Mr. and Mrs. Earl Wiley.

One of the most charming events of the fall season was given by Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Hampton and Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Britton Saturday evening, when they invited relatives and friends to a reception held from eight to eleven o'clock at the attractive Hampton home on Chadwick street to honor Mr. and Mrs. Earl Wiley on their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary.

The lace-covered table was centered with an arrangement of pom pom dahlias, silver king and delphiniums to carry out a pretty blue, pink and white motif. Six tall white tapered flanked the centerpiece. The flowers from the garden of Mrs. L. L. Wimberly and were arranged by Mrs. Foster Butler.

Mrs. Vernon Keel assisted Mrs. Hampton and Mrs. Britton in receiving the guests. Mrs. W. A. MacArthur and Mrs. W. A. Strang, co-hostesses, were in the guest book. Alternating in pouring were: Mrs. George Churchill, Mrs. A. J. Ellison, Mrs. W. Frank Brown of Canyonville, Mrs. R. A. Forkner of Salem, Miss Jean Wiley and Mrs. Lawrence Wiley. Assisting about the rooms and in serving were Mrs. Hugh Harrison, Mrs. C. K. Rand, Mrs. M. M. Nelson, Mrs. Lawrence Wiley and Miss Jean Wiley.

A charming program was presented during the reception hours. Mrs. W. Howard Pattison, accompanied by Mrs. Paul Geddes, sang, "The Sunshine of Your Smile," by special request and Mrs. E. G. Randolph, accompanied by Mrs. Homer Grow, sang, "In the Garden of Tomorrow," and "Because." Attorney Paul Geddes sang, "Calm as the Night" and sang a duet with Mrs. Pattison, "Indian Love Call," and as a special request for Mrs. Wiley sang, "Carry Me Back to Ole Virginia." Rev. W. A. MacArthur sang, "Just For Today." The numbers by Mr. Geddes, Mrs. Pattison and Rev. Mr. MacArthur were accompanied by Mrs. Paul Geddes. Pictures of the reception were taken by V. V. Harpham.

Guests enjoying the occasion with Mr. and Mrs. Hampton and Mr. and Mrs. Britton, honoring Mr. and Mrs. Wiley, included: Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Forkner of Salem, Mrs. Jack Dahl, Seattle; Mr. and Mrs. W. Frank Brown and Mr. and Mrs. William E. Brown, Canyonville; Mrs. J. Harold Nichols, Brookway; Mrs. Jake Hammer, Milbank, S. D.; Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Rand, Mrs. Harold McKay, Mr. and Mrs. George Churchill, Mr. and Mrs. Theo Bond and daughter, Hallie Louise; Mrs. Otto Olson, School.

Beautiful Grace Cathedral of San Francisco was the setting for the marriage of Miss Delight G. Heath, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ellsworth Heath of Salem to Lieut. Henry H. Frye, U. S. N., son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Wm. H. Frye of Washington, D. C., on September 27 at a 7 o'clock candlelight ceremony.

The altar was decorated with white gladioli and chrysanthemums. Canon Charles Shreve performed the ceremony and Paul J. Burroughs played the wedding marches.

The bride was escorted down the aisle and given in marriage by Colonel Ralph M. Barry, U. S. A. Her bridal gown was of traditional white satin fashioned with a full skirt terminating in a long train. The snug fitting bodice was designed with a net yoke edged with pearl embroidery. There was a row of self-covered buttons down the back and on each sleeve which terminated in a point at the wrist. The full length veil of tulle was arranged from a crown of orange blossoms. The bride carried a white prayer book on which were placed a white orchid, gardenias and bouvardia with satin streamers.

Miss Genevieve Stuart of San Francisco was maid of honor. Her dress was of pink lace and she wore a tiny Juliet cap and carried a bouquet of chrysanthemums.

J. Henry Movlan of Berkeley was best man. Seating the guests was Clark Runner of San Francisco.

For her daughter's nuptials, Mrs. Heath wore a gown of powder blue enhanced with silver beading. She wore a feather hat and a corsage of orchids.

A dinner and reception followed the ceremony at the St. Francis hotel. The bride's table was centered with a tiered wedding cake which was encircled with gardenias. The dinner table had a beautiful arrangement of white gladioli, chrysanthemums and stocks, flanked at each side by silver candelabra holding white tapers.

The couple are spending their honeymoon at Carmel. For her going away, the bride chose a dressmaker suit of soft blue. She wore a pale gold hat trimmed with blue feathers and orchid veiling. Her coat was of pale gold and pinned to her shoulder was a corsage of orchids.

The new Mrs. Frye is a former teacher in both the Sutherlin and Yoncalla High Schools and is well known throughout the county. She attended the University of Oregon and was graduated by Willamette University.

and Mrs. Fred Miller hostesses. The Halloween motif was beautifully carried out in the decorations.

Mrs. H. T. Bloom was elected and installed as president with Mrs. Oliver L. Johnson acting as installing officer and Mrs. J. E. Dent, installing marshal.

Covers were placed for Mrs. Hulda Howe and Mrs. Johnson, guests, and Mrs. J. B. Bailey, Mrs. H. T. Bloom, Mrs. J. E. Dent, Miss Ina Farnsworth, Mrs. Fred A. Gott, Mrs. Harry F. Hatfield, Mrs. V. V. Harpham, Mrs. V. T.
