BENSON P.T.A. MEETING HELD

The regular meeting of Benson P.T.A. was held Monday night at the schoolhouse. Mrs. Larry Strode, president, had charge. Reports from the different committees were made. Mrs. Fred Hargis, who was in charge of assembling supplies for the First Aid room, reported that complete. Mrs. Perry Thiele, P.T.A. membership chairman, reported that Benson had four members over the 40 per cent increase on P.T.A. membership. Mr. Crane, the principal, stressed the need of basketball supplies for this coming season. It was also suggested by Mr. Crane that a sand box would be nice to have installed in the playground for the little folks.

Room count showed Mr. Crane's and Miss Sherk's rooms to each receive a book for award this month. Benson P.T.A. wishes to thank the school board most heartily for the installing of the cement floor in the play shed as this was one of the most needed improvements. For the program part of the meeting the Camp Fire girls accompanied by Miss Farnsworth sang "Whispering Hope." Mrs. Des O'Brien is the new Camp Fire girls guardian and it is felt that the group will find her appointment very satisfactory. After the meeting, refreshments of cake and ice cream were served in the lunch room. Much stress could be put on the very fine and well-balanced meals that are being served in the Benson lunchroom.

Mrs. Makes Hit

BELVIDERE, Ill., Nov. 22.—(AP) — Raymond Beckley returned from an all-day hunting trip and informed his wife that he had no pheasants—the birds kept out of gun range.

Mrs. Beckley grinned, told him to sit down to the table, and served up a plump roast pheasant.

The Ringneck had scooted in front of her automobile while she was turning home after driving her husband to the shooting grounds.

The Hebrew used snails as a remedy for sores; the fly for the sting of a wasp; the serpent for the mange; the lizard for the bite of the scorpion.

The surface temperature of the ocean's water influences rainfall and wind far inland.
