B. P. W. C. INVITES PUBLIC TO ANNUAL THANKSGIVING BALL

For the first time since the war began and ended, the Business and Professional Women's Club members feel they can conscientiously sponsor a purely social affair and will resume sponsoring the annual Thanksgiving ball, the date for this year to be Thanksgiving evening, November 28, at 9 o'clock at the Armory. The club first sponsored this dance 22 years ago, but during the war suspended the dances to do war work.

Laura Iles and Stella Spencer are co-chairmen of the affair and a local orchestra has been engaged to furnish the music. Tickets for the dance will be on sale by all club members. A scholarship fund will be started from the proceeds. Previously, the club contributed to a student loan fund, but this year will furnish a scholarship to some worthy Roseburg girl.

Roseburg Rooms Needed for City's Shriner Visitors

More than 500 Shriners, candidates for membership in the fraternal order, and their wives and guests are expected to arrive in Roseburg Saturday, November 23, for Hillah Temple's fall ceremonial.

The Shriners, fun order of the Masons, are renowned for their charity, million-dollar cash contribution supporting 16 charitable hospitals for crippled children in North America.

An appeal to Roseburg residents was made today for housing facilities for the attending Shriners and visitors by Bruce Elliott, housing committee chairman, who stated that all available hotel and auto courts have been contacted. He urged local residents who have extra sleeping facilities, to contact members of the committee or call the J. C. Penney store.

Otto Harrah, hospitality chairman, said today that representatives will begin arriving in Roseburg for the fall Thanksgiving ceremonial Friday from Shrine clubs as far east as Lakeview, south to Yreka and Crescent City and north to Portland. The main body is expected to arrive in Roseburg for the one day and night festivities Saturday noon.

Shriners of Hillah Temple hold two ceremonials a year, the last one being held at Klamath Falls in the spring. Saturday's activities will include business sessions, hospitality reception for delegates and new candidates, band concert, patrol drills, dutch lunch, a bountiful turkey banquet and, weather permitting, a large, colorful parade for the general public.

Program Outlined
Candidates for the fraternal order will begin official registration at the Rose Hotel, Saturday at 1 P. M. A business session of the 137 Club, newest Hillah charity organization will follow. At 4 P. M. a general, hospitality get-together will be held at the Armory. All Shriners will be seated at a banquet at 5:30 at Kennedy's Dutch Mill. Chairman
