Jamboree To Launch Season Of B League

Twelve Douglas County Hoop Teams to Battle At R. H. S. Gym Tonight

Jamboree Scheduled Tonight
North Division—South Division
7:30—Oakland vs. Canyonville
7:45—Sutherlin vs. Days Creek
8:00—Glide vs. Riddle
8:15—Yell Contest of A. S. B.
8:45—Drain vs. Myrtle Creek
9:00—Yoncalla vs. Glendale
9:15—Elkton vs. Camas Valley

Douglas County's B League cagers will kick off the lid of their 1946-47 basketball season with a jamboree tonight at the Roseburg High School gym. Twelve teams, representing six of the county's Northern Division and six of the Southern Division, will vie for the leading pre-season dividing circuit.

The games will consist of two six-minute halves with a yell contest slated for midway in the evening's hoop tournament between student bodies of the 12 schools.

A capacity crowd is expected and reports art that each school's student body is out to win the coveted yell contest trophy, as well as support their respective quintets with all their lungs.

Omer J. Monger, local Roseburg principal, Friday advised local fans to attend the hoop program early as sections are to be set aside for each of the vying student bodies' pep rally.

Myrtle Creek Favored

Myrtle Creek, defending 1945 county champions, will enter the competition decided favorities over Drain, while other teams will be fairly evenly matched in the six twelve-minute previews of this year's B League casaba crop.

The Blue and Gold Myrtle Creek Vikings, coached this year by Forrest C. Loghry, have four returning lettermen this year and have already knocked over Roseburg's Indians 23-21 although falling to the Redskins in the return match, 30-19. Slated for action tonight are Hanna, Weeks, Shirtcliff, Wilson and Bowen.

The Drain five are not to be shut off against Myrtle Creek, however, as they have also had preseason experience, dropping contests to Lorane of the Lane County circuit, 38-22 and 32-17.

Glendale's Pirates are reported by Coach Carl S. White as developing rather slowly, but expect lone letterman Barong to be the main scoring threat. Teammates will include Cleveland, Sparks, Hamilton and Cooper.

The Purple and Golds of Yoncalla boast an all-letterman five and may be termed slight favorites over Glendale. Although the Eagles have yet to overcome kinks of football this year, they expect to floor a fair quintet consisting of Fast, Wales, Gordon, Kohler and Ritchey.

Carvis B. Artrip reports his Riddle Irish club is studded with six returning lettermen to include Harverly, Townsend, Riddle, Season, Burwell and Zumwalt. Although they are somewhat short on height, they expect to give tonight's opposing Glide team some real competition.

Elkton Has Tall Trio

Three senior lettermen form the nucleus of the Elkton Red and White cagers, who go aaginst Camas Valley tonight. Coach Carl M. Grimsrud is also honored this year with a pick of six of last year's returners, three of whom measure more than six feet in height. Probable lineup for the Elks include Kesterson, Gourley, Smith, Jackson, Colley, Clemo and Binder.

Not expected to possess the strength of last year's club, the Wolves of Coach L. R. Hanson's Days Creek squad possess three returners. Although slow in developing this year, Hanson states that squad competition for starting berths has been at its peak. Slated for probable action are Bratten, Smith, Snyder, Duncan, Moore, Deatherage, Lortie and L. Moore.

The division winning tonight's jamboree will be determined by the division tallying the most points during the six contests.

Police Cooperate In Effort to Cut Traffic Tragedies

Chief of Police Erwin Short today announced his department is cooperating with the office of Secretary of State Farrell in conducting a concerted drive against Christmas holiday accidents during the latter part of December.

"Since moving traffic violations play an important part in many of these holiday accidents, this department plans to keep a sharp eye on motor vehicle operators in an effort to discourage these costly violations," Short declared.

The chief listed these violations as major factors in most urban traffic accidents during the holiday season:

1. Failure to observe stop signs and traffic signals.
2. Failure to yield right of way to other drivers or to pedestrians in crosswalks.
3. Speed too great for conditions.
4. Making turns from improper lanes.
5. Failure to give adequate signals for starting, stopping, and turning.

Short urged motorists to observe traffic regulations as their part of the campaign to reduce the tragic annual Christmas holiday toll.

"During the past six years, traffic accidents occurring during the final ten days of December have taken a total of 63 lives in this state," the chief said. "This year drive and walk carefully. Remember this slogan: 'Don't Let Death Take Your Holiday!'"

Objectives Of Boy Scouts For Coming Year Set

A planning conference of the Oregon Trail Council, Boy Scouts of America, was held Sunday last in Eugene, at which time membership, health and safety, and leadership training objectives were set for the year 1947.

The training committee, under the leadership of Council President J. R. Bruckart and Field Executive Harold J. Shearer, developed plans for conducting scout leadership courses in each of the districts of the council within the first quarter of 1947. These courses are to include leadership training opportunities in all phases of scouting, cub scouting, boy scouting and senior scouting.

The organization and extension committee under the direction of Dr. C. H. Michel, noted membership status as of November 30 including a grand total of 4351 members in the 123 units of the Oregon Trail Council. Objectives approved included a minimum grand total membership of 4733 in 140 units with special emphasis being given to the senior program for young men in the 15 to 18 age bracket.

Dr. E. D. Furrer indicated the health and safety group is again planning for inspection of every meeting place within the council; examination of all scouts participating in long-term camps and general emphasis on the advancement program, particularly those relating to first aid and safety. General inspection of camps will be made as heretofore.

'Pro' Entertainers Billed at Elks' Smoker

Professional entertainers will make up the cast of the vaudeville troupe which will entertain men attending the Stag Smoker to be presented Saturday night by the Roseburg Elks lodge, it was announced today by Harry Pinniger, Elks Club manager.

The vaudeville show will be a part of a full evening of entertainment open to all men. Proceeds will be used to finance the annual Elks Christmas party for children Dec. 21, and for Christmas charities.

Included in the cast of entertainers will be Elaine Dennis, vocalist and master of ceremonies; Lennie Russell, pantomine and vocal; Ann Dawson, South Sea dances; Toni Fitzgerald, exotic dancer; Wes Usher, comedian and harmonica.
