Mr. and Mrs. Donald Wright.

Miss Norma Jean Shrum, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vern Shrum of Glendale and Donald Wright, son of Mr. and Mrs. Perry Wright of Cape Hill, were married Thanksgiving day at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Casebeer at Glendale.

The ceremony was read at 2 o'clock by the Rev. W. H. MacArthur, pastor of the Methodist Church in this city, before a fire-place banked with greenery and flanked by baskets of white chrysanthemums and candelabra with tall white tapers. Miss Wanda Andrus, cousin of the bride, lighted the tapers.

The bride wore a dusty pink afternoon dress with cap sleeves and draped skirt. She wore a single strand of pearls, a gift of the groom, and carried a small white Bible and an orchid. Miss Joyce Everts was maid of honor and wore a two-piece blue dress, and her flowers were pink and yellow pom-pom chrysanthemums.

The bridegroom was attended by Roy J. Smith.

Following the ceremony a dinner honored the couple and a three-tiered wedding cake was cut and served by the bridal couple.

For going-away the bride chose a gray pin stripe suit with belted jacket, a black topcoat and accessories. After a short wedding trip at points north they returned to Roseburg where they will make their home.

Attending the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Vern Shrum, Duane Shrum, Mr. and Mrs. Perry Wright, Miss Lois Blake, Leslie Hatfield, Mr. and Mrs. Lou Andrus, Wanda and Marjory Andrus, Mrs. Ray Otey of Portland, Miss Caroline Neal of Medford, Miss Shirley Shrum, Herbert Melvin and Mr. and Mrs. George Casebeer and sons, Richard and Allen.
