Mr. and Mrs. Delton E. Walker.

Miss Helen Wann, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Wann of Roseburg and Delton E. Walker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Walker were married Friday evening, September 27, at the First Presbyterian Church in Roseburg. Dr. Morris H. Roach performed the impressive double ring ceremony, using the nuptial service performed at the wedding of the bride's parents.

Two large candelabra, holding tall white tapers, were interspersed with baskets of Michaelmas daisies, laurel and gladioli. Mrs. Adrian Hulburt and Mrs. J. L. Shrum had charge of the decorations.

Preceding the ceremony, Mrs. Homer Grow played softly on the organ and Mrs. Lewis Wilson, dressed in a blue formal gown and wearing a wrist band of white carnations, lighted the candles. Mrs. Grow accompanied Thomas McNeill, cousin of the bride, who sang, "Calm as the Night" and "O Perfect Love" and also accompanied Mrs. Morris H. Roach, violinist, who played "At Dawning." Mrs. Grow played the "Bridal Chorus" from Lohengrin and at the close of the ceremony, played Mendelssohn's recessional.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was very lovely in a floor-length gown of white net fashioned with short sleeves. She wore long white gloves and her wedding veil was full length. She wore a gold locket, which had been a gift to her grandmother at her wedding.

Miss June MacMillen was maid of honor and wore a blue gown, fashioned on princess lines and with long sleeves. Miss Marian MacMillan, in pink, and Miss Louise Blake, in blue, were bridesmaids. The attendants carried Colonial bouquets of yellow gladioli and pink carnations. Thomas Wann, brother of the bride, was best man and Phillip Scallon and Lewis Wilson were ushers.

The bride's mother wore a plum-colored dress with black accessories and a corsage of yellow rosebuds. The bridegroom's mother wore a black dress with matching accessories and a corsage of pink rosebuds.

A reception followed at the home of the bride for the members of the bridal party and the immediate families of the couple. The three-tiered wedding cake was cut by the bride and a large fruit cake was cut by the bridegroom.

Mrs. J. L. Shrum had charge of the guest book.

For traveling the bride wore a sky-blue gabardine suit with black accessories. Her corsage was a deep lavendar orchid. Following a wedding trip to points north, the couple will make their home in Roseburg. The bride was graduated from Roseburg Senior High School and has been employed at Copco. The bridegroom is employed at the Walt Edmonds Motors.
