DAILY DEVOTIONS

DR. CHARLES A. EDWARDS

We give thanks always for you, remembering without ceasing your work of faith and labor of love." 1 Thess. 1:2 Here is a glowing tribute that has shone through the centuries like a lifted lamp. To have one's faith, labor, love and hope, stand out crystal clear in another's memory is more to be desired as a memorial than any marble shaft. A strong faith in the heart never shines for the individual alone. It reaches out and kindles something of that same silver fire in others. Any labor of love is an inspiration which often has far-reaching results. "Patience of hope in the Lord" has the power to renew the jangling hope of others. So the steadfast Christian moves through his days as a force of righteousness and lives on in memory. It is no wonder St. Paul thanked God for the Thessalonians; that he prayed for them daily; and that through the ages they are still examples to all that believe we too may thus be radiantly remembered. We too may cause others to offer up prayers of thanksgiving. If our lives be thus worthy, we too may become examples to all who seek the way of truth. Let us give hearty thanks it is our privilege to leave a benediction upon others. Amen.
