Mr. and Mrs. Fred W. Hungerford celebrated their fiftieth wedding anniversary at a charming open-house affair at their farm home near Sutherlin, Sunday, October 20, by inviting friends to call between the hours of two and six o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Hungerford were married at the home of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George McKee, of Chester, Iowa, October 21, 1896. Mr. Hungerford was the eldest son of the late Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Hungerford of Fillmore, Minn. Following their marriage, they resided on a farm near Chester, Iowa, until the spring of 1899, when they and their small son moved to Tenny, Minn., where they farmed until 1903, when they moved to Wendell, Minn. Mr. Hungerford was a mail carrier out of Wendell until April 1, 1919, when he resigned to devote his time to carpenter work. In the fall of 1928, the family came west and settled in Oregon. The Hungerfords have six children, all of whom are living, and include: Emory of Portland; Fay, (Mrs. John Weber) of Yoncalla; Floyd of Kelso, Wash.; Homer of Drain; Etha (Mrs. Dwight Brewster) of Woodland, Wash.; and Fern (Mrs. Orbie Nicolai) of Lomita, Calif. They have seventeen grandchildren.

The family dinner was held in the evening with all the children and their families present with the exception of Floyd.

Mrs. Fannie McKee, sister of Mr. Hungerford, of Bellflower, Calif.; Dean McKee (brother of Mrs. Hungerford) of Nashua, Montana; and Mrs. William Stern (sister of Mrs. Hungerford) of Taopi, Minn., were also guests at the dinner.

MRS. MEL INGRAM ENTERTAINS BRIDGE FOURSOME MONDAY

Marigolds formed a pretty arrangement for the one-thirty o'clock dessert-luncheon given by Mrs. Mel Ingram Monday, when she entertained her bridge foursome at her attractive home on Hamilton Avenue. Covers were placed for Mrs. E. A. Pearson, and daughter, Mary Lynn; Mrs. H. W. Gray; Mrs. Frederick J. Porter and Mrs. Ingram.

Contract bridge was in play during the afternoon with Mrs. Porter winning the high score.

IWA CAMP FIRE GROUP HAS FIREMAKER'S DINNER AND REGULAR MEETING

The Iwa Camp Fire group met Saturday evening for a delightful Firemaker's dinner at the E. K. Foster home with Mary Ann Foster and Kathryn Raade acting as co-hostesses. The Halloween motif was cleverly carried out in the decorations. The table was centered with a large jack-o-lantern filled with colorful fall fruits and flanked by tall yellow tapers.

Games were played during the social hour with Marjane Wilson winning the prize.

Those enjoying the evening with the two hostesses included: Marjane and Ethel Wilson, Jeanne Maddox, Shirley Tyrer, Lee Ann Donnelly, Dorothy, Lucille and Elizabeth Miller, Marjorie Moore, Nannette Des Biens, Margaret Jones and the guardian, Mrs. Sidney Domenico.

The group met Wednesday afternoon at St. Joseph's school and worked on ranks. Sample boxes of Christmas cards were on display and the girls will take orders for the cards to raise funds for purchasing shoes and clothing to be sent to their adopted French daughter for Christmas. Plans were also made for a Council Fire to be held the latter part of November. The group decided to clean the city park today.

Those present were: Marilyn McFetlege, Shirley Pinnard and Nannette Des Biens, guests; Lee Ann Donnelly, a new member, and Marjorie Moore, Patricia Reidy, Celeste Sory, Kathryn Raade, Margaret Jones, Mary Ann Foster, Marjane and Ethel Wilson, Jeanne Maddox, Shirley Tyrer, Dorothy, Elizabeth and Lucille Miller, Mrs. Sidney Domenico, guardian, and Mrs. John Schafer, assistant guardian.

The group will meet next Wednesday at 3:30 o'clock at St. Joseph's School.
