DOES YOUR CHILD SQUIRM?

Don't scold your child for fidgeting or scratching at "the base of the spine." These may be warning signs of Pin-Worms. If so, watch out! It is now known that the only creatures living and growing inside the human body can cause real distress. And the infection usually spreads like wildfire.

If you suspect Pin-Worms, get JAYNE'S P-W right away. P-W is a medically sound treatment, based on an officially recognized drug principle which has proved so wonderfully effective in dealing with Pin-Worms. The small, easy to take P-W tablets act in a special way to destroy the pests. Your druggist knows: P-W for Pin-Worms!

Smart Young Buck

Possibly tired of foraging for himself and aware that Indiana law prohibits killing deer in the state at any time, the young buck in photo above wandered onto the farm of Ray Demass, near Chesterton, mingled with his herd of cattle and became a pet. Above, cattle look on wonderingly as farmer Demass feeds the deer, who answers to his name, Jack.

Is There a Barber in the House?

Long-haired Jimmy Garvin, of Washington, D. C., has a rival for masculine hirsute honors in George Estrada, 13-year-old Chicago schoolboy who has never had his hair cut. Above, schoolmates Rose Marie Malillie, left, and Betty Nowiki display his pigtails while he serves as school safety patrolman.

Return to Albany—Mr. and Mrs. Kirk Tigard and son, David, have returned to their home at Albany, following a visit with Mrs. Tigard's parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Keasey, Sr., on the Keasey road.

James Miller of Roseburg Passes

James Miller, 59, Roseburg resident for the past 26 years, died yesterday, after a short illness, at Mercy hospital. He was engaged here in the contracting business.

Mr. Miller was born August 1, 1887, in Dundee, Scotland, coming directly to Roseburg from his native land. He was a member of the Masonic Lodge, the Shrine, Knights of Pythias and the Eagles Lodge.

Mr. Miller's wife died in 1941. They are survived by three sons, William J., Leslie, and Glen R. Miller, all of Roseburg. Also surviving is Mrs. Miller's mother, Mrs. Janet Cowan, who made her home with the family for the past 35 years.

Mr. Miller also has one brother and two sisters residing in Scotland, and one sister residing in New Zealand.

Services will be held in the chapel of the Long and Orr Mortuary Saturday, November 23, at 2 P. M. Interment will follow in the Masonic cemetery, under auspices of the Masonic Lodge.

Turkey Show Gets $1,200 From State

Distribution of $1,200 to the Northwestern Turkey Show from the state's 3½ per cent share of dog and horse racing receipts, was announced by Secretary of State Farrell today.

Total state revenues from dog and horse racing bets in 1946 was $513,117, the largest return on record. The figure compares with $398,755 in 1945, and $346,836 in 1944. It is 4½ times as great as in 1939.

A big reason for the large increase was the opening of the Portland Meadows horse racing track in Portland.

Counties got $351,200 of the total, or $9,755 for each county. There was $213,200 distributed to the counties today and the remainder last August. These funds are used for county fairs.

Distribution was made also to the Pacific International Livestock Show, Oregon State Fair, Pendleton Round-up and Eastern Oregon Livestock Show, as well as to the Northwestern Turkey Show.
