Medford, and Duane Harvey, son of Mrs. Loren D. Harvey and Miss Betty Mae Walker, daughter of Mrs. Charlotte Walker of Portland and James E. Walker of Medford, and George Denman, both of Medford, was solemnized at the Sacred Heart Catholic Church in Medford September 9. The nuptial mass was performed by the Rev. Donald C. Denman, Portland, a brother of Jean and George Denman.

Both brides were given in marriage by their respective fathers. Both chose identical wedding gowns of brocaded satin with overskirts of net fashioned with sweetheart necklines and three-quarter length sleeves and full trains. Their full length veils fell from coronets of seed pearls and they carried bouquets of gardenias and rose carnations.

Miss Irene Clausen of Medford was maid of honor for Miss Denman and Mrs. Joan Pruitt was matron of honor for Miss Walker. The attendants were matching gowns of rose-colored sheer material fashioned with bouffant skirts and sweetheart necklines.

They carried bouquets of ivory and rose carnations. Richard Pendergast, Medford, was Mr. Harvey's best man and Ralph Denman of San Francisco acted as best man to his brother.

The altar was decorated with gladioli of white and rose colors and tall baskets of gladioli formed the gateway to the altar.

Following the wedding, a breakfast was served at Ehrhart's. Out-of-town guests were Mrs. Charlotte Walker of Portland, Mrs. Loren D. Harvey and Edwin Harvey of Roseburg and Miss Zada Vincent of San Francisco.
