Marry at Presbyterian Church

Marilyn Baker, lovely daughter of Mrs. Elsie Baker of Tiller, became the bride of Don Compton, son of Mrs. Harley Agee, Roseburg, at an impressive ceremony at eight o'clock the evening of November 2, at the First Presbyterian Church with Dr. Morris H. Roach officiating.

Preceding the ceremony, Mrs. Robert Hallcraft lighted the candles and Miss Shirley Shrum sang "Because," accompanied by Mrs. Homer Grow, who played the traditional wedding marches.

The bride wore a gold-colored suit with cherry accessories. She carried a white Bible topped by an arrangement of white carnations and stephanotis.

Miss Elva Jean Morgan, maid of honor, wore a black checked suit with white accessories and a corsage of white carnations. Robert Hallcraft was best man and Wilbur Hallcraft and Marion Shore were ushers. The men in a wedding party wore their uniforms. The bride's mother wore a black flowered dress and the bridegroom's mother wore a light blue suit. Both mothers wore gardenia corsages.

Out of town guests included: Walter Baker of Sacramento, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. William Baker of Corvallis and Mrs. Wesley Clark of Powers, Ore.

The bride was graduated from Roseburg Senior High School and attended business college in Portland. The bridegroom has just returned from the U. S. Navy and is on terminal leave for five years. The couple will make their home at Tiller.

At the tea hour, Mrs. Ashley served lovely refreshments at one large table, beautifully decorated with miniature skorks attached to the chandelier, a decorated cake as the centerpiece and clever pink and blue miniature umbrella favors tied with ribbons marking the guests' places.

WESLEY BIBLE CLASS HONORS GORDON WILLIAMS AT POTLUCK DINNER

A delightful potluck dinner was enjoyed by more than thirty members and friends of the Wesley Bible Class of the Methodist Sunday School in the social rooms of the church following the morning worship service Sunday.

Gordon Williams was especially honored at the dinner with the traditional cake and candles honoring his eighty-fifth birthday. The Rev. J. B. Needham, teacher of the class, made a short talk congratulating Mr. Williams and commending him for his long and useful service as a Sunday School teacher, which he
