'Cinderella' Footwear Displayed by Hobbyist

An exhibition of collector's and hobbyist's items is being put on display weekly in the show window of the Roseburg Pharmacy at 241 N. Jackson street. Manager Robert Harris said Monday.

The present hobby display, owned by a nine-year-old Roseburg girl, name withheld at her own request, is a 138-piece collection of various "Cinderella" type shoes, slippers, and boots of miniature size made from materials ranging from wood and leather to glass and stone. This is the second hobby to be exhibited by Roseburg and Douglas County residents, Harris said, last week's layout consisting of items prized by a local tool-leather hobbyist.

'Pep Parade,' Dated At R. H. S., Assures Oodles of Laughs

"Pep Parade," with an all-male cast and chorus, to be staged next Thursday and Friday, October 24 and 25, at the Senior High School stage, promises to be an entertainment full of laughs for the entire family, said Miss Thelma Sherman, director.

All local talent, the cast includes 10 characters from the "Peck household," as well as a bevy of "beauties" to do the singing and dancing numbers. "Of course, these chorus girls are really members of the Roseburg Active Club, which is sponsoring 'Pep Parade,'" Miss Sherman confided.

"Come and see the trials and tribulations of the Peck household," she said. "Poor Henry, always on the lookout for a pretty girl in spite of Gussie's eagle eye."

"You can't miss Rosella's (Bill Tubbs), singing 'Is You Is, or Is You Ain't My Baby?'"

"When Tommy disguises himself as a 'footologist' and reads Hortense's, Hen's and Aunt Hattie's feet well our guess is that you will have a good old-fashioned laughing jag!"

"Dr. Dora Druggins complicates matters considerably when she gets the wrong patient and proceeds to give a treatment."

"This comedy cast includes: Gussie Peck (the domineering wife), Ray Barkhurst; Henry Peck (the hen-pecked husband), Billy Mohr; Judy Peck (the beautiful daughter), Don Forbes; Aunt Hattie Hotchkiss (the wealthy aunt), Gene Krewson; Tommy Meadows (Judy's heart interest), Jim Loomis; Keith Trevelyan (Mama's choice for Judy), Arlo Jacklin; Madame De La Clair (French fortune teller), Eddie Wyatt; Dr. Dora Druggins (woman osteopath), Verne Hill; Rosella Ricketts (negro cook), Bill Tubbs, and Hortense 'Yohnson' (Swedish maid), Max Swail."

"Tickets may be obtained at the Rainbow Grill, Dick Gilman's Hairing Hall, Slager Sewing Machine Company, Billy Mohr's Service Station, and from Cal Brown at Kamper's."

Better Civic Progress Aim of Yoncalla Women

YONCALLA — Aroused over the "lack of interest" of the Yoncalla city council in supplying adequate water during summer months to maintain sufficient fire protection, and for irrigation, the women of this community have organized a civic club with the purpose of improving Yoncalla.

The town has been divided into four wards, with a chairman for each ward. The club will meet at 7:30, the first Monday of each month, at the city hall. All persons interested may attend.

Mrs. Sidney Lasswell has been elected president of the organization; Mrs. Herman Schoss, secretary-treasurer, and Mrs. Don Brance, her assistant. Mrs. Lee Blickenstaff is first vice president and Mrs. Vern Williams, second vice president.

Committees include: By-laws, Mrs. Bob Kamardin, Mrs. Olive

McKee and Mrs. Price Thomas; publicity, Mrs. Jean Cowan and Mrs. Fred Lee.
