Mr. and Mrs. Sidney I. Fredrickson

Miss Atha Lee Wyatt, attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Wyatt of Knightstown, Ind., and Sidney I. Fredrickson, son of Mrs. C. E. Fredrickson and the late Mr. Fredrickson of Roseburg, were married Friday evening, November 22 at the First Presbyterian Church. Dr. Morris H. Roach performed the impressive ceremony at seven o'clock. Candela, holding tall white tapers, and baskets of chrysanthemums decorated the altar.

The bride wore a dark gray jersey dress with black accessories. She carried a white prayer book topped by a large orchid. Mrs. G. M. Iles was matron of honor and wore a green suit trimmed in fur. Her corsage was of pink roses. G. M. Iles acted as best man. Gerald M. Wyatt, brother of the bride, gave her in marriage.

A reception followed at the home of the bridegroom's mother, Mrs. C. E. Fredrickson and daughter, Miss Vera, served. The lace-covered table was centered with a bouquet of chrysanthemums.

Following a wedding trip to coast points, Mr. and Mrs. Fredrickson returned to Roseburg and are residing in apartment 306 in the Kohlhaugen Apartments.

The bride received her education in Indiana and later did defense work in California and after the war was employed as a clerk at one of the large hotels in Santa Barbara, Calif. The bridegroom attended Roseburg Senior High School and served four and one-half years with the U. S. Army in the European theater of Operations.

WEDDING RECEPTION IS GIVEN AT HARTFORD HOME SUNDAY EVENING

A lovely reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Hartford last Sunday evening in honor of the marriage of their daughter, Evelyn Lavonne, to James L. Shepherd, both of Oakland.

The wedding took place at two o'clock Sunday afternoon, November 24, at the home of Rev. Mr. Howard in Oakland. The bride wore a silver crepe dress and a corsage of red carnations.

The couple is well known in Oakland. The bride was graduated from Yoncalia High School in 1946.

At seven o'clock a dinner was served by candlelight at the home of the bride's parents. Owing to illness in the family, only the immediate relatives of the couple were present.

Mr. and Mrs. Shepherd plan to build a home on their farm north of Oakland in the near future.

MRS. C. B. WADE IS HOSTESS TO CHRISTMAS CLUB TUESDAY EVENING

Chrysanthemums formed a pretty motif for the seven o'clock dinner-party given Tuesday evening by Mrs. C. B. Wade, when she graciously entertained the Christmas Club at her beautiful home on South Kane street.

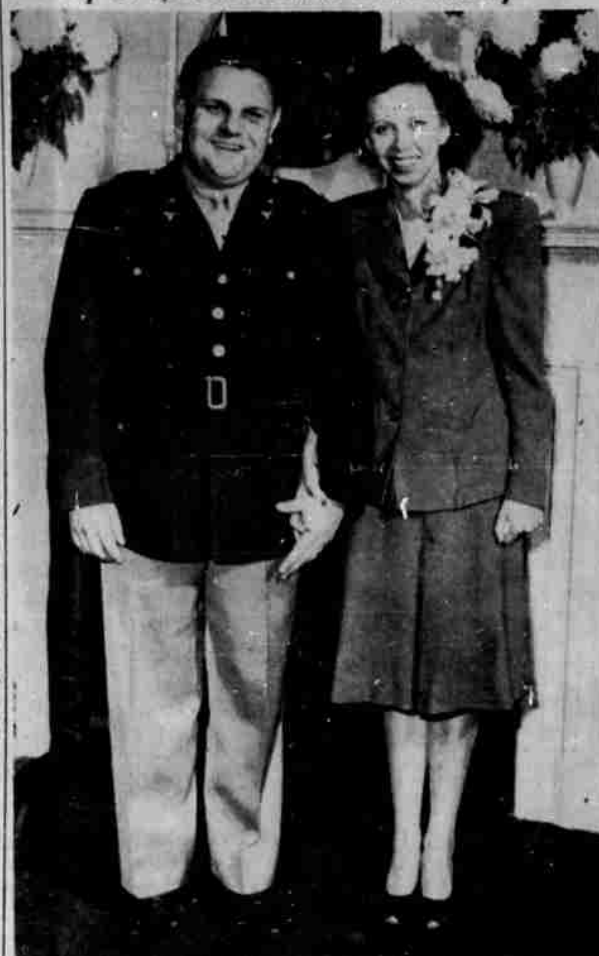

Covers were placed for Mrs. S. G. Palmer, Mrs. Clair K. Allen, Mrs. D. B. Bubar, Mrs. J. R. Wharton, Mrs. H. O. Pargeter, Mrs. Kenneth Quine, Mrs. H. C. Church, Mrs. O. M. Berrie, Mrs. L. E. McClintock, Mrs. R. D. Bridges, Mrs. Guy Cordon and the hostess, Mrs. Wade.

Sewing and visiting were enjoyed during the pleasant social hours.

TRAIL DUSTERS TO ELECT OFFICERS

Dr. and Mrs. Samuel P. Carson.

Jane Bissell, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Kenneth W. Kinney of Roseburg and Dr. Samuel P. Carson, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Carson of Los Angeles, were quietly married at an impressive double ring ceremony Friday evening, November 22, at seven o'clock at the attractive Kinney home at the Faculty Post. Dr. Albert Fellers, chaplain at the facility, performed the nuptials and little Jimmy Bissell, four-year-old son of the bride, was ring-bearer. Mrs. Wallace Hagedstad of Grants Pass was matron of honor and Dr. W. F. Amiot was best man.

White Turner chrysanthemums formed the decorations for the ceremony, while the lace-covered serving table was centered with a large decorated wedding cake. Pastel-colored chrysanthemums graced the buffet. Mrs. W. F. Amiot, Mrs. Otto Schaeffer, Mrs. Edgar Lewis and Mrs. Wilma Giovanni assisted in serving.

The bride was charming in a turquoise blue wool suit. Her corsage was of gardenias encircled with pink rosebuds and she wore a pink rosebud and net head-dress. Mrs. Hagedstad wore a light grey checked suit with a corsage of cerise-colored rosebuds with matching rosebuds in her hair. The bride's mother wore a light blue wool frock with a corsage of pink rosebuds.

Following a honeymoon to the coast, Dr. and Mrs. Carson will be at home to their friends at 614 Nebo Street, Coates Addition, in Roseburg.

The bride attended Oregon State College and is a member of Alpha Gamma Delta sorority. The bridegroom attended U. C. L. A., where he took his pre-medics and completed his medical course at University of Southern California. He is a member of Chi Chi, medical fraternity. He has been a member of the medical staff at the Roseburg Facility for the last five months. Dr. and Mrs. Carson plan to spend the Christmas holidays in Los Angeles with his parents.

MRS. P. M. LEE IS HOSTESS TO CLUB AT CHARMING LUNCHEON

Chrysanthemums formed a pretty motif for the charming one o'clock luncheon given Tuesday by Mrs. P. M. Lee, when she entertained her bridge club at her lovely home on South Main Street.
