Mr. and Mrs. Crawford Fay Kohnle.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hutchins wedding were taken by Eugene Powell of the Master Studio. Out-of-town guests present were the bridegroom's step-father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Graham Griswold, Portland, October 11, at the attractive Hutchins home on Blakeley street. Rev. Charles A. Edwards performed the impressive ring ceremony at two-thirty o'clock in the afternoon in the presence of relatives and close friends of the couple.

Soft shades of dahlias and colorful autumn leaves formed a pretty setting for the ceremony and were also used to decorate the serving table.

The bride was lovely in a rose-bleg suit with brown accessories. Her corsage was of large white orchids. She was given in marriage by her father. The wedding music was played by Mrs. O. A. Kennerly, Jr. Both the bride's mother and the bridegroom's mother wore black afternoon dresses. Pictures of the
